A Sharecropper's Story Charlie Davis,2015-02-25 This is a story based on true events surrounding the life and times of Elizabeth Jane Jones Davis known to many as Madea This story tells of the struggles of the black man living down on the countryside of southern Alabama during the 1950s and 1960s refusing to depend solely on the privileges allowed by some white landowners When the black man failed to meet the demands of some white men the acts of slavery were reignited all over again This was an act that some white men seemed to remember and the black man refused to be a slave again Sharecropper s Story is not only about sharing the crops and farming the white man s land on demand it is also about sharing love and compassion with others As Madea would say Jesus wants his people to share

My Story Bessie Epps Colvin,2012-09-25 My Story The Setup My story has been partially told so many times to my students and my grandchildren that I realized that I need to just print it So many people want to know how it was back in the day I promised myself that I would write it down whenever I got the chance Well the cancer treatments allowed me the time to do so Also this was a good time because my aunt and brothers and sister are all still alive They helped to reinforce how I remembered the events It still hurts to relive the two brothers going off to the Vietnam War and only one getting back alive Then I realize that my life was already planned already set up by God I just needed to follow the plan and continue to be a beacon of light for others to see I hope that this book might uplift someone else who is struggling with a serious illness and has not realized that we should rejoice in what God is doing in our lives even though we dont understand Enjoy
