Bergren, Rebecca Price, 2009-06-10 From a deeper relationship with God to harmony in the home from stronger marriages to more satisfying work Women Want More In What Women Want bestselling author Lisa T Bergren and Rebecca Price invite readers to thoughtfully consider their soul deep longings and pursue God's best in every area of life Using in depth interviews from a national survey and hundreds of personal interviews biblical narratives their own personal stories and inspiring quotes the authors point fellow seekers toward the kind of wholeness God desires providing lots of fun and inspiration along the way They explore friendship how and where to find happiness health and more with an eye on physical emotional and spiritual matters A Bible study designed for personal or group use and tested with dozens of women's ministries around the country before publication is included at the end of each chapter Young or old married or single with children or without striving in the workplace or working in the home readers will resonate with Lisa and Rebecca's descriptions of the life women crave and learn how God fulfills the very desires He stirs The Missional Mom Helen Lee, 2011-01-01 Do you see motherhood as a mission and divine calling Today's Christian moms come from a full range of personal and professional contexts whether they are homemakers full time workers in the marketplace or somewhere in between Yet many Christian mothers are living missional lives using their gifts and abilities to further God's kingdom by engaging the world around them They artfully passionately and sometimes messily juggle multiple callings and demonstrate in their modern day contexts how they are emulating the woman of noble character in Proverbs 31 The Missional Mom will affirm Christian mothers who desire to not only to build their homes in a Christ like way but also engage the world with their skills abilities and interests It won't minimize the importance of a woman's role in her home but it will encourage her to not ignore the stirrings God has planted within her to extend her influence Women and C.S. Lewis Carolyn Curtis, Mary Pomroy Key, 2016-06-17 Women and C S Lewis is a collection of interviews and essays from a group of distinguished scholars commissioned by the C S Lewis Foundation Critics say Lewis was sexist in his views on women Opinion pieces by both eminent Lewis scholars and newer thinkers review Lewis's personal relationships with women and treatment of women in his writings The book is drawn together in a final section which examines whether Lewis's views are relevant or out of touch for the twenty first century Invited contributors range from scholars to bloggers and include Alister McGrath Randy Alcorn Monika Hilder Colin Duriez Crystal Hurd Jeanette Sears David C Downing Malcolm Guite and others Edited by Carolyn Curtis veteran journalist and book author and Mary Pomroy Key Director Special Programs C S Lewis Foundation This multi contributor volume is an essential read for both scholars and fans of Lewis and his writings The Publishers Weekly, 2007

American Book Publishing Record, 2007 The Writers Directory, 2013 Juggling Flaming Chain Saws Joanne M. Marshall, Jeffrey S. Brooks, Kathleen M. Brown, Leslie Hazle Bussey, Bonnie Fusarelli, Catherine A. Lugg, Latish C. Reed, George Theoharis, Mark A. Gooden, 2012-11-01 Challenges of work life balance in the academy stem from policies and practices which remain from the time when higher education was populated mostly by married White male faculty Those faculty were successful in their academic work because they depended upon the support of their wives to manage many of the not work aspects of their lives Imagine a tweedy middle aged white man coming home from the university to greet his wife and children and eat the dinner she's prepared for him and then disappearing into his study for the rest of the evening with his pipe to write and think great thoughts If that professor ever existed he is now emeritus Juggling Flaming Chainsaws is the first book in a new series with Information Age Publishing on these challenges of managing academic work and not work It uses the methodology of autoethnography to introduce the work life issues faced by scholars in educational leadership While the experiences of scholars in this volume are echoed across other fields in higher education educational leadership is unique because of its emphasis on preparing people for leadership roles within higher education and for preK 12 schools Authors include people at different places on their career and life course trajectory people who are partnered and single gay and straight with children and without caring for elders and managing illness They hail from different geographic areas of the nation different ethnic backgrounds and different types of institutions What all have in common is commitment to engaging with this topic to reflecting deeply upon their own experience and to sharing that experience with the rest of us Helping Couples and Families Navigate Illness and Disability John S. Rolland, 2018-04-20 Couples and families face daunting challenges as they cope with serious illness and disability This book gives clinicians a roadmap for helping affected individuals and their loved ones live well with a wide range of child adult and later life conditions John S Rolland describes ways to intervene with emerging challenges over the course of long term or life threatening disorders Using vivid case examples he illustrates how clinicians can help families harness their strengths for positive adaptation and relational growth Rolland's integrated systemic approach is useful for preventive screening consultations brief counseling more intensive therapy and multifamily groups across health care settings and disciplines This book significantly advances the clinical utility of Rolland's earlier landmark volume Families Illness and Disability Inside Relationships Sandra Faulkner, 2021-12-29 The second edition of this book again uses original case studies as a means to bring home to students through lived experiences the theories and concepts of interpersonal communication Each piece takes an arts based approach spanning essays short stories scripts photographs poetry and has been newly written for this edition by communication researchers writers and artists The case studies focus on the aesthetic dimensions of relating to illustrate to students the workings of relationship management with regards to friendship race class gender family interaction sexuality and other key topics in relational communication The case studies are framed from a critical interpersonal perspective to encourage students to consider how power and cultural discourses about relationships influence their relating Faulkner s introduction to each section provides important pedagogical content to give context and meaning to the cases that follow Each case closes with questions for discussion activities and additional resources to help students analyze the material The book is suited as core or supplemental reading for courses in interpersonal or relational communication
