What Does Justice Look Like? Waziyatawin, 2013-11 Listening Up, Writing Down, and Looking Beyond Susan Gingell, Wendy Roy, 2012-08-01 Listening Up Writing Down and Looking Beyond is an interdisciplinary collection that gathers the work of scholars and performance practitioners who together explore questions about the oral written and visual The book includes the voices of oral performance practitioners while the scholarship of many of the academic contributors is informed by their participation in oral storytelling whether as poets singers or visual artists Its contributions address the politics and ethics of the utterance and text textualizing orature and orality simulations of the oral the poetics of performance and reconstructions of the oral Our History Is the Future Nick Estes,2023-09-26 Winner of the Oakland Blue Collar PEN Award A work of history a manifesto and an intergenerational story of resistance that shows how two centuries of Indigenous struggle created the movement proclaiming Water is Life In 2016 a small protest encampment at the Standing Rock reservation in North Dakota initially established to block construction of the Dakota Access oil pipeline grew to be the largest Indigenous protest movement in the twenty first century attracting tens of thousands of Indigenous and non Native allies from around the world Its slogan Mni Wiconi Water is Life was about more than just a pipeline Water Protectors knew this battle for Native sovereignty had already been fought many times before and that even after the encampment was gone their anti colonial struggle would continue In Our History is the Future Nick Estes traces traditions of Indigenous resistance leading to the NoDAPL movement from the days of the Missouri River trading forts through the Indian Wars the Pick Sloan dams the American Indian Movement and the campaign for Indigenous rights at the United Nations While a historian by trade Estes also draws on observations from the encampments and from growing up as a citizen of the Oceti Sakowin the Nation of the Seven Council Fires making Our History is the Future at once a work of history a personal story and a manifesto

Indigenuity Caroline Wigginton,2022-10-06 For hundreds of years American artisanship and American authorship were entangled practices rather than distinct disciplines Books like other objects were multisensory items all North American communities and cultures including Native and settler colonial ones regularly made and used All cultures and communities narrated and documented their histories and imaginations through a variety of media All created objects for domestic sacred curative and collective purposes In this innovative work at the intersection of Indigenous studies literary studies book history and material culture studies Caroline Wigginton tells a story of the interweavings of Native craftwork and American literatures from their ancient roots to the present Focused primarily on North America especially the colonized lands and waters now claimed by the United States this book argues for the foundational but often hidden aesthetic orientation of American literary history toward Native craftwork Wigginton knits this narrative to another of Indigenous aesthetic repatriation through the making and using of books and works of material expression Ultimately she reveals that Native craftwork is by turns the warp and weft of American literature interwoven throughout its long history The Human in a Dehumanizing World Coblenz, Jessica,Horan, OFM, Daniel P.,2022-04-20 CTS annual volume focusing on dehumanization and theological anthropology in such areas as sexual harassment racial justice and decolonization Columns of Vengeance Paul N. Beck,2014-10-22 In summer 1862 Minnesotans found themselves fighting interconnected wars the first against the rebellious Southern states and the second an internal war against the Sioux While the Civil War was more important to the future of the United States the Dakota War of 1862 proved far more destructive to the people of Minnesota both whites and American Indians It led to U S military action against the Sioux divided the Dakotas over whether to fight or not and left hundreds of white settlers dead In Columns of Vengeance historian Paul N Beck offers a reappraisal of the Punitive Expeditions of 1863 and 1864 the U S Army s response to the Dakota War of 1862 Whereas previous accounts have approached the Punitive Expeditions as a military campaign of the Indian Wars Beck argues that the expeditions were also an extension of the Civil War The strategy and tactics reflected those of the war in the East and Civil War operations directly affected planning and logistics in the West Beck also examines the devastating impact the expeditions had on the various bands and tribes of the Sioux Whites viewed the expeditions as punishment columns of vengeance sent against those Dakotas who had started the war in 1862 yet the majority of the Sioux the army encountered had little or nothing to do with the earlier uprising in Minnesota Rather than relying only on the official records of the commanding officers involved Beck presents a much fuller picture of the conflict by consulting the letters diaries and personal accounts of the common soldiers who took part in the expeditions as well as rare personal narratives from the Dakotas Drawing on a wealth of firsthand accounts and linking the Punitive Expeditions of 1863 and 1864 to the overall Civil War experience Columns of Vengeance offers fresh insight into an important chapter in the development of U S military operations against the Sioux Big Basin Redwood Forest Traci Bliss,2021-09-15 The epic saga of Big Basin began in the late 1800s when the surrounding communities saw their once inexhaustible redwood forests vanishing Expanding railways demanded timber as they crisscrossed the nation but the more redwoods that fell to the woodman s axe the greater the effects on the local climate California s groundbreaking environmental movement attracted individuals from every walk of life From the adopted son of a robber baron to a bohemian woman winemaker to a Jesuit priest resilient campaigners produced an unparalleled model of citizen action Join author Traci Bliss as she reveals the untold story of a herculean effort to preserve the ancient redwoods for future generations Not Just Green, Not Just White Mary E. Mendoza, The Prison of Democracy Sara M. Benson,2019-04-16 At publication date a free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Built in the 1890s at the center of the nation Leavenworth Federal Penitentiary was designed specifically to be a replica of the US Capitol Building But why The Prison of Democracy explains the political significance of a prison built to mimic one of America s monuments to democracy Locating Leavenworth in memory history and law the prison geographically sits at the borders of Indian Territory 1825 1854 and Bleeding Kansas 1854 1864 both sites of contestation over slavery and freedom Author Sara M Benson argues that Leavenworth reshaped the design of punishment in America by gradually normalizing state inflicted violence against citizens Leavenworth s peculiar architecture illustrates the real roots of mass incarceration as an explicitly race and nation building system that has been ingrained in the very fabric of US history rather than as part of a recent post war racial history The book sheds light on the truth of the painful relationship between the carceral state and democracy in the US a relationship that thrives to this day The Great Evil Chris Mato Nunpa,2020-10-01 In this account of the history between Indigenous Peoples and the United States government readers will learn the role of the bible played in the perpetration of genocide massive land theft and the religious suppression and criminalization of Native ceremonies and spirituality Chris Mato Nunpa a Dakota man discusses this dishonorable and darker side of American history that is rarely studied if at all Out of a number of rationales used to justify the killing of Native Peoples and theft their lands the author will discuss a biblical rationale including the chosen people idea the promised land notion and the genocidal commands of the Old Testament God Mato Nunpa s experience with fundamentalist and evangelical missionaries when he was growing up his studies in Indigenous Nations history at the University of Minnesota and his affiliation with the International Association of Genocide Scholars IAGS were three important factors in his motivation for writing this book New Treaty, New Tradition Carwyn Jones,2016-07-22 Legal cultures change in response to social and economic environments M ori author and legal scholar Carwyn Jones provides a timely examination of how the resolution of land claims in New Zealand has affected traditional M ori law illustrating the challenges faced by Indigenous peoples as they attempt to exercise self determination in a postcolonial world Combining thoughtful analysis with M ori storytelling New Treaty New Tradition reveals the enduring vitality of M ori legal traditions making the case that genuine reconciliation can occur only when we recognize the importance of Indigenous traditions in the settlement process Drawing on examples from Canada and New Zealand Jones illustrates how Western legal thought has shaped the historical claims process As Indigenous self determination plays out on the world stage this nuanced reflection brings into focus prospects for the long term success of reconciliation projects in Canada and around the globe A Pedagogy of Kindness Catherine J. Funk the Clock Rahsaan Mahadeo,2024-05-15 Funk the Clock is about those said to be emblematic of the future yet denied a place in time Hence this book is both an invitation and provocation for Black youth to give the finger to the hands of time while inviting readers to follow their lead In revealing how time is racialized how race is temporalized and how racism takes time Rahsaan Mahadeo makes clear why conventional sociological theories of time are both empirically and theoretically unsustainable and more importantly why they need to be funkyed up with Through his study of a youth center in Minneapolis Mahadeo provides examples of Black youth constructing alternative temporalities that center their lived experiences and ensure their worldviews tastes and culture are most relevant and up to date In their stories exists the potential to stretch the sociological imagination to make the familiar i e time strange Funk the Clock forges new directions in the study of race and time by upending what we think we know about time while centering Black youth as key collaborators in rewriting knowledge as we know it

Peace, Reconciliation and Social Justice Leadership in the 21st Century H.

Settler Colonial City David Hugill, 2021-11-23 Revealing the enduring link between settler colonization and the making of modern Minneapolis Colonial relations are often excluded from discussions of urban politics and are viewed instead as part of a regrettable past In Settler Colonial City David Hugill confronts this culture of organized forgetting by arguing that Minnesota s largest city is enduringly bound up with the power dynamics of settler colonial politics Examining several distinct Minneapolis sites Settler Colonial City tracks how settler colonial relations were articulated alongside substantial growth in the Twin Cities Indigenous community during the second half of the twentieth century creating new geographies of racialized advantage Studying the Phillips neighborhood of Minneapolis in the decades that followed the Second World War Settler Colonial City demonstrates how colonial practices and mentalities shaped processes of urban reorganization animated non Indigenous advocacy research informed a culture of racialized policing and intertwined with a broader culture of American imperialism It reveals how the actions assumptions and practices of non Indigenous people in Minneapolis produced and enforced a racialized economy of power that directly contradicts the city s progressive reputation Ultimately Settler Colonial City argues that the hierarchical and racist political dynamics that characterized the city s prosperous beginnings are not exclusive to a bygone era but rather are central to a recalibrated settler colonial politics that continues to shape contemporary cities across the United States

Theorizing Native Studies Audra Simpson, 2014-05-07 This important collection makes a compelling argument for the importance of theory in Native studies Within the field there has been understandable suspicion of theory stemming both from concerns about urgent political issues needing to take precedence over theoretical speculations and from hostility toward theory as an inherently Western imperialist epistemology The editors of Theorizing Native Studies take these concerns as the ground for recasting theoretical endeavors as attempts to identify the larger institutional and political structures that enable racism inequities and the displacement of indigenous peoples They emphasize the need for Native people to be recognized as legitimate theorists and for the theoretical work happening outside the academy in Native activist groups and communities to be acknowledged Many of the essays demonstrate how Native studies can productively engage with others seeking to dismantle and decolonize the settler state including scholars putting theory to use in critical ethnic studies gender and sexuality studies and postcolonial studies Taken together the essays demonstrate how theory can serve as a decolonizing practice Contributors Christopher Bracken Glen Coulthard Mishuana Goeman Dian Million Scott Morgensen Robert Nichols Vera Palmer Mark Rifkin Audra Simpson Andrea Smith Teresia Teaiwa Unsettling Narratives George Dalbo,2025-03-21 Genocide education has become increasingly popular and prevalent in the United States over the past decade However genocide is all too often taught as something that occurred in the past or is happening far away What does it mean to teach about genocide in a settler colonial nation state that has yet to fully reckon with its violent past Unsettling Narratives Teaching About Genocide in a Settler Space examines how high school students and their teacher navigated learning and teaching about genocide and mass violence in the context of a semester long comparative genocide and human rights elective course in rural south central Wisconsin Specifically how students and their teacher individually and collectively navigated the difficult knowledge of learning about settler colonialism the genocide of Indigenous peoples in the United States during the nineteenth century the legacies of genocide and mass violence at the intersections of U S and Indigenous societies during the twentieth and twenty first centuries and the enduring legacies of white supremacy and settlerness It reveals the complexities limits and possibilities of teaching and learning about genocide in the contemporary United States
