The Films of Woody Allen Charles L.P. Silet, 2006-07-27 From What's Up Tiger Lily to Match Point Woody Allen's work has generated substantial interest among scholars and professionals who have written extensively about the director In The Films of Woody Allen Critical Essays Charles L.P. Silet brings together two dozen scholarly articles that address the core of Allen's work from a variety of cultural and theoretical perspectives With a special emphasis on his films of the 1980s this collection includes both general essays that examine various themes and issues encompassed in Allen's repertoire as well as discussions that focus on one or two specific films General essays explore Allen's Jewish background as a religious and cultural facet his apparent love affair with New York City and his relation to various strains of humor particularly American film humor but also Allen's broad use of such traditional comic tropes as irony and parody The essays on individual films include examinations of some of Allen's most significant work including Love and Death Annie Hall Interiors Crimes and Misdemeanors Hannah and Her Sisters Manhattan and Shadows and Fog A number of the articles collected here were originally published in now hard to locate places while others were selected from journals not usually associated with film studies The result is an anthology of essays that presents an overview of the central issues raised by Allen s body of work as well as a close examination of fourteen individual films that convey these larger themes A wide ranging exploration of one of America s most innovative and productive modern directors this book should appeal to both professionals and students of contemporary film comedy

Eighteen Woody Allen Films Analyzed Sander H. Lee,2015-10-02 This new textbook is an abridgment of the author s earlier Woody Allen s Angst Philosophical Commentaries on His Serious Films McFarland 1997 invaluable Choice Five main topics are explored the desire of many of his characters to ground their lives in traditional ethical values despite their realization that such values may no longer be certain the opposition between pessimism and optimism throughout his films gender issues relating to romantic love sexual desire and the ongoing changes in our cultural expectations of both men and women the idea that contemporary American society is rapidly descending into barbarism precisely because of societal failure to maintain a sense of individual moral responsibility and a critique of psychoanalysis as a method for understanding human behavior Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

I'll Have What She's Having Daniel M. Kimmel,2008-08-01 While film genres go in and out of style the romantic comedy endures from year to year and generation to generation Endlessly adaptable the romantic comedy form has thrived since the invention of film as a medium of entertainment touching on universal predicaments meeting for the first time the battle of the sexes and the bumpy course of true love These films celebrate lovers who play and improvise together no matter how nutty or at what great odds they may appear As Eugene Pallette mutters in My Man Godfrey 1936 All you need to start an asylum is an empty room and the right kind of people Daniel Kimmel s book about romantic comedy is like watching a truly funny movie with a knowledgeable friend

Four Films of Woody Allen Woody Allen,1982 Complete screenplays of four of Woody Allen s most famous films Hilariously funny with all actions included From the Trade Paperback edition , The Films of Woody Allen Sam B. Girgus,2002-11-18 Publisher Description

The New Woman's Film Hilary Radner,2017-01-20 With the chick flick arguably in decline film scholars may well ask what has become of the woman s film Little attention has been paid to the proliferation of films often from the independent sector that do not sit comfortably in either the category of popular culture or that of high art films that are perhaps the corollary of the middle brow novel or smart chick flicks This book seeks to fill this void by focusing on the steady stream of films about and for women that emerge out of independent American and European cinema and that are designed to address an international female audience The new woman s film as a genre includes narratives with strong ties to the woman s film of classical Hollywood while constituting a new distinctive cycle of female centered films that in many ways continue the project of second wave feminism albeit in a modified form Topics addressed include The Bridges of Madison County Clint Eastwood 1995 the feature length films of Nicole Holofcener 1996 2013 the film roles of Tilda Swinton Rachel Getting Married Jonathan Demme 2008 Blue Jasmine Woody Allen 2013 Frances Ha Noah Baumbach 2012 Belle Amma Asante 2013 Fifty Shades of Grey Sam Taylor Johnson 2015 and Jane Campion s Top of the Lake Sundance Channel 2013
