Western Sahara The Roots Of A Desert War:

Western Sahara Tony Hodges, 1983 Western Sahara Besenyő János, 2009-08-20 The author of this book served in a number of peacekeeping operations in Western Sahara Darfur and Afghanistan therefore has gathered invaluable practical experience about such missions As UN military staff part of MINURSO in 2003 2004 János Besenyő started to narrowly deal with the history of Western Sahara the traditions and daily practices of the inhabitants of the area the activities of the peacekeeping force of the world organisation in particular with the root causes of the Saharan conflict and their possible solution In this book János Besenyő introduces the readers the causes and escalation of the conflict in Western Sahara the actors and the opposing parties together with their motivations thus he fills in a gap connected with less known part and problem of our ever globalising world Global Security Watch—The Maghreb Yahia H. Zoubir, Louisa Dris-Aït-Hamadouche, 2013-04-23 An unprecedented analysis of how the liberation from colonial rule has threatened the Maghreb region of Africa and created political and social challenges that puts global security at risk Northwestern Africa known as the Maghreb consists of Algeria Libya Mauritania Morocco Tunisia and Western Sahara Recent changes in the political climate including the collapse of the Libyan regime in October 2011 and structural factors such as the decolonization of the countries within the Maghreb have escalated violence in the area exposing global powers including the United States to terrorist attacks This is the first book of its kind to focus on the strategic planning of the United States as well as other world powers in the stabilization of the region Global Security Watch The Maghreb Algeria Libya Morocco and Tunisia examines domestic regional and international policies as they relate to the area's culture geography and history Each of the book's seven chapters looks at the political and social stability of the land and features a discussion on such topics as interstate relations regional integration conflict resolution and the legislation governing security Recognition in International Law Stefan Talmon, 2021-10-18 The bibliography lists the literature and State practice on the question of recognition in international law for the last two hundred years It contains books and articles ie contributions to journals and other collected works such as Festschriften and Encyclopaedias as well as published and unpublished theses pamphlets compilations of diplomatic documents and case notes As many of the monographs on recognition in international law will not be available in all libraries book reviews have been included in the bibliography in order to enable the user to decide whether it may be advisable to order a certain work by inter library loan Its 4 500 entries are arranged systematically according to subject categories in fourteen main sections Each main section is further subdivided with ever increasing specificity into sub sections on codification codification attempts general studies studies of certain recognition questions and studies of specific recognition cases The bibliography employs a broad meaning of recognition It is not restricted to the question of status of an authority or entity in international law but encompasses also the question of relations with it As many of the recognition cases must be considered and can only be understood against their historic political and sometimes even economic background the bibliography includes not only purely legal treaties but also publications of a primarily historical political or economic content which incidentally deal with aspects of recognition in international law This is reflected by the titles of the 730 journals from more than 50 countries in 20 different languages which have been used to compile the bibliography The bibliography contains both an author and a comprehensive subject index to enable users to locate works of a particular writer or a specific problem Encyclopedia of Conflicts since World War II James Ciment, Kenneth Hill, 2012-12-06

This copiously illustrated A Z reference presents the most in depth information available about the various conflicts the world has endured local regional and international since World War II Some 142 conflicts are discussed and analyzed The Encyclopedia of Conflict since World War II with its coverage of all the countries of the world fills a critical need for clear comprehensive explanations of events not covered in such detail in any other reference source Entries end with an extensive bibliography and the encyclopedia includes maps chronologies and a general bibliography as well as an index designed to make the reader understand the correlation and relationships between individual conflicts Global, Regional and Local

Dimensions of Western Sahara's Protracted Decolonization Raquel Ojeda-Garcia, Irene Fernández-Molina, Victoria Veguilla, 2016-11-30 This book explores the traces of the passage of time on the protracted and intractable conflict of Western Sahara The authors offer a multilevel analysis of recent developments from the global to the local scenes including the collapse of the architecture of the UN led conflict resolution process the advent of the War on Terror to the the Sahara Sahel area and the impact of the Arab Spring and growing regional security instability Special attention is devoted to changes in the Western Sahara territory annexed by Morocco and the Sahrawi refugee camps in Algeria Morocco has adapted its governance and public policies to profound socio demographic transformations in the territory under its control and has attempted to obtain international recognition for this annexation by proposing an Autonomy Plan The Polisario Front and Sahrawi nationalists have shifted their strategy and pushed the centre of gravity of the conflict back inwards by focusing on pro independence activism inside the disputed territory A Comparative Political Economy of Tunisia and Morocco

Gregory White, 2001-07-26 This book examines the profound impact of European integration on two North African countries Tunisia and Morocco Confronting the theoretical literatures on the entanglements of the domestic and international realms and the intricate role played by the middle income state in the international arena White provides the first detailed comparison of Tunisia and Morocco s post independence political economies especially in the context of the Euro Mediterranean Partnerships signed with the European Union in the late 1990s North African states must act on the one hand as entrepreneurs seeking to encourage trade and attract foreign investment within the domestic economy in the process of crafting foreign economic policy with the European Union On the other hand such states are constrained by domestic pressures such as imperatives to secure job creation and maintain internal security Countries on the periphery are therefore faced with two distinct questions first how does a middle income state balance its conflicting roles and manage its relations with a regional power and second how does the relationship with the outside world affect key domestic actors Answering these questions is one of the primary challenges facing Tunisia and Morocco in the new decade The Oxford Handbook of United Nations Peacekeeping Operations Joachim Alexander Koops, Norrie MacQueen, Thierry Tardy, Paul D.

Williams, 2015 This volume presents an authoritative and accessible examination and critique of UN peacekeeping operations

The Land beyond the Border Johannes Becke, 2021-05-01 Based on three case studies from the Middle East The Land beyond the Border advances an innovative theoretical framework for the study of state expansions and state contractions

Johannes Becke argues that state expansion can be theorized according to four basic ideal types a form of patronage patronization the imposition of a satellite regime satellization the establishment of territorial exclaves exclavization or a full fledged takeover incorporation Becke discusses how both irredentist ideologies and political realities have shaped the dynamics of state expansion and state contraction in the recent history of each state By studying Israel comparatively with other Middle Eastern regimes this book forms part of an emerging research agenda seeking to bring the research fields of Israel Studies and Middle East Studies closer together Instead of treating Israel's rule over the occupied territories as an isolated case Becke offers students the chance to understand Israel's settlement project within the broader framework of postcolonial state formation Post-Colonial Settlement Strategy Eiran Ehud Eiran, 2018-02-20 Settlement projects are sustained clusters of policies that allow states to strategically plan implement and support the permanent transfer of nationals into a territory not under their sovereignty Ehud Eiran explains why states launch settlement projects into occupied areas and introduces the international environment as an important enabling variable By drawing comparisons between three such major projects Israel in the West Bank and Gaza Morocco in Western Sahara and Indonesia in East Timor Ehud Eiran classifies post colonial settlement projects as a distinct cluster of cases that warrant a different analytical approach to traditional colonial studies Transnational Spaces and Regional Localization. Social Networks, Border Regions and Local-Global Relations Angela Pilch Ortega, Barbara Schröttner, 2012 Globalization has encouraged worldwide mobility intensified migration and supported growing interconnectedness through new technologies it has therefore substantially contributed to the development of so called transnational spaces This volume focuses on transnational spaces which should not be understood as locations on a map or as sealed containers but instead as relational social areas which are composed of various relationships Transnationalization increases liberation and or emancipation from place because social relations overcome physical space and local regional and national boundaries As a consequence a reconfiguration of social cultural political and economic scopes of action occurs This volume reveals that for people in general and for migration movements in particular new borders have been established in many places all over the world The biographies of global actors and migrants reference this alteration of space Additionally this volume calls special attention to border regions and their social configurations Borders appear as narratives which can have an enormous impact on social structures This book further deals with different aspects and various tensions having to do with local and global change interplay and interdependence Globalization leads to development that often ignores regional needs supports the continuation of post colonial power and maintains hegemonic dominance European Imperialism: Oxford Bibliographies Online
