A Heart for the Community John Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence, poverty, and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers. Today these issues concern the suburbs too. The Christian community is responding to this reality. Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs. In A Heart for the Community: New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal. These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations. Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities, economic development strategies, and more. As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest, tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise. The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable, vibrant models of ministry that make a difference

The New Conspirators Tom Sine, 2009-10-25 If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, Jesus says in the Gospel of Matthew, nothing will be impossible for you. That sounds good, but does it work in a world where seeds are genetically altered by an impatient few and hard to come by for countless others? In a world where the gulf between the very rich and the profoundly poor is constantly growing, can a mustard seed faith make any difference? And can such a little bit of faith be sustained in a world whose future is so uncertain on so many fronts? Tom Sine says yes, and he has the audacity to try to prove it in his latest book. In The New Conspirators, Tom surveys the landscape of creative Christianity where streams of renewal are flowing freely from diverse sources: the emerging church, contemporary monastic movements, the missional church, the mosaic movement. Individuals and communities of faith are coalescing in and drawing energy from these four streams to retrofit the church as it leads, serves, and gives witness to the kingdom of God in the turbulent times facing us. Read the book and you'll want to and be prepared to join God's conspiracy to create a better future
