The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Signs and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters

Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria Nimi Wariboko, 2023-06-20 Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria explores how the sacred plays itself out in contemporary Africa It offers a creative analysis of the logics and dynamics of the sacred understood as the constellation of impossibility available to a given community in religion politics epistemology economic development and reactionary violence Using the tools of philosophy postcolonial criticism political theory African studies religious studies and cultural studies Wariboko reveals the intricate connections between the sacred and the existential conditions that characterize disorder terror trauma despair and hope in the postcolonial Africa The sacred Wariboko argues is not about religion or divinity but the set of possibilities opened to a people or denied them the sum total of possibilities conceivable given their level of social technological and economic development These possibilities profoundly speak to the present political moment in sub Saharan Africa

Black African Story Isaac B Thomas,2019-04-03 In Black African Story Isaac attempts to expose reasons for Black people s failure to get along at the same pace with other races in terms of technological advancement and economic prosperity He discusses reasons that some sections of the immediate black society are not keen in discussing such as cultural reforms The book offers possible solutions with much emphasis on Zimbabwe and Malawi as case studies

Africa: the Glory, the Curse, the Remedy Anthony O. Agbo,2014-06-23 In Africa The Glory the Curse the Remedy the author Anthony Agbo in a spectacular and inspirational detail researched the bible and rare ancient authorities to establish that God through the mouths of His Prophets pronounced broad and far reaching curses on Africa and Africans the result of which put the continent and her people in the negative side of all indices of human fortune growth and development Tracing the African family tree from the patriarch Noah through her phenomenal rise and greatness in ancient time to her sudden downfall the author in an amazing inspirational treatise woven with extra ordinary suspense unveiled the character and activities of the enigmatic biblical figure Nimrod the great African and first world ruler who built the Tower of Babel openly confronted the God of Heaven and originated Idolatry the worship of the gods of wood and stone thereby leading Africans astray the identity and pioneering works of Tehuti the great African who laid the foundation for all academic knowledge on earth and who the ancient Greeks referred to as the master of all masters and the greatest of all greats the journey of the biblical Ark of the covenant in the ancient time from Jerusalem to Ethiopia where it resides today why and how God cursed Africa and how this curse has impacted on the lives and endeavors of the black race what is it that can return Africa to future world dominion etc This is a book of extraordinary revelations about Africa and God her glory and curse propelled downfall as well as remedial prescriptions The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola, 2020-03-30 This Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct It thereby offers a bold incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa s ethical life and thought Hope on the Brink Lewis Brogdon, 2013-05-29 African Americans have always wrestled with hopelessness Yet in the face of hopelessness African Americans fought for hope that America can be a land of equality opportunity and justice The fight for hope has been difficult and has taken a toll on African Americans Today the signs of hopelessness abound in black communities across the nation as an increasing number of leaders express concern about a pervasive problem that they could not identify Beyond the continuing injustices and inequities linked to systemic racism they recognize a growing internal apathy in African Americans This internal apathy is nihilism the embrace of nothingness meaninglessness and internalized oppression Nihilism has been slowly emerging since the 1980s and is the reason there is an increasing number of blacks who turn to defeating and destructive behaviors that only worsen their plight In nihilism s wake leaders and communities are left trying to help people who have turned on themselves and abandoned hope that things can get better The first step toward hope requires an understanding of hopelessness Only then can we step into a world that pushes people to the brink and hope to make a difference Hope on the Brink offers an exploration into this hopelessness African Initiated Christianity and the Decolonisation of Development Philipp Öhlmann, Wilhelm Gräb, Marie-Luise Frost, 2020-01-07 This book investigates the substantial and growing contribution which African Independent and Pentecostal Churches are making to sustainable development in all its manifold forms Moreover this volume seeks to elucidate how these churches reshape the very notion of sustainable development and contribute to the decolonisation of development Fostering both overarching and comparative perspectives the book includes chapters on West Africa Nigeria Ghana and Burkina Faso and Southern Africa Zimbabwe and South Africa It aims to open up a subfield focused on African Initiated Christianity within the religion and development discourse substantially broadening the scope of the existing literature Written predominantly by scholars from the African continent the chapters in this volume illuminate potentials and perspectives of African Initiated Christianity combining theoretical contributions essays by renowned church leaders and case studies focusing on particular churches or regional contexts While the contributions in this book focus on the African continent the notion of development underlying the concept of the volume is deliberately wide and multidimensional covering economic social ecological political and cultural dimensions Therefore the book will be useful for the community of scholars interested in religion and development as well as researchers within African studies anthropology development studies political science religious studies sociology of religion and theology It will also be a key resource for development policymakers and practitioners

Flourishing in Babylon Joe Aldred, 2024-04-30 Black theology has long been about oppression and liberation But is there a different story to tell Can the black story be one about a quest for flourishing through agency and self determination and not only an existence of nihilistic struggle Drawing on a fresh reading of Jeremiah's letter to Jewish exiles and his own Pentecostal tradition Joe Aldred offers a fresh understanding of the Black British experience which draws on a realised eschatology rooted in identity empowerment and an agenda In a contested diasporan context in the shadow of empire there exists opportunity to fully flourish without apology or as Jeremiah puts it to those in exile to settle build and grow

Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A. Ajibade, 2021-06-30 How can expository preaching rooted in a textual analysis of Scripture be effectively utilized in oral cultures In Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A. Ajibade engages this challenge directly offering practical techniques for integrating African oral elements such as myths proverbs folklore dance drama poetry and storytelling into preaching that is both biblical and African Alongside numerous examples and tools Ajibade provides a rich overview of the nature of orality the history and development of African preaching and the reason biblical exposition must be central to gospel proclamation He reminds us that it is the word of God incarnated among us that has the power to transform lives and revitalize nations Contextualized expository preaching is not therefore one technique to be utilized among many it is rather the heart of biblical teaching and the future of the African church While contributing significantly to studies in contextualization and homiletics this book is immediately applicable to practitioners especially African preachers and those working in oral contexts

Secularization and Its Discontents Rob Warner, 2010-12-23 Authoritative guide to contemporary debates and issues in the sociology of religion providing a clear examination of classical secularization And The post secularization paradigm

Reverse in Ministry and Missions: Africans in the Dark Continent of Europe Israel Olofinjana, 2010-05-21 There has been a recent shift in global Christianity from North to South Christianity particularly Pentecostalism is growing day by day in the continents of Africa Latin America and Asia whereas it is declining in the Western world Africans are now bringing the Gospel back to Europe and other parts of the world This reverse in missions has been a recent phenomenon and is the subject of this book This book documents the history and contributions of European missions in Africa It then chronicles the history and development of African Churches in Europe focussing on the UK It is passionately articulated that these Churches are certainly contributing positively to global and local Christianity The historical development of Kingsway International Christian Centre KICC is documented to illustrate the impact African Churches are making in Europe It is a book that is valuable to people interested in African Churches in the UK The presence of so many vigorous and committed black churches is one of the bright spots on the horizon of churches in the UK This work is a pioneering contribution to understanding where these churches are coming from how they understand their mission in and to the UK and how they are likely to shape the future of Christianity in these islands It is very welcome Dr Nigel Wright Principal of Spurgeon s College London Rev Israel has produced a winning combination of research history and practical theology with this wonderful piece I believe it is essential reading for every leader who is serious about contemporary cross cultural ministry and mission in 21st century Britain Dr Jonathan Oloyede Convener Global Day of Prayer London Pentecostalism and Prosperity K. Attanasi,A. Yong,2012-02-27 While there are a growing number of researchers who are exploring the political and social aspects of the global Renewal movement few have provided sustained socio economic analyses of this phenomenon The editors and contributors to this volume offer perspectives in light of the growth of the Renewal movement in the two thirds world Beyond the Surface Fola Omotoyinbo,2011-07-07 People have issues The world is absolutely full of them The Bible has an inexhaustible list of them A patriarch who loved prostitutes A General with leprosy Priests who were sons of Belial A brother who slept with his sister A believer who practised sorcery These are more than mere stories that make headlines in the media or what you only read about in the gossip columns They are real issues They happen They are all around us The unusual pattern could go from one generation to another and if unchecked perpetrating destruction until someone stops it And that person could be you On every page of this powerfully moving book Fola Omotoyinbo reminds us of the subterranean issues in our life that many would rather not talk about He has given us a vehicle of emancipation and restoration to let us know that the same God who changed and helped Jacob out of his predicament giving him a clean report is still the same today The God who gave freedom to men and women in the past is still alive today as he has always been He is as powerful as he has always been to put a stop to all that brings reproach and shame to you He alone has the answers to those questions you find hard to ask any man

AFRICAN POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY Godfrey O. Ozumba & Elijah O. John (Edited),2017-01-07 African Political Philosophy has come to dismiss the bogey myth of non existence of the great and noble ideas of African philosophy African theology and African history It has rather come to justify the reality and existence of African philosophy espoused in the early 1970s by people like Professor Innocent Onyewuenyi who propounded the notion of Egyptian African origin of Greek philosophy This has also added to its academic merit and market potential It is indeed a necessary addition to the growing volumes of brilliant books by a number of indigenous African scholars and writers This book is endorsed by Edioms Research and Innovation Centre E RIC Afrikan Mind Reconnection & Spiritual Re-Awakening Dr. Lumumba Umunna Ubani, 2011-01-17 The need for Afrikan mind regeneration and spiritual reawakening A people who have lost these two principal inner qualities of mind can hardly find their through selves in life This book is an attempt to begin the processes of African self rediscovery The ending of slavery and colonialism removed only our physical agony but the trauma of long and extended torture left deep rooted anguish within the psyche of African race The effects of this imprint legacy will continue until we start addressing these negative effects In an effort to do this the book has provided several suggestions Some of the program are being provided at the Institute of Mind Talk Afrika Rewriting Your Family History Steve Ogan, 2013 Most families have one negative heritage or another associated with them Some have struggled with these evil foundations for centuries Others have accepted persistent reproaches as their lot in life Yet others in an attempt to change the tides of calamities have sought for solutions in places that compounded their situation What do you do when you notice the scourge of premature death in your family How do you explain the persistence of poverty in the midst of plenty Why do some family members work like elephants and eat like ants Why are women in certain families unable to keep their husbands Why is divorce a mark of identification for some families These are the concerns we have chosen to address in this book on principles of dealing with evil heritage Intercultural Theology Mark J. Cartledge, David Cheetham, 2012-11-29 Intercultural Theology offers a set of groundbreaking essays that describe the nature of intercultural theology as a domain of theology that pays particular attention to the identity of non western forms of Christianity in dialogue with western forms It is theological discourse engaged in multi disciplinary dialogue and therefore uses the insights from historical socio cultural inter religious and empirical studies Intercultural theology is a development from previous discussions within mission studies contextual theology studies in world Christianity and Third World theology
