Listening to Young Writers Melissa Hare Landa,2005 More children than ever before are entering school with minimal English skills or with a need for specialized instruction In Listening to Young Writers author Melissa Hare Landa presents an organized and comprehensive instructional approach to writing instruction that will move every young child to writing competency especially those in Title I and ELL programs Theoretical Models and Processes of Literacy Donna E. Alvermann,Norman J. Unrau,Misty Sailors,Robert B. Ruddell,2018-10-03 The Seventh Edition of this foundational text represents the most comprehensive source available for connecting multiple and diverse theories to literacy research broadly defined and features both cutting edge and classic contributions from top scholars Two decades into the 21st century the Seventh Edition finds itself at a crossroads and differs from its predecessors in three major ways the more encompassing term literacy replaces reading in the title to reflect sweeping changes in how readers and writers communicate in a digital era the focus is on conceptual essays rather than a mix of essays and research reports in earlier volumes and most notably contemporary literacy models and processes enhance and extend earlier theories of reading and writing Providing a tapestry of models and theories that have informed literacy research and instruction over the years this volume s strong historical grounding serves as a springboard from which new perspectives are presented. The chapters in this volume have been selected to inspire the interrogation of literacy theory and to foster its further evolution. This edition is a landmark volume in which dynamic dialogic and generative relations of power speak directly to the present generation of literacy theorists and researchers without losing the historical contexts that preceded them. Some additional archival essays from previous editions are available on the book's eResource. New to the Seventh Edition: Features chapters on emerging and contemporary theories that connect directly to issues of power and contrasts new models against more established counterparts. New chapters reflect sweeping changes in how readers and writers communicate in a digital era. Slimmer volume is complemented by some chapters from previous editions available online.

From Small Places Jo Anne Wilson-Keenan, 2015-10-14

From Small Places Toward the Realization of Literacy as a Human Right brings together history, theory, research, and practices that can lead to the realization of this right both in itself and as a means of achieving other rights. The premise of this book is that this right begins early in life within small places across the world. This idea originates from the words of Eleanor Roosevelt, Chair of the Commission that drafted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR): "Where after all do universal human rights begin? In small places, close to home—so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any map of the world. Unless these rights have meaning there, they have little meaning anywhere. Herein, literacy is viewed as a life-long social process. Literacy includes reading, writing, and new literacies that are evolving along with new technologies. The book includes an examination of the evolution of literacy as a human right from 1948, the time of the writing of the UDHR, to the present. Barriers to the realization of literacy as a human right, including the pedagogy of poverty and pathologizing the language of poor children, are explored. The book also describes theory, research, and practices that can serve to dismantle these barriers. It includes research about brain development, language, and literacy development from birth to the age of six, and examples of practices and community initiatives that honor, support, and build upon children's language and literacy diversity."

The SAGE Handbook of Early Childhood Literacy Joanne Larson, Jackie Marsh, 2012-11-09

This new edition of the much-loved Handbook of Early Childhood Literacy has been revised and updated to retain its cutting-edge focus on emergent and important areas of research. This comprehensive work guides the reader through current social, cultural, and historical analysis on a global scale. The new edition contains a greater range of methodologies and chapters on space and literacy disabilities and early childhood literacy, digital literacies, indigenous literacy, play, and literacy policy. In the Handbook, readers will find coverage of all the key topics in early childhood literacy. The exceptional list of contributors offers in-depth expertise in their respective areas of knowledge. The Handbook is essential for undergraduate students, Masters students, PhD students, CPD students, researchers, and literacy centre personnel. The second edition of this internationally respected and widely used text encompasses a myriad of new issues and insights, both through new contributions and thoughtfully revised chapters, which raise fresh questions and challenges for research and practice. In pushing the boundaries still further, the handbook retains its rightful place at the forefront of research into early childhood literacy practice in the 21st century Professor Teresa Cremin Open University UK This handbook provides in depth knowledge of insights and theories about the dynamic process of how children come to know literacy as thinking humans in social and cultural spaces There is a rich array of research perspectives of children s meaning making through family and digital literacies play and literacy and in school and out of school literacy experiences Yetta Goodman Regents Professor University of Arizona
