Redefining Shamanisms David Gordon Wilson, 2013-01-31 Spiritualism and mediumship are often regarded as the product of lingering superstition in the Victorian era and as having limited relevance in modern Anglo American society Scholarship to date which has considered Spiritualism as a distinct religious tradition has focussed on analysing the phenomenon in terms of spirit possession only This volume analyses the development of shamanism communication with the spiritual world as a concept within North American English speaking scholarship with particular focus on Mircea Eliade's influential cross cultural presentation of shamanism By re examining the work of Sergei Shirokogoroff one of Eliade's principal sources the traditional Evenki shamanic apprenticeship is compared and identified with the new Spiritualist apprenticeship The author demonstrates that Spiritualism is best understood as a traditional shamanism as distinct from contemporary appropriations or neo shamanisms He argues that shamanism is the outcome of an apprenticeship in the management of psychic experiences and which follows the same pattern as that of the apprentice medium In doing so the author offers fresh insights into the mechanisms that are key to sustaining mediumship as a social institution

The Critical Study of Non-Religion Christopher R. Cotter, 2020-07-09 This book acts as a bridge between the critical study of religion and empirical studies of religion in the real world Chris Cotter presents a concise and up to date critical survey of research on non religion in the UK and beyond before presenting the results of extensive research in Edinburgh's Southside which blurs the boundary between religion and non religion In doing so Cotter demonstrates that these are dynamic subject positions and phenomena can occupy both at the same time or neither depending on who is doing the positioning and what issues are at stake This book details an approach that avoids constructing religion as in some way unique whilst also fully incorporating non religious subject positions into religious studies It provides a rich engagement with a wide variety of theoretical material rooted in empirical data which will be essential reading for those interested in critical sociological and anthropological study of the contemporary non religious landscape
