Troubling The Angels Patricia A. Lather, Christine S. Smithies, 2019-08-28 Educator Patti Lather and psychologist Chris Smithies observed and chronicled support groups for women diagnosed with HIV Whether black Latina poor or middle class the women in these groups share the common bond of living with HIV AIDS and they describe how it affects their lives in terms full of practical reality and moving poignancy as the Troubling The Angels Patricia A Lather, Christine S Smithies, 2018-03-14 Educator Patti Lather and psychologist Chris Smithies observed and chronicled support groups for women diagnosed with HIV Whether black Latina poor or middle class the women in these groups share the common bond of living with HIV AIDS and they describe how it affects their lives in terms full of practical reality and moving poignancy as they fight the disease accept reflect live and die with and in it Troubling the Angels Patricia A. Lather, Chris Smithies, 1999 Voice in Qualitative Inquiry Alecia Y Jackson, Lisa A Mazzei, 2008-09-02 Contributors focus on the question What does it mean to work the limits of voice from theoretical methodological and interpretative positions

Getting Lost Patti Lather, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association In this follow up to her classic text Troubling the Angels an experimental ethnography of women with AIDS Patti Lather deconstructs her earlier work to articulate methodology out of practice and to answer the question What would practices of research look like that were a response to the call of the wholly other She addresses some of the key issues challenging social scientists today such as power relations with subjects in the field the crisis in representation difference deconstruction praxis ethics responsibility objectivity narrative strategy and situatedness Including a series of essays reflections and interviews marking the trajectory of the author's work as a feminist methodologist Getting Lost will be an important text for courses in sociology of science philosophy of science ethnography feminist methodology women and gender studies and qualitative research in education and related social science fields Feminist Engagements Kathleen Weiler, 2002-06-01 Feminist Engagements is a collection of essays by some of the top names in feminist education in which they read and revision the works of the major twentieth century theorists in education and cultural studies (Post)Critical Methodologies: The Science Possible After the Critiques Patti Lather, 2017-02-03 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts themselves compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Post Critical Methodologies forms a chronology through the texts and concepts that span Patti Lather's career Examining post critical feminist and poststructural theories Lather's work is organized into thematic sections that span her 35 years of study in this field These sections include original contributions formed from Lather's feminism and critical theory background They contain her most cited works on feminist research and pedagogy and form a collection of both early and recent writings on the post and post post with a focus on critical policy studies and the future of post qualitative work With a focus on the implications for qualitative inquiry given the call for scientifically based research in education this compelling overview moves through Lather s progressive thoughts on bridging the gap between quantitative and qualitative research in education and provides a unique commentary on some of the most important issues in higher education over the last 30 years This compilation of Lather s contribution to educational thinking will prove compelling reading to all those engaged in student learning in higher education worldwide

Representation and the Text

William G. Tierney, Yvonna S. Lincoln, 1997-07-31 Focuses on authorial representations of contested reality in qualitative research This book focuses on representations of contested realities in qualitative research The authors examine two separate but interrelated issues criticisms of how researchers use voice and suggestions about how to develop experimental voices that expand the range of narrative strategies Changing relationships between researchers and respondents dictate alterations in textual representations from the view from nowhere to the view from a particular location and from the omniscient voice to the polyvocality of communities of individuals Examples of new representations and textual experiments provide models for how some authors have struggled with voice in their texts and in so doing broaden who they and we mean by us

Writing Groups Inside and Outside the Classroom Beverly J. Moss, Nels P. Highberg, Melissa Nicolas, 2014-04-04 This unique collection considers the nature of writing groups inside and outside the academic environment Exploring writing groups as contextual literacy events editors Beverly J Moss Nels P Highberg and Melissa Nicolas bring together contributors to document and reflect on the various types of collaborations that occur in writing groups in a wide range of settings both within and outside the academy The chapters in this volume respond to a variety of questions about writing groups including What is the impact of gender race and socioeconomic class on power dynamics in writing groups When is a writing group a community and are all writing groups communities How does the local community of a writing group impact the participation of group members in other local or global communities How does the local community of a writing group impact the participation of group members in other local or global communities What actions contribute to a strong community of writers and what actions contribute to the breakdown of community When and for whom are writing groups ineffective What is it about belonging to a community of writers that makes writing groups appealing to so many within and beyond the academy Each chapter highlights how writing groups whether or not they are labeled as such function in various spaces and locations and how collaboration works when writers from a variety of backgrounds with diverse interests come together Writing Groups Inside and Outside the Classroom illustrates that writing groups outside of the academy are worthy of study and serve as important sites of writing and literacy instruction Offering significant insights into the roles of writing groups in literacy and writing practice this volume is appropriate for scholars and teachers of writing rhetoric composition and literacy for writing center administrators and staff and for writing group participants
