Thomas M. Truxes, 2021-01-01 A sweeping history of early American trade and the foundation of the American economy We could have no better guide than Truxes explaining incisively how American colonial merchants enriched their communities through licit and illicit trade and how this enrichment was the product of slavery and the slave trade Nicholas Canny author of Imagining Ireland's Pasts In a single readily digestible coherent narrative historian Thomas M Truxes presents the three hundred year history of the overseas trade of British America Born from seeds planted in Tudor England in the sixteenth century Atlantic trade allowed the initial survival economic expansion and later prosperity of British America and brought vastly different geographical regions each with a distinctive identity and economic structure into a single fabric Truxes shows how colonial American prosperity was only possible because of the labor of enslaved Africans how the colonial economy became dependent on free and open markets and how the young United States owed its survival in the struggle of the American Revolution to Atlantic trade Inflamed Rupa Marya, Raj Patel, 2025-09-23 Raj Patel the New York Times bestselling author of The Value of Nothing teams up with physician activist and co founder of the Do No Harm Coalition Rupa Marya to reveal the links between health and structural injustices and to offer a new deep medicine that can heal our bodies and our world The Covid pandemic and the shocking racial disparities in its impact The surge in inflammatory illnesses such as gastrointestinal disorders and asthma Mass uprisings around the world in response to systemic racism and violence Rising numbers of climate refugees Our bodies societies and planet are inflamed Boldly original Inflamed takes us on a medical tour through the human body our digestive endocrine circulatory respiratory reproductive immune and nervous systems Unlike a traditional anatomy book this groundbreaking work illuminates the hidden relationships between our biological systems and the profound injustices of our political and economic systems Inflammation is connected to the food we eat the air we breathe and the diversity of the microbes living inside us which regulate everything from our brain's development to our immune system's functioning It's connected to the number of traumatic events we experienced as children and to the traumas endured by our ancestors It's connected not only to access to health care but to the very models of health that physicians practice Raj Patel the renowned political economist and New York Times bestselling author of The Value of Nothing teams up with the physician Rupa Marya to offer a radical new cure the deep medicine of decolonization Decolonizing heals what has been divided reestablishing our relationships with the Earth and one another Combining the latest scientific research and scholarship on globalization with the stories of Marya's work with patients in marginalized communities activist passion and
