Collins,2016-03-22 From Theocritus Idylls to James Cameron s Avatar Arcadia remains an enduring presence in world culture and a persistent source of creative inspiration Why does Arcadia still exercise such a powerful pull on the imagination This book responds by arguing that in sixteenth century Europe a dramatic shift took place in imagining Arcadia The traditional visions of Arcadia collided and fused with romance the new experimental form of prose fiction producing a hybrid dynamic world of change and transformation Emphasizing matters of fictional function and world making over generic classification Imagining Arcadia in Renaissance Romance analyzes the role of romance as a catalyst in remaking Arcadia in five canonical sixteenth century texts Sannazaro's Arcadia Montemayor's La Diana Cervantes' La Galatea Sidney's Arcadia and Lope de Vega's Arcadia Collins analyses of the reimagined Arcadia in these works elucidate the interplay between timely incursions into the fictional world and the timelessness of art highlighting issues of freedom identity formation subjectivity and self-fashioning the intersection of public and private activity and the fascination with mortality This book addresses the underrepresentation of Spanish literature in Early Modern literary histories especially regarding the rich Spanish contribution to the pastoral and to idealizing fiction in the West Companion chapters on Cervantes and Sidney add to the growing field of Anglo-Spanish comparative literary studies while the book's comparative and transnational approach extends discussion of the pastoral beyond the boundaries of national literary traditions This book's innovative approach to these fictional worlds sheds new light on Arcadia's enduring presence in the collective imagination today

After the Digital Divide? Lutz Peter Koepnick, Erin Heather McGlothlin, 2009 New essays providing innovative ways of understanding the altered position of media in Germany and beyond The term new media is a current buzzword among scholars and in the media industry referring to the ever multiplying digitized modes of film image and sound production and distribution Yet how new in fact are these new media and how does their rise affect the role of older media What new theories allow us to examine our culture of ubiquitous electronic screens and networked pleasures Is a completely new set of perspectives concepts and paradigms required or are older modes of discussion about the relationship between technology and art still adequate This book reconsiders the seminal work of German media theorists such as Adorno Benjamin and Kracauer in order to explore today's rapidly changing mediascape questioning the naive progressivism that informs much of today's discourse about media technologies The contributions by internationally recognized critics from a variety of academic fields encourage a view of the history of media as structured by difference complexity and multiplicity Together they offer intriguing ways of understanding the changed position of media in today's Germany and beyond Contributors Nora M Alter Michel Chaouli Diedrich Diederichsen Sabine Eckmann Margit Grieb Boris Groys Juliet Koss Richard Langston Lev Manovich Todd Presner Juliane Rebentisch Carsten Strathausen Lutz Koepnick is Professor of German Film and Media Studies and Erin McGlothlin is Associate Professor of German and Jewish Studies both at Washington University in St Louis
