how to chart your path to leadership success Once you discover the purpose of your leadership you ll find the true leader inside you This book shows you how to use your natural leadership abilities to inspire and empower others to excellence in today s complex global world Discover Your True North enables you to become the leader you were born to be and stay on track of your True North Fostering Global Citizenship Jo Beth Mullens, Pru Cuper, 2012-07-01 With awareness of both the opportunities and challenges presented by globalization there is a growing trend among colleges and universities across the country to commit goals and resources to the concept of internationalizing their campuses This can occur in a number of different ways but a common thread involves exploring the concept of global citizenship and finding ways to embed this concept in undergraduate curricula For faculty this may call for moving out of a presumed comfort zone in the traditional classroom and determining new approaches to teaching a generation of students who will live and work in a more global context A method for accomplishing this work that is growing in popularity involves offering short term faculty led field courses to international settings In fact today more college students are participating in such short term study abroad opportunities than the more traditional semester and or yearlong programs Faculty and administrators who want to capitalize on short term study abroad programs as a means for internationalizing their campuses need practical resources to help them realize this challenging but important goal They not only need support in developing the course curricula and logistics but also in constructing authentic means for assessing the multi faceted learning that occurs Short term international programs when carefully planned and executed engage the participants both students and faculty in unique learning experiences that can involve service research and critical analysis of what it truly means to be a global citizen Such work helps define the somewhat nebulous but worthy goals of internationalizing campuses and fostering global citizenship The authors of this text are professional educators with deep experience in global education and curriculum development They offer a valuable resource for the development execution and assessment of faculty led international field courses that is at once theoretical practical and motivational Whether readers are considering offering an international field program for the first time and need guidance are veteran field course leaders who would like to take their work to the next level or are administrators attempting to encourage and provide needed support for faculty led international programs this book will prove invaluable Leadership for Tomorrow Malcolm Groves, John West-Burnham, 2017-11-13 In Leadership for Tomorrow Beyond the School Improvement Horizon Malcolm Groves Andrew Hobbs and John West Burnham present a vision led analysis of what needs to change if schools are really to equip children and young people to thrive in our ever changing world Continually adding improvements to existing models of schooling isn t enough we need a more radical reconceptualisation of schooling s function and purpose We need school leaders who can look beyond the horizon and lead on the strength of lessons learned from the here and now In Leadership for Tomorrow Groves Hobbs and West Burnham expertly examine what needs to change if we are to lead our schools beyond today s limited school improvement horizon and explore the nature of the change leadership which can make this happen Rooted in the direct experience of innovative and successful school leaders Leadership for Tomorrow presents a wide range of strategies and case studies that will enable and inspire leaders to future proof their school improvement approach and to fashion better futures for the children and young people in their care Furthermore by sharing their research informed insight into and vision for the evolving nature of education the authors hope to encourage leaders to go further in building both their own and their school s capacity to live learn and grow successfully Split into three parts that interweave both theory and practice Leadership for Tomorrow poses a number of questions throughout to stimulate thinking about current and emerging issues in education and argue that consequent responses will vary in different contexts Part One sets out and justifies theoretically the principles and values that underpin the authors vision for education and signposts the evidence which highlights the limitations of short term thinking and the reasons for why it is destined to fail In Part Two the authors focus on more practical matters by presenting case studies of five school leaders to examine their work through the lens of the four quadrant Schools of Tomorrow Framework which depicts the beyond outstanding school as one that delivers highly effective family and community engagement and preparation for the future as well as the highest levels of achievement and of well being and involvement Part Three then blends theory and practice with an in depth analysis of what these leaders experiences can tell us about developing new understandings of leading change and school improvement for the future which are at one and the same time values based and evidence informed Leadership for Tomorrow is the result of nearly a decade of thinking research and observation of leadership practice which Groves Hobbs and West Burnham have undertaken in a range of settings the authors have written up some of this experience previously for Schools of Tomorrow SoTo a small research and development group made up of school leaders working together to shape a better future for their schools Whilst Leadership for Tomorrow is primarily focused on changes within the English educational system the authors hope that the lessons derived from the book s content will be of interest to leaders in other school systems too Suitable for school leaders those preparing for leadership and those with an interest in leadership development and policy

Creating Tomorrow's Schools Today Richard Gerver, 2014-10-25 It s time to focus on the needs of our children not the whims of our politicians to provide a way forward for a new landscape in education Is our education system working What future are we preparing our children for What future do we NEED to prepare our children for Are we at risk of failing a generation In this updated edition of renowned education speaker Richard Gerver s book we are faced with these worrying questions and many more regarding the schools our children are attending the curriculum they are following and the testing system used to catagorise them In this rousing call for educational revolution Richard argues passionately that we must fight harder for our children s futures and we must do it today Richard describes the strategies he used when he was brought in as head teacher to turn around Grange Primary school It was there that he implemented his vision for a school system that caters for every child a system that helps nurture self confidence self worth creativity innovative thinking team working and communication skills all key employability skills that children will need in the fast moving world of technology and information they are growing up in Richard is now the second most successful education speaker in the world behind Sir Ken Robinson who describes Richard as one of the clearest and most passionate voices for radical change in education and wrote the foreword for this book Richard has updated Creating Tomorrow's Schools Today based on his visits to schools on every continent his conversations on education with teachers and industry leading visionaries such as Steve Wozniak and in the context of an education system that he fears is forgetting the future we need to prepare our children for Reforms tweaks and new policies are not enough a radical transformation is needed If you read only one Education manifesto in the next year this is it Join the conversation Edvision
