Undeniably Christlike Cheryl Ann Broome, 2015-09-04 From the time we accepted Christ as our personal Savior a marvelous and individual work began within us That work should continue from the time of our commitment to the end of our lives And during this journey there should be some changes within us as well as outside of us Others should be able to recognize a transformation and should be asking What is different about you This transformation includes our will our morals our values our ethics and even our character The transformation that I am speaking of should be reflected in our actions our mannerisms our speech and our attitude The transforming power of Jesus Christ extends to all believers when they become Christians Transformation occurs inwardly and outwardly As an individual grows as a Christian their conduct characters values ethics and morals are profoundly impacted by their intimate relationship with Jesus Christ This work explores various components of Spiritual transformation Whether you are a new or seasoned believer this book explores the various aspects of Discipleship and commitment Beware that if you continue from here you may become dissatisfied with your current relationship with Christ You may be driven to seek something deeper Perhaps you have already been driven to seek a deeper relationship with your Lord and Savior but you were not sure how to go about it Here is your guide It will challenge you strengthen you encourage you uplift you make requirements of you and question your current commitment Embark upon this journey and you will not be disappointed
