The Family and Social Change in Chinese Societies Dudley L. Poston, Jr., Wen Shan Yang, Demetrea Nicole Farris, 2013-11-26 This book focuses on families and their changes in Taiwan and China Traditional notions of what constitutes a family have been changing in China Taiwan and other Asian countries The chapters in this book provide interesting methodological and substantive contributions to the discourse on family and social change in Chinese societies They also underscore the implications of the various social changes in Chinese families Written by Chinese and Western scholars they provide an unprecedented overview of what is known about the effects of social change on Chinese families One might think that defining a family is an easy task because the family is so significant to society and is universal The family is the first place we learn culture norms values and gender roles Families exist in all societies throughout the world but their constitution differs In the past several decades there have been many changes in the family in Taiwan and China For instance whereas in the West we use a bilineal system of descent in which descent is traced through both the mother's side and the father's side of the family in many parts of China descent is patrilineal although this is changing and China and Taiwan are starting to assume a family constitution similar to that in the West This and other issues are discussed in great detail in this book Indeed it is the very nature of the differences that motivated the writing of this book on changing families in Taiwan and China The chapters in Part I The Family in Taiwan and China focus on the basic family issues in Taiwan and China that provide the groundwork for many of the chapters that follow Chapter 1 is about the distribution of resources in the family in Taiwan Chapter 2 focuses on filial piety and the autonomous development of adolescents in the Taiwanese family and Chapter 3 explores the important issue of family poverty in Taiwan Chapter 4 moves away from Taiwan and looks at several issues of family growth and change in Hong Kong noting the interesting similarities and differences between Hong Kong and China Part II Issues of Marriage the Family and Fertility in Taiwan and China focuses specifically on marriage family and fertility In Chapter 5 the authors discuss the relationships between marital status socioeconomic status and the subjective well being among women in Hong Kong and Taiwan Chapter 6 describes patterns of sexual activity in China and the United States Chapter 7 considers gender imbalances in Taiwan and their impact on the marriage market Chapter 8 also focuses on Taiwan and examines the effects of mothers' attitudes on daughters' interaction with their mothers in law Chapter 9 compares female and male fertility trends and changes in Taiwan Part III Children and the Family in East Asia and in Western Countries consists of comparative studies of the family and children Chapter 10 examines the dynamics of grandparents caring for children in China Chapter 11 explores family values and parent child interaction in Taiwan Chapter 12 examines the significant amount of diversity among families in contemporary Taiwan Chapter 13 describes adolescent development in Taiwan Chapter 14 examines the impact of son preference on fertility in China South Korea and the United States And Chapter 15 explores the determinants of intergenerational support in Taiwan The final chapter in our book the only chapter in Part IV The Family and the Future in Taiwan examines the future of the family in Taiwan with respect especially to the marriage market and aged dependency Leadership in Spaces and Places Arja Ropo,Perttu Salovaara,Erika Sauer,Donatella De Paoli,2015-06-29 By combining new research on leadership and workspaces Leadership in Spaces and Places argues for a radical reconceptualization of leadership They argue leadership is not only about leaders themselves but is also affected by the built environment Wellbeing and Policy Marie Briguglio,Natalia Czap,Kate Laffan,2025-06-06 As wellbeing becomes an increasingly explicit policy goal in countries across the world the demand for evidence upon which to base intervention is growing Featuring 41 contributing authors from 18 countries this book surveys and synthesizes recent developments in wellbeing science and policy to highlight key lessons learned and to offer actionable insights for policy making Opening with a foreword by Roberta Metsola President of the European Parliament and an introductory chapter surveying the fundamentals of wellbeing policy the book reviews the links between wellbeing and various domains including income work health family altruism and empathy ageing gender education housing environment crime democracy migration religion digital technology and art culture and creativity The book also examines the state of the art on wellbeing policy frameworks in diverse contexts including developed and developing countries small and large states across the world documenting interventions by governmental private or non governmental organizations Case studies include Bhutan New Zealand Finland the United Arab Emirates Canada Australia the United Kingdom Japan and Malta This book is essential reading for anyone interested in progressing towards a wellbeing economy including policy makers academics and students in economics public policy public administration and behavioural and political science The Palgrave Handbook of Fulfillment, Wellness, and Personal Growth at Work Joan Marques,2023-08-31 This handbook discusses the role of sustainability well being and growth in engagement and purpose at work When employees are dissatisfied with their job they tend to be disengaged and less productive Given the correlation between job satisfaction and job performance organizations are looking for ways to increase employee engagement and productivity Divided into three sections this work opens with an examination of the concept of work then discusses fulfillment of workforce members at mental emotional and spiritual levels The next section on wellness explores drivers that advance interhuman approaches and trends including meaning leadership happiness resilience and motivation The last section focuses on personal and professional growth through the cultivation of an entrepreneurial mindset but also justice equity and interactive flourishing through the promotion of positive trends or the conscious reduction of toxic ones With contributions from a global cluster of scholars this book offers readers broad perspectives on the potential nature of work as a gratifying vocation It will serve as a horizon expanding reference for those researching topics related to meaningful work and workplace fulfillment and thriving Smart Cities, Citizen Welfare, and Orbasli, Marcel Vellinga, 2020-08-03 A comprehensive and detailed overview of the active regeneration rehabilitation and revitalisation of architectural heritage The combined processes of globalisation urbanisation environmental change population growth and rapid technological development have resulted in an increasingly complex dynamic and interrelated world in which concerns about the meaning of cultural heritage and identity continue to grow As the need for culturally and environmentally sustainable design grows the challenge for professionals involved in the management of inherited built environments is to respond to this ever changing context in a critical dynamic and creative way Our knowledge and understanding of the principles approaches and methods to sustainably adapt existing buildings and places is rapidly expanding Architectural Regeneration contributes to this knowledge base through a holistic approach that links policy with practice and establishes a theoretical framework within which to understand architectural regeneration It includes extensive case studies of the regeneration rehabilitation and revitalisation of architectural heritage from around the world Different scales and contexts of architectural regeneration are discussed including urban suburban rural and temporary At a time when regeneration policy has shifted to the recognition that heritage matters and that the historic environment and creative industries are a vital driver of regeneration an increasing workload of architectural practices concerns the refurbishment adaptive re use or extension of existing buildings As a result this book is ideal for undergraduate and graduate students of architecture historic conservation urban and environmental design sustainability and urban regeneration as well as for practitioners and decision makers working in those fields Queer Presences and Absences Yvette Taylor, Michelle

Addison, 2013-04-09 This book explores changes and continuations in lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer lives identities and spatial practices in the 21st century from around the globe using a range of methods to connect pasts places and policies with contemporary times linking individual and social presences and absences affectively and materially HL 100 - Building Better Places The Stationery Office, 2016 The built environment affects us all The planning design management and maintenance of the built environment has a long term impact upon people and communities It is widely acknowledged that the quality of life prosperity health and wellbeing of an individual is heavily influenced by the place in which they live or work Policy towards the built environment in England is not the sole preserve of any one Government department this both accounts for the diverse range of elements which comprise the built environment and reflects the diverse range of impacts which it has upon people and communities There is an urgent need to co ordinate and reconcile policy across numerous different areas and priorities Recently however one priority has become dominant in debates concerning built environment policy Increasing the overall supply of housing and the speed at which housing is delivered is a central part of the Government s policy agenda When seen in the context of the housing crisis facing many communities across England this is understandable and overall we welcome the Government focus on increasing and speeding up the supply of housing Restrictions on financial freedoms and flexibilities however pose a threat to the ability of local authorities to build houses of their own The private sector throughout the post war period has very rarely achieved the delivery of 200 000 homes a year We do not believe the Government can deliver the stepchange required for housing supply without taking measures to allow local authorities and housing associations each to play their full part in delivering new homes In addition Government initiatives have so far failed to address a further part of the housebuilding problem which is the gap between planning permissions granted and new homes built We recommend measures intended to address this and other barriers to increasing the number of housing completions
