Uncovering African Agency Uncovering African Agency:

Uncovering African Agency Lucy Corkin, 2016-02-17 China's engagement in Africa is generally portrayed simply as African countries being exploited for their mineral wealth by a wealthy political and economic superpower. Is this always the case? Certain African countries have been able to use China's involvement in the region to grow their economies and solicit renewed interest from previously disengaged foreign powers by using their relationship with China to bolster their political capital. In this thought provoking and original work, Lucy Corkin demonstrates how Angola has been amongst the most successful of African nations in this role. The concept of African agency covers a wide range of different countries with very different capabilities and experiences of engaging with China. In each individual country there are a myriad of actors all with increasingly discernible agencies. Uncovering African Agency: Angola's Management of China's Credit Lines casts a fascinating new light on China's involvement with her largest African trading partner and through this shows how different African states and the governmental actors within them are able to exploit the relationship to their best advantage. The Transsion Approach Miao Lu, 2025-12-23 How do we explain China's tech rise in Africa? As Africa's top phone seller, the Shenzhen based company Transsion has profoundly shaped the continent's digital transformation by providing affordable yet feature rich mobile phones for the economically disadvantaged. Miao Lu draws on rich fieldwork in China and Ghana to delve into the company's operations and growing influence. Critiquing technology transfer, Lu focuses on design, marketing and repair to illustrate the multi-layered technology translations between China and Ghana. Borrowing the metaphor of deep ploughing, Lu examines the rural centric and lower class oriented approach of translating mobile technology. Transsion challenges the cultural imagination of big tech. But the company is also evolving into a regional power that's adept at marginalizing small players and increasing local dependence. Lu's analysis explores the complexity that Shenzhen can act as Silicon Valley's South and Africa's North simultaneously. The middle space created by Transsion bridges globalization from above and below which opens the door to new possibilities and inequalities. Kenya's Engagement with China Anita Plummer, 2022-11-01 In recent decades Kenya has witnessed profound changes in its economic, cultural and environmental landscapes resulting from its interactions with China. University students are competing for scholarships to study in China; coastal artisanal fishers are increasingly worried about Chinese owned trawlers depleting fish stocks; fishers on Lake Victoria are grappling with the impact of frozen tilapia from China; and unemployed youth are seeking a fair shot at working on one of Kenya's multimillion dollar Chinese funded infrastructure projects. Anita Plummer's Kenya's Engagement with China investigates the tension between official Kenyan and Chinese state narratives and individual Kenyans' reactions to China's presence to provide insight into how everyday Kenyans exercise their political agency. The competing discourses Plummer uncovers in person in the news and online reveal how Kenyans use China to question local power structures, demand policy change and articulate different visions for their country's future. This critical text represents the next step in research on Sino-

African relations “Angels of God”? Andrea Azizi Kifyasi, 2025-12-01 This book drawing heavily on archival and oral sources many of which have not been accessible before discusses major Chinese funded projects in Tanzania s health sector It explores the contexts that gave birth to China s medical assistance in Tanzania and analyses how the funded projects contributed to the nation building agenda and promoted South South medical knowledge production exchanges and self sufficiency within the country By examining entanglements in bilateral relationships among countries of the Global South the book contributes to research on South South cooperation Exit from Hegemony Alexander Cooley, Daniel Nexon, 2020-02-28 We live in a period of uncertainty about the fate of America s global leadership Many believe that Donald Trump s presidency marks the end of liberal international order the very system of global institutions rules and values that shaped the international system since the end of World War II Exit from Hegemony Alexander Cooley and Daniel Nexon develop a new approach to understanding the rise and decline of hegemonic orders They identify three ways in which the liberal international order is transforming The Trump administration declaring America First accelerates all three processes lessening America s position as a world power Africa and China Aleksandra W. Gadzala, 2015-09-03 The China Africa relationship has so far largely been depicted as one in which the Chinese state and Chinese entrepreneurs control the agenda with Africans and their governments as passive actors exercising little or no agency This volume examines the African side of the relation to show how African state and non state actors increasingly influence the China Africa partnership and in so doing begin to shape their economic and political futures The influx of public and private sector Chinese actors across the African continent has led to a rise of opportunities and challenges which the volume sets out to examine With case studies from Nigeria Angola Kenya South Africa Ethiopia and Zambia and across the technology natural resource manufacturing and financial sectors it shows not only how African realities shape Chinese actions but also how African governments and entrepreneurs are learning to leverage their competitive advantages and to negotiate the growing Chinese presence across the continent Working the System Jon Schubert, 2017-11-15 Working the System offers key insights into the politics of the everyday in twenty first century dominant party and neo authoritarian regimes in Africa and elsewhere Detailing the many ways ordinary Angolans fashion their relationships with the system an emic notion of their current political and socioeconomic environment Jon Schubert explores what it means and how it feels to be part of the contemporary Angolan polity Schubert finds that for many ordinary Angolans the benefits of the post conflict New Angola flush with oil wealth and in the midst of a construction boom are few The majority of the inhabitants of the capital Luanda struggle to make ends meet and live on under 2 00 per day The New Angola as promoted by the ruling MPLA Schubert contends is an essentially urban upwardly mobile and aspirational project premised on the acceptance of the regime s political and economic dominance by its citizens In the first ethnography of Angola to be published since the end of that country s twenty seven years of intermittent violent internal conflict in 2002 Schubert traces how Angolans may question and resist the system within an atmosphere of apparent compliance Working the System will appeal to anthropologists and political scientists urban sociologists and scholars of African studies The Complex Interplay between Power, Politics, and African Agency Serges Djoyou Kamga,2024-11-15 The Complex Interplay between Power Politics and African Agency The Philosophy of Toyin Falola by Serges Djoyou Kamga examines the impact of colonialism by using Toyin Falola s philosophy as a framework It delves into the evolution of African political culture under colonial rule This book offers a unique perspective on the intricate dynamics of African society providing a deeper understanding of how power and politics have shaped African culture Kamga emphasizes the complex interplay between these elements and highlights the significance of African voices in determining their own destiny Using Falola s works this book analyzes and critiques the influence of Europe and establishes the ongoing unequal relationship between ex colonized African countries and their imperialist colonizers This book is highly recommended for scholars of African studies political science and anyone interested in African history and culture

Chinese Migrants and Africa's Development Doctor Ben Lampert,Doctor May Tan-Mullins,Daphne Chang,Giles Mohan,2014-06-12 China s recent stepping up of relations with Africa is one of the most significant developments on the African continent for decades For some it promises an end to Africa s dependent aid relationships as the Chinese bring expertise technology and a stronger business focus But for others it is no more than a new form of imperialism This book is the first to systematically study the motivations relationships and impact of this migration It focuses not just on the Chinese migrants but also on the perceptions of and linkages to their African hosts By studying this everyday interaction we get a much richer picture of whether this is South South cooperation as political leaders would have us believe or a more complex relationship that can both compromise and encourage African development The China Question Dragan Pavličević,Nicole Talmacs,2022-05-03 The China Question Contestations and Adaptations provides fresh perspectives on and empirics about China s international relations through the lens of the local and regional configurations and developments around the world While China s foreign policy strategies have received much attention and in particular the Belt and Road Initiative BRI the local contestations and or adaptations that China provokes in the countries and regions it engages remain under researched In this book a global collection of scholars examines how countries societies and individuals around the world are responding to China s rise Democracy Promotion and the Challenges of Illiberal Regional Powers Nelli Babayan,Thomas Risse,2017-10-02 This book examines Western efforts at democracy promotion reactions by illiberal challengers and regional powers and political and societal conditions in target states It is argued that Western powers are not unequivocally committed to the promotion of democracy and human rights while non democratic regional powers cannot simply be described as autocracy supporters This volume examines in detail the challenges by three illiberal regional powers China Russia and Saudi Arabia to Western US and EU efforts at democracy promotion The contributions specifically analyze their actions in Ethiopia and Angola in the case of China Georgia and Ukraine in the case of Russia and Tunisia in the case of Saudi Arabia Democratic powers such as the US or the EU usually prefer stability over human rights and democracy If democratic movements threaten stability in a region neither the US nor the EU supports them As to illiberal powers they are generally not that different from their democratic counterparts They also prefer stability over turmoil Neither Russia nor China nor Saudi Arabia explicitly promote autocracy Instead they seek to suppress democratic movements in their periphery the minute these groups threaten their security interests or are perceived to endanger their regime survival This was previously published as a special issue of Democratization

South-South Development Peter Kragelund,2019-01-14 South South Development examines the historical background for the current situation why it suddenly took off again approximately a decade ago the various vectors of engagement and how they are interrelated the actors involved how the revitalisation of South South development has affected development cooperation as it was and finally how it affects the rest of the Global South Based on primary research on how Southern actors via investments aid and trade are changing the face of development both in the Global North and the Global South this book contextualises the current debates provides a systematic overview and brings together the key themes in South South development It explains how countries like China India and Brazil are influencing domestic politics in other countries of the Global South how they invest and how their aid alters power structures between new and old donors locally It also explains migration patterns how they use soft power tools and how the global governance system is changing as a result of this This comprehensive and student focused book includes well developed pedagogy such as text boxes chapter summaries key questions bibliography weblinks and annotated further reading This book offers a unique combination of in depth insights and secondary data on South South development presenting a state of the art account of South South development aimed at students as well as practitioners in disciplines as diverse as International Development Studies International Relations Geography Anthropology Global Studies and International Political Economy

Africa's Shadow Rise Doctor Padraig Carmody,Peter Kragelund,Ricardo Reboredo,2020-09-17 For years economists have spoken of Africa rising and despite the global financial crisis Africa continues to host some of the fastest growing economies in the world Africa s Shadow Rise however argues that the continent s apparent economic rise is essentially a mirage driven by developments elsewhere most particularly the expansion in China s economy While many African countries have experienced high rates of growth much of this growth may prove to be unsustainable and has contributed to environmental destruction and worsening inequality across the continent Similarly new economic relationships have produced new forms of dependency as African nations increasingly find themselves tied to the fortunes of China and other emerging powers Drawing on in depth fieldwork in southern Africa Africa s Shadow Rise reveals how the shifting balance of global power is transforming Africa s economy and politics and what this means for the future of development efforts in the region

China and International Security Donovan C. Chau,Thomas M. Kane,2014-04-17 The first work of its kind this strategic assessment of China s national security reveals the nation s intentions capabilities and threats and their implications for the United States and the world As China continues to develop the strategic means to advance its national interests in Asia and around the world assessing its role in international security is the greatest strategic challenge now faced by the United States and its allies China and International Security facilitates this critically important understanding analyzing topics that range from strategic geography and orientation to gender ratios Using detailed case studies and sharing expert insights the work provides historical internal and contemporary analyses that reveal the nature and character of China s national security This three volume set is written for scholars students and policymakers The volumes offer in depth articles penned by intelligence professionals and journalists as well as entries by scholars in fields as diverse as international politics history and strategic studies While other works may attempt to predict the future of China s rise or the nature of China s future bilateral relationships none so thoroughly examines the totality of China s domestic regional and international security and their implications Ugandan Agency within China-Africa

Relations Barney Walsh, 2022-09-22 In this book Barney Walsh presents an in depth study of China s involvement in East Africa through specific focus on President Museveni of Uganda who has been uniquely influential in utilising China s presence to shape regional security dynamics in his favour Focussing primarily on the period 2010-2015 Walsh places the spotlight on the Coalition of the Willing formed between Uganda Kenya and Rwanda who undertook high profile exciting but controversial regional integration projects without Tanzania and Burundi Key to those efforts were Chinese funded mega infrastructure projects such as the Standard Gauge Railway and Uganda s oil pipeline Walsh s analysis of the East African Community EAC reveals China s role in ongoing security issues related to terrorism resulting from the country s role in small arms and light weapons SALW proliferation and the global ivory trade Additionally China is heavily implicated in the region s oil sector as it is a market for oil involved in developing the sector and a key partner in mega infrastructure construction Throughout this though the EAC as an institution has been trying to stabilise regional security dynamics and strengthen its institutional role it has been unduly influenced by the personalities and presence of key African leaders Here Museveni s role in such processes has been crucial as he has made great efforts to utilise Chinese engagement in order to shape regional processes China-Africa and an Economic Transformation Arkebe Oqubay, Justin Yifu Lin, 2019 This volume considers

China Africa relations in the context of a global division of labour and power and through the history and experiences of both China and Africa It examines the core ideas of structural transformation productive investment and industrialization international trade infrastructure development and financing The End of China's Non-Intervention Policy in Africa Obert Hodzi, 2018-10-22 This book gives a compelling analysis and explanation of shifts in China s non intervention policy in Africa Systematically connecting the neoclassical realist theoretical logic with an empirical analysis of China s intervention in African civil wars the volume highlights a methodical interlink between theoretical and empirical analysis that takes into consideration the changing status of rising powers in the global system and its effect on their intervention behaviour Based on field research and expert interviews it provides a rigorous analysis of China's emergent intervention behaviour in some key African conflicts in Libya South Sudan and Mali and broadens the study of external interventions in civil wars to include the intervention behaviour of non Western rising powers Obert Hodzi is Visiting Researcher at the African Studies Center Boston University USA and Postdoctoral Researcher at the University of Helsinki Finland

Chinese State Owned Enterprises in West Africa Katy Ngan Ting Lam, 2016-12-08 This book investigates the globalization process of Chinese state owned enterprises SOEs in West Africa primarily in Benin and Ghana based on ethnographical studies It challenges the dominant vision of a powerful China in Africa and argues that the so called Chinese business advantages monolithic Chinese state and Chinese low cost advantages are non viable for sustaining Chinese business development in the continent Considering the Chinese SOEs globalization process in a relational approach this book examines how the triple embeddedness Chinese African and managerial shapes the Chinese SOEs globalization process over time and space in diverse dimensions and among different entities the Chinese state Chinese SOEs Chinese expatriates the African government African business partners African staff and the African society It illustrates that the Chinese central state has retreated deliberately from its SOE globalization in Africa The Chinese SOEs and Chinese expats are the major actors in initiating and inventing globalization strategies facing limited Chinese state support and the African neopatrimonial governance and social contexts Besides the personal trajectories from expatriation to social promotion of Chinese SOE expats interweave with the globalization turn localization of their SOEs in Africa Rejecting the linear static and binary vision of powerful China in powerless Africa the present study thus emphasizes power dynamics in Chinese SOEs globalization process are organic and pluralistic though in certain extent hierarchical second class Time and local relations are key elements constituting the real Chinese advantages for Chinese SOEs vis a vis their ultimate competitors not Western companies but other Chinese companies

New Actors and Alliances in Development Lisa Ann Richey, Stefano Ponte, 2016-03-17 This collection brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars exploring how development financing and interventions are being shaped by a wider and more complex platform of actors than usually considered in the existing literature The contributors also trace a changing set of key relations and alliances in development those between business and consumers NGOs and celebrities philanthropic organizations and the state diaspora groups and transnational advocacy networks ruling elites and productive capitalists and between new donors and developing country governments Despite the diversity of these actors and alliances several commonalities arise they are often based on hybrid transnationalism and diffuse notions of development responsibility rather than being new per se they are newly being studied as engaging in practices that are now coming to be understood as development and they are limited in their ability to act as agents of development by their lack of accountability or pro poor commitment The articles in this collection point to images and representations as increasingly important in development branding and suggest fruitful new ground for critical development studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly New Directions in Africa-China Studies Chris Alden, Daniel Large, 2018-07-17

Interest in China and Africa is growing exponentially Taking a step back from the events driven reactions characterizing much coverage this timely book reflects more deeply on questions concerning how this subject has been is being and can be studied It offers a comprehensive multi disciplinary and authoritative contribution to Africa China studies Its diverse chapters explore key current research themes and debates such as agency media race ivory development or security using a variety of case studies from Benin Kenya and Tanzania to Angola Mozambique and Mauritius Looking back it explores the evolution of studies about Africa and China Looking forward it explores alternative future possibilities for a complex and constantly evolving subject Showcasing a range of perspectives by leading and emerging scholars New Directions in Africa China Studies is an essential resource for students and scholars of Africa and China relations
