Intersection of Adolescent Sexual, Reproductive, and Mental Health in Sub-Saharan Africa Negussie Boti Sidamo, Zacharie Tsala Dimbuene, Sultan Hussien Hebo, Stephen Chukwudeh, 2025-06-18 Adolescence is a crucial stage of development in which young people experience a wide range of emotional social and physical changes One significant aspect of this period is the exploration and emergence of reproductive health and behaviours Alongside this mental health and well being are increasingly recognized as vital components of overall adolescent health and development The intersection of adolescent sexual reproductive and mental health is complex dynamic and multifaceted with numerous social cultural and biological factors influencing these domains Addressing this intersection remains a critical area of research policy and practice to promote healthy adolescent development and empower young people with the knowledge and skills necessary to make informed decisions about their sexual reproductive and mental health In sub Saharan Africa adolescents have greater risk factors and low access to health services that make them prone to such problems This underscores the need to consider an integrated approach to address the sexual reproductive and mental health problems of adolescents living in sub Saharan Africa These insights are pivotal for identifying novel approaches that are highly effective and well tolerated for integrated services to improve the relief of adolescents living in sub Saharan Africa from sexual reproductive and mental health problems
