Women In The Middle Women In The Middle:

Women in the Middle Elaine M. Brody, 2006-03-16 Daughters are the main caregivers to elderly disabled parents most often in their middle years and are caught in the middle of multiple competing demands on their time and energy Dr Brody revisits this phenomenon in this updated edition of her groundbreaking work Women in Nineteenth-Century Europe

Rachel Fuchs, Victoria E. Thompson, 2004-11-21 During the nineteenth century European women of all countries and social classes experienced dramatic and enduring changes in their familial working and political lives However the history of women at this time is not one of unmitigated progress theirs was an uphill struggle fraught with hindrances hard work and economic downturns and the increasing intrusion of the public into their innermost private and personal lives Breaking away from traditional categories Rachel G Fuchs and Victoria E Thompson provide a sense of the variety and complexity of women s lives across national and regional boundaries juxtaposing the experiences of women with the perceptions of their lives Three themes unite this study The tension between tradition and modernity The changing relationship between the community and individual The shifting boundaries between public and private Dealing with individual women s lives within a large social and cultural context Fuchs and Thompson demonstrate how strong and courageous women refused to live within the prescribed domestic roles and how many became the modern women of the twentieth century Women of Color

Health Data Book Wilhelmina Leigh, 1998 Women's Productive and Reproductive Labour Ayşe Arslan, 2023-07-27 This book looks at the dynamic relationship between women s productive and reproductive work in a Global South country from a Global South perspective Applying a feminist political economy and historical materialist approach and building on an ethnographic extended case study it analyses the relationships between class and gender across both the productive and reproductive realms at the macro and micro levels in the case of women garment workers in Turkey Overall it shows that the material and social conditions of women s productive and reproductive work co constitute each other It suggests that productive and social reproductive labour should be examined as an integrated process and an interrelated social relation in constant dialogue with other social relations This book is of interest to researchers and students in the disciplines of gender studies labour studies feminist economics sociology and development studies Given that most studies on social reproduction have largely focused on the Global North this book is of particular interest to those in search of a more comprehensive and holistic understanding It is also of great relevance to policymakers concerned with gender and labour issues as well as labour and feminist activists The Making of the Jewish Middle Class Marion A.
