

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a woman with long dark hair, wearing a blue dress, standing in a vast field of yellow wildflowers. She is looking down at a white cloth or bag she is holding. The sky above is filled with large, white and grey clouds, with a faint rainbow visible in the distance behind her. The overall mood is contemplative and hopeful.

Crushing Codependency and Relational Idolatry Mary Lehman,2019-01-15 After years of living behind walls to hide her guilt and shame author Mary Lehman describes her journey from shame based religion to a grace based relationship with the Three In One For God to get her attention it took the death of her husband and the separation from someone with whom she had developed an unhealthy codependent friendship. Because in the past Mary had fallen into an inappropriate relationship she recognized the slippery slope she was on. Amid the months of grief and desperation she made the decision to never go down that road again. Seeking God she came to realize He had put her on a path where she could receive His deliverance from codependency and relational idolatry. Since then Mary has overcome the spiritual abuse, internalized shame, and habits of risk taking that kept her in bondage for decades. She has renewed her mind with the gospel of grace. As her new identity she has put on Christ. Now applying the story of David and Goliath, Mary shares her journey in detail and describes her newfound peace and freedom. This is the narrative of a woman who has found transformation within her faith, escaping the mental and emotional traps that had kept her from healing and joy.

Through It All Paula Hanley, 2016-11-03 In Through It All Paula shares the life of her son Vince how he went through the traumatic events that changed his and his family's lives forever. Her intriguing journal of hope, faith, and courage will touch hearts and reveal God's sustaining grace through the challenges of the unthinkable when your life falls apart.

Walking with a Limp Ezra Byer, 2020-12-20 I've always loved the book of Genesis where faith in the eternal, unchanging God of Abraham proves paradoxically to be more human than heroic. This is surely why I appreciate Ezra Byer's exploration of the life of Jacob whose story provides a window for examining his own seasons of doubt and depression. Mercifully, Ezra strips us of the illusion that faith will always be the swift, steady, sure climb. He reminds that we might cling to God and still feel his absence. This is a book for the trenches, a book for building gritty, honest, ultimately resilient faith. Jen Pollock Michel, Author of Surprised by Paradox and Keeping Place. Walking with a Limp will point you to the sure sources of hope for the hopeless. The God of all hope and His word of hope. In it you'll find practical help and encouragement to stay the course. You like Jacob can be a prince with God, an overcomer whose limp testifies to tenacious clinging to God. Dr. Philip Brown, Author of A Reader's Hebrew Bible. In recent years, believers in Christ have become more transparent about the struggles we face with depression and mental illness. In this timely book, Ezra Byer contributes to this encouraging trend by inviting readers to re-read the ancient narrative of the Patriarch Jacob and encounter anew the God who heals and also sets apart his people for worship and service. Dr. Edward Smither, Author of Mission in the Early Church and Christian Martyrdom. When we suffer, we don't need glib answers or easy truths. We need to hear from someone who knows what it's like, can remind us of biblical truth, and point us to hope. That's why I'm grateful that Ezra has written this honest, profound, and encouraging book. I can't wait to read it again and to share it with others. Darryl Dash, Author of How to Grow.
