Trusted Partners How Companies Build Mutual Trust And Win Together:

Trusted Partners Jordan D. Lewis, 2007-09-11 Trust is the glue that holds organizations together More powerful than contracts or authority trust enables partner companies or groups within a company to achieve results that exceed the sum of the parts Without trust alliances fail In Trusted Partners internationally recognized alliance expert Jordan Lewis draws on four decades of advising and managing alliances to show for the first time how to build and sustain trust between and within organizations A comprehensive and multifaceted analysis of trust Trusted Partners shows how to develop manage measure improve or repair this important dimension of every business relationship Trust must be constructed one step at a time Lewis maintains He breaks significant new ground by describing each of these steps including how to assemble the elusive interpersonal leadership political organizational structural and governance components of trust Clear in its explanation of what trust entails Trusted Partners uses dozens of stories and case examples among them alliances between Canon and Hewlett Packard Ford and ABB and Procter Gamble and Wal Mart all of which achieved market beating results Lewis begins by establishing eight conditions for trust and shows how to determine if trust is possible He then details How to build manage and repair trust How to trust difficult customers How to sell alliances to customers How to trust a rival How to build trust between internal groups How to create a culture of trust How to build trust in mergers and acquisitions Concluding Trusted Partners is a section entitled Tools for Trust This practical easy to use reference guide covers in depth all the key aspects of trust from measuring trust and using alliance ethics to sharing know how and benefits working with attorneys and choosing the best alliance structure At a time when alliances have become a preferred competitive strategy for most companies and with most alliances ending as failures management at all levels cannot afford to ignore this powerful book

Partnerships, Joint Ventures & Strategic Alliances Stephen I. Glover, Craig M. Wasserman, 2003 Helps you dissect any proposed transaction spot the issues that need to be addressed and achieve a successful outcome This book includes discussions on building a successful partnership joint venture and strategic alliance choice of entity considerations fiduciary duties tax and regulatory issues and the role of lawyers Collaboration in the Australian and Chinese Mobile Telecommunication Markets Yu (Aimee) Zhang, 2013-11-05 A major objective of this book is to identify the key determinants of successful inter firm collaborations in the telecommunications industry in Australia and China utilizing both qualitative and quantitative research methods as complementary methodologies The findings will provide essential information and suggestions for businesses researchers and policy makers and shed light on how to concretely improve the performance of business collaborations Inter firm collaboration has become increasingly important in the global economy as firms now rely on collaborations to access new resources new technologies skills the latest market information new markets and knowledge to accelerate innovation to reduce costs and to overcome government policy barriers Governing by Network Stephen Goldsmith, William D. Eggers, 2005-06-22 A fundamental but mostly hidden transformation is happening in the way public services are being delivered and in the way local and national governments fulfill their policy goals Government executives are redefining their core responsibilities away from managing workers and providing services directly to orchestrating networks of public private and nonprofit organizations to deliver the services that government once did itself Authors Stephen Goldsmith and William D Eggers call this new model governing by network and maintain that the new approach is a dramatically different type of endeavor that simply managing divisions of employees Like any changes of such magnitude it poses major challenges for those in charge Faced by a web of relationships and partnerships that increasingly make up modern governance public managers must grapple with skill set issues managing a contract to capture value technology issues incompatible information systems communications issues one partner in the network for example might possess more information than another and cultural issues how interplay among varied public private and nonprofit sector cultures can create unproductive dissonance Governing by Network examines for the first time how managers on both sides of the aisle public and private are coping with the changes Drawing from dozens of case studies as well as established best practices the authors tell us what works and what doesn't Here is a clear roadmap for actually governing the networked state for elected officials business executives and the broader public
