

GROSS DOMESTIC PRODUCT

Total quantity of goods and services produced in a country by foreign and national factors of production at market prices.

Real GDP (Constant prices)

It eliminates the distortion of price variations or inflation. It shows the real increase in production.

Nominal GDP (Current prices)

There is a distortion because it includes both goods and prices, it lacks accuracy.

Responses to the Impact of COVID-19 on the Labour Market OECD,2023-03-16 This report examines the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on Nordic labour markets and the associated policy responses undertaken in the areas of unemployment benefits job retention schemes active labour market policies and skill development policies The report discusses the details of these policy measures across Nordic countries and draws out the main lessons learned from their response to the crisis The Lessons Of Modern War Anthony H Cordesman, Abraham Wagner, 2020-01-08 This volume the first in a series of three covers the lessons of the 1973 1989 Arab Israeli arms race and of the conflicts of 1973 and 1982 It draws on interviews with Arab and Israeli sources and reveals that if truth is the first casualty of war then history is the first casualty of peace Long-term care financing: lessons for low- and middle-income settings. Brief 3. How countries finance long-term care World Health Organization, 2024-03-13

History of the Eighties--lessons for the Future ,1997 Corporate Governance Lessons from Transition Economy Reforms Merritt B. Fox, Michael A. Heller, 2021-04-13 Corporate Governance Lessons from Transition Economy Reforms explores a timely topic at the intersection of economics law and policy reform To date most sophisticated theoretical work on corporate governance has focused on advanced market economies In post socialist countries corporate finance and transition economics scholars have often done little more than convey the received theory to transition policymakers This volume focuses for the first time on the reverse concern what if anything do the reform experiences of transition countries teach about corporate governance theory more generally To investigate this question Merritt Fox and Michael Heller have assembled a stellar group of corporate governance theorists The answers are startling The principal essays approach the problem from three complementary perspectives that form the organizing themes of the book The first part refines core corporate theory terms The second presents important empirical work that explores the channels through which good corporate governance may link to the real economy The final part links corporate governance theory to practical reforms After fifteen years of experience practice can now inform theory Together these essays present a comprehensive new view on a provocative theme Written in an accessible style they will be of interest to a broad range of scholars commentators and policymakers Long-term care financing: lessons for low- and middle-income settings. Brief 1. Drivers of the demand for long-term care World Health Organization, 2024-02-02 This brief is part of a series about financing health and social long term care lessons for low and middle income countries LMICs The number of people aged 65 years and older will increase in LMICs where most older people will be living by 2050 Many people in LMICs will experience the onset of age related health problems before the age of 65 years Long term care LTC can include some acute care medical services delivered in health facilities but it primarily refers to support provided outside of the health system by caregivers in institutions or at home to allow people to maintain their routine activities Individuals unmet needs increase the demand for LTC Without formal LTC services and systems the costs of LTC shift to the family Informal caregivers primarily women may need to reduce their working hours or leave the labour force prematurely placing pressure on the economy and household resources The availability of informal caregivers has declined along with decreases in fertility and family sizes and increased opportunities for women in the formal workforce In the absence of formal LTC services and systems individuals seek care in the acute care medical system which can increase health care costs while offering suboptimal care for older adults People underestimate their need for LTC even though many may require intensive support or institutional care that may exceed their income Given the market failures of LTC insurance public intervention is well justified to meet this demand

Economic Lessons from the Transition: The Basic Theory Re-examined Daniel R. Kazmer, Michele Konrad, 2016-09-16 Economic Lessons from the Transition focuses on major transitions in the 1990s the transition from central planning and communism to market capitalism and the global integration of national financial systems The transitions were supposed to raise most peoples standard of living instead they dramatically worsened the lives of most people in the countries involved While most attempts to explain this failure focus on policies the authors of this book argue that failure of economic theory to fully understand these transitions has led to bad policies that made the transitions unnecessarily painful and costly The book suggests answers to the following questions How should basic economic theory as taught in introductory economics courses be revised in light of the failure of market oriented economics to effect a successful transition in so many former communist economies Could the theory be revised and presented in a different manner How can basic economic theory be used to help explain the past failures in understanding transition problems and to avoid future mistakes This volume is a must read for all who teach economics or apply economics to the real world

Debt Defaults and Lessons from a Decade of Crises Federico Sturzenegger, Jeromin Zettelmeyer, 2007-01-05 Detailed case studies of debt defaults by Russia Ukraine Pakistan Ecuador Moldova and Uruguay framed by a comprehensive discussion of the history economic theory legal issues and policy lessons of sovereign debt crises The debt crises in emerging market countries over the past decade have given rise to renewed debate about crisis prevention and resolution In Debt Defaults and Lessons from a Decade of Crises Federico Sturzenegger and Jeromin Zettelmeyer examine the facts the economic theory and the policy implications of sovereign debt crises They present detailed case histories of the default and debt crises in seven emerging market countries between 1998 and 2005 Russia Ukraine Pakistan Ecuador Argentina Moldova and Uruguay These accounts are framed with a comprehensive overview of the history economics and legal issues involved and a discussion from both domestic and international perspectives of the policy lessons that can be derived from these experiences Sturzenegger and Zettelmeyer examine how each crisis developed what the subsequent restructuring encompassed and how investors and the defaulting country fared They discuss the new theoretical thinking on sovereign debt and the ultimate costs entailed for both debtor countries and private creditors The policy debate is considered first from the perspective of policymakers in emerging market countries and then in terms of international financial architecture The authors surveys of legal and economic issues associated with debt crises and of the crises themselves are the most comprehensive to be found in the literature on sovereign debt and default and their theoretical analysis is detailed and nuanced The book will be a valuable resource for investors as well as for scholars and policymakers
