Frymire, 2022-06-02 Preaching from Inside the Story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice Capitalizing on the works of Craddock and Lowry it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching This book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity build upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging Aristotle's foundational understanding of narrative and renew the Lowry Loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture Preaching from Inside the Story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out providing a positive effect thereby affording non narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles Ultimately it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way However in showing these practical examples the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching In the final analysis it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching

Priestly Identity Thomas J. McGovern, 2010-04-01 It is generally accepted that since the end of Vatican II there has been a crisis in the Catholic priesthood This is reflected in two areas in particular defections from the priesthood and a serious decline in vocations primarily in the developed countries of the West John Paul II has addressed this situation many times during his pontificate especially in Pastores dabo vobis where he offers a clear theological vision and a program of formation to overcome the current crisis of priestly identity In his new book McGovern offers a deep analysis of the Pope s theology of priesthood drawing not only from Pastores dabo vobis but also from his Holy Thursday Letters and other important writings on this topic In this study the author deals with core aspects of priestly identity under three main headings theological spiritual and pastoral in the context of service to the lay faithful and the evangelization required of the Church in the new millennium
