

International Human Rights and Socioeconomic Rights - "Socioeconomic" is the third pillar alongside civil and political rights and social economic rights. Socioeconomic rights include housing, employment, health, education, social security, etc. Socioeconomic rights are "positive" rights, meaning they require state action to be realized. They are also "collective" rights, meaning they are realized through the actions of the state and society as a whole. Socioeconomic rights are also "interdependent" rights, meaning they are realized in conjunction with civil and political rights. Socioeconomic rights are also "interrelated" rights, meaning they are realized in conjunction with each other.
