Womens Holocaust Writing Memory And Imagination:

Women's Holocaust Writing S. Lillian Kremer, 1999-01-01 Women's Holocaust Writing the first book of literary criticism devoted to American Holocaust writing by and about women extends Holocaust and literary studies by examining women's artistic representations of female Holocaust experiences Beyond racial persecution women suffered gender related oppression and coped with the concentration camp universe in ways consistent with their prewar gender socialization Through close insightful reading of fiction S Lillian Kremer explores Holocaust representations in works distinguished by the power of their literary expression and attention to women's diverse experiences Sexual Violence Against Jewish Women During the Holocaust Sonja Maria Hedgepeth, Rochelle G. Saidel, 2010 The first book in English to specifically address the sexual violation of Jewish women during the Holocaust Plight and Fate of Women During and Following Genocide Samuel Totten, 2017-07-05 The plight and fate of female victims during the course of genocide is radically and profoundly different from their male counterparts Like males female victims suffer demonization ostracism discrimination and deprivation of their basic human rights They are often rounded up deported and killed But unlike most men women are subjected to rape gang rape and mass rape Such assaults and degradation can and often do result in horrible injuries to their reproductive systems and unwanted pregnancies This volume takes one stride towards assessing these grievances and argues against policies calculated to continue such indifference to great human suffering The horror and pain suffered by females does not end with the act of rape There is always the fear and reality of being infected with HIV AIDS Concomitantly there is the possibility of becoming pregnant Then there is the birth of the babies For some the very sight of the babies and children reminds mothers of the horrific violations they suffered When mothers harbor deep seated hatred or disdain for such children it results in more misery The hatred may be so great that children born of rape leave home early in order to fend for themselves on the street This seventh volume in the Genocide series will provoke debate discussion reflection and ultimately action The issues presented include ongoing mass rape of girls and women during periods of war and genocide ostracism of female victims terrible psychological and physical wounds the plight of offspring resulting from rapes and the critical need for medical and psychological services American Public Memory and the Holocaust Lisa A. Costello, 2019-10-17 The recent rise of global antisemitism Holocaust denial and American white nationalism has created a dangerous challenge to Holocaust public memory on an unprecedented scale This book is a timely exploration of the ways in which next generation Holocaust survivors combine old and new media to bring newer generations of audiences into active engagement with Holocaust histories Readers have been socialized to expect memorialization artifacts about the Holocaust to come in the form of diaries memoirs photos or documentaries in which gender is often absent or marginalized This book shows a complex process of remembering the past that can positively shift our orientations toward others Using gender performance and rhetoric as a frame Lisa Costello questions public memory as gender neutral while showing how new forms of memorialization like digital archives YouTube posts hybrid memoirs and small films build emotional connections that bring us closer to the past

Women in European Holocaust Films Ingrid Lewis, 2018-01-19 This book considers how women's experiences have been treated in films dealing with Nazi persecution Focusing on fiction films made in Europe between 1945 and the present this study explores dominant discourses on and cinematic representation of women as perpetrators victims and resisters Ingrid Lewis contends that European Holocaust Cinema underwent a rich and complex trajectory of change with regard to the representation of women This change both reflects and responds to key socio cultural developments in the intervening decades as well as to new directions in cinema historical research and politics of remembrance The book will appeal to international scholars students and educators within the fields of Holocaust Studies Film Studies European Cinema and Women's Studies

Literature of the Holocaust Alan Rosen, 2013-11-14 During and in the aftermath of the dark period of the Holocaust writers across Europe and America sought to express their feelings and experiences through their writings This book provides a comprehensive account of these writings through essays from expert scholars covering a wide geographic linguistic thematic and generic range of materials Such an overview is particularly appropriate at a time when the corpus of Holocaust literature has grown to immense proportions and when guidance is needed in determining a canon of essential readings a context to interpret them and a paradigm for the evolution of writing on the Holocaust The expert contributors to this volume who negotiate the literature in the original languages provide insight into the influence of national traditions and the importance of language especially but not exclusively Yiddish and Hebrew to the literary response arising from the Holocaust

Meaningful Encounters Paula Ressler, Becca Chase, 2019-04-13 Teaching about the Holocaust presents one of the most formidable challenges teachers face Meaningful Encounters is Paula Ressler and Becca Chase's contribution to the efforts of those educators who wish to meet this challenge more knowledgeably and effectively It tells the story of a unique inquiry based English teacher education course focused on Holocaust literature from several genres that integrated literacy pedagogies and literary criticism with historical philosophical psychological and political theories and contexts The book involves the reader in the complicated tangle of Holocaust education critically illuminating how difficult this work is but also demonstrating how teachers can introduce their students responsibly and ethically to this perennially relevant body of literature The authors offer no facile solutions to the obstacles and pitfalls inherent in teaching this literature They raise questions pose problems consider and analyze how participants responded to issues that emerged and suggest alternative approaches The authors recount the students and teacher's unsettling and enlightening experiences failures and successes By following along preservice educators will be able to conceptualize discuss and practice and inservice teachers and teacher educators rethink how to teach Holocaust and other literatures about genocide and mass atrocities in culturally relevant and meaningful ways today

The Jewish American Novel Philippe Codde, 2007 Philippe Codde provides a comparative cultural analysis of the unprecedented success of the Jewish novel in the postwar United States by situating the process and event in the context of three closely related American cultural movements the popularity in the US of French philosophical and literary existentialism the increasing visibility of the Holocaust in US American life and the advent of radical theology Codde argues that the literary repertoire of the postwar Jewish novel consists of an amalgam of these cultural elements that were making their mark in the political religious and philosophical systems of the United States at the time and that this explains in part the Jewish novel's sweeping success in the American literary system

Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma Jessica Gildersleeve, 2014-02-15 Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma analyses the treatment of memory and the past in Bowen's writing through the lens of trauma theory It draws on the theories of Jacques Derrida Hélène Cixous Julia Kristeva Sigmund Freud and Cathy Caruth to propose that Bowen's work is best understood through the psychological narratological and linguistic effects of trauma in her fiction Bowen's writing complicates existing deconstructive and psychoanalytic models of trauma and literature and testifies to the responsibility of survival and the ethics of bearing witness

Sentient Performativities of Embodiment Lynette Hunter, Elisabeth Krimmer, Peter Lichtenfels, 2016-05-05 This collection offers writings on the body with a focus on performance defined as both staged performance and everyday performance Traditionally theorizations of the body have either analyzed its impact on its socio-historical environment or treated the body as a self-enclosed semiotic and affective system This collection makes a conscious effort to merge these two approaches It is interested in interactions between bodies and other bodies bodies and environments and bodies and objects
