Western Civilization A Brief History Volume II Since 15:

Making of the West, Volume II: Since 1500 Lynn Hunt, Thomas R. Martin, Barbara H. Rosenwein, Bonnie G.

Smith, 2012-01-04 Students of Western civilization need more than facts They need to understand the cross cultural global exchanges that shaped Western history to be able to draw connections between the social cultural political economic and intellectual happenings in a given era and to see the West not as a fixed region but a living evolving construct These needs have long been central to The Making of the West The book's chronological narrative emphasizes the wide variety of peoples and cultures that created Western civilization and places them together in a common context enabling students to witness the unfolding of Western history understand change over time and recognize fundamental relationships A Concise

Survey of Western Civilization Brian A. Pavlac, 2023-01-09 This book gives a brief readable description of our common Western heritage It covers the minimum historical information that educated adults should know within a tightly focused narrative and interpretive structure The joined terms supremacies and diversities develop major themes of conflict and creativity Supremacies centers on the use of power to dominate societies ranging from warfare to ideologies Supremacy seeks stability order and incorporation Diversities encompasses the creative impulse that produces new ideas as well as people's efforts to define themselves as different Diversity creates change opportunity and individuality These themes of historical tension and change whether applied to political economic technological social and cultural trends offer a bridging explanatory organization Five other topical themes regularly inform the text technological innovation migration and conquest political and economic decision making church and state and disputes about the meaning of life Various Basic Principles present summaries of historical realities Primary Source Projects and Sources on Families offer students the chance to evaluate differing points of view about the past This text is less expensive less formal has more attitude yet still provides all the essentials for a course on Western Civilization A Short History of Western Civilization Richard Eugene

Students, 1898 Graduate Courses, 1898 Readying Cavalli's Operas for the Stage Ellen Rosand, 2017-07-05 After more than three centuries of silence the voice of Francesco Cavalli is being heard loud and clear on the operatic stages of the world The coincidence of productions at La Scala Milan and Covent Garden London in the same month September 2008 of two different operas signals a new stage in the recovery of these extraordinary works confined until now to special venues committed to early music opera festivals conservatory and university productions The works of the composer who is credited with having invented the genre of opera as we know it are finally enjoying a renaissance A new edition of Cavalli's twenty eight operas is in preparation and the composer and his works are at the center of a great deal of new scholarship ranging from the study of sources and production issues to the cultural context of opera of this period In the face of such burgeoning interest this collection of essays considers the Cavalli revival from various points of view In particular it explores the multiple issues involved in the transformation of an operatic manuscript into a performance Although focused on the works of Cavalli much of this material can transfer easily to other operatic repertoires Following an introductory part reflecting back on four decades of Cavalli performances by some of the conductors responsible for the revival of interest in the composer the collection is divided into four further parts The Manuscript Scores Giasone Production and Interpretation Making Librettos and Cavalli Beyond Venice The Annual American Catalog, 1900-1909 ,1903 Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1937

Hamid Dabashi's The End of Two Illusions is a daring provocative and groundbreaking work that dismantles the most dangerous delusions manufactured between two vastly fetishized abstractions: Islam and the West. With this book, Dabashi shows how the civilizational divides imagined between these two cosmic binaries have defined their entanglement in ways that have nothing to do with the lived experiences of either Muslims or the diverse and changing communities scarcely held together by the myth of the West. Through detailed historical and contemporary analysis, The End of Two Illusions untangles the motivations that produced this global fiction. Dabashi demonstrates how the West was an ideological commodity and civilizational mantra invented during the European Enlightenment, serving as an epicenter for the rise of globalized capitalist modernity. In turn, Orientalist ideologues went around the world manufacturing equally illusory abstractions in the form of inferior civilizations in India, China, Africa, Latin America, and the Islamic world. The result was the projection of Islam and the West as the prototype of a civilizational hostility that has given false explanations and flawed prognoses of our contemporary history, with weaponized Islamophobia on one side and militant Islamism on the other as its most palpable manifestations. Dabashi argues it is long past time to dismantle this dangerous liaison, expose and overcome its perilous delusions, and reimagine the world beyond its shimmering mirage. The End of Two Illusions is the most iconoclastic work of critical thought and scholarship to emerge in recent memory, clearing the way toward a far more liberating imaginative geography of the world we share.
