Under The Table Saucy Tales From Culinary School:

Under the Table Katherine Darling, 2009-04-14 A deliciously entertaining memoir about one woman's adventures in the student kitchens of the legendary French Culinary Institute flavored with celebrity chefs' eccentric characters and mouthwatering recipes. To anyone who has ever dreamed of life in a French kitchen imagining days filled with puff pastry and sips of vintage wine Katherine Darling serves up a savory dose of reality in this funny, fascinating and altogether delightful account of her time spent slaving over a hot stove wrestling with veal calves and cleaning fish heads at the French Culinary Institute in downtown New York City. As she goes from clueless amateur to certified chef Katherine and her quirky fellow students learn the secrets behind the art of French cooking and frequently find themselves the objects of scorn and ridicule as their teachers wage psychological warfare over steaming pots of bisque. The kitchen they soon discover is no place for soft-hearted romantics. It's a cutthroat world and no one ever made a soufflé without breaking a few eggs or cracking a few heads together. From the basics to the final exam Darling reveals everything that goes into the making of a chef. Filled with delicious food lore and trivia and including dozens of classic and original French recipes Under the Table takes readers deep into the trenches of one of the world's most prestigious cooking schools and shows what really goes on behind the doors of every great restaurant kitchen.

Food Lit Melissa Brackney Stoeger, 2013-01-08 An essential tool for assisting leisure readers interested in topics surrounding food this unique book contains annotations and read-alikes for hundreds of nonfiction titles about the joys of comestibles and cooking. Food Lit: A Reader's Guide to Epicurean Nonfiction provides a much-needed resource for librarians assisting adult readers interested in the topic of food, a group that is continuing to grow rapidly. Containing annotations of hundreds of nonfiction titles about food that are arranged into genre and subject interest categories for easy reference the book addresses a diversity of reading experiences by covering everything from foodie memoirs and histories of food to extreme cuisine and food exposés. Author Melissa Stoeger has organized and described hundreds of nonfiction titles centered on the themes of food and eating including life stories, history, science and investigative nonfiction. The work emphasizes titles published in the past decade without overlooking significant benchmark and classic titles. It also provides lists of suggested read-alikes for those titles and includes several helpful appendices of fiction titles featuring food, food magazines and food blogs.

Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs, autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books

Food and Masculinity in Contemporary Autobiographies Nieves Pascual Soler, 2017-12-12 This book is concerned with food autobiographies written by men from the 1980s to the present It concentrates on how food has transformed autobiographical narratives and how these define the ways men eat and cook nowadays After presenting a historical overview of the place of food within men s autobiography this volume analyzes the reasons for our present interest in food and the proliferation of life narratives focused on cooking Then it centers around the identities that male chefs are taking on in the writing of their lives and the generic models they use the heroic the criminal and the hunting autobiographical scripts This study gives evidence that autobiographies are crucial in the redefinition of the new masculinities emerging in the kitchen It will appeal to readers interested in Food Studies Autobiographical Studies Men s Studies and American Literature and Culture
