Schweiss, 2017-11-30 Many of the US criticisms of Western European reluctance to engage in the 2004 war in Iraq stem from a perception that these governments are weak on defence or unwilling to pull their own weight in the international system Secretary Rumsfeld pejoratively designated traditional Atlantic Alliance allies as Old Europe to distinguish them from the freshly minted cooperative states of New Europe In doing so Rumsfeld accused Old Europe of yet again relying on the United States to solve shared security problems This volume critically evaluates the validity of this view of Western European choices and policies Rather than a primary reliance on military force as first line defence it proposes that Western European governments are expanding the set of tools they have to apply to the post Cold War array of security and defence problems The volume examines the emergent European security approach from multiple perspectives in multiple institutions and identities and in different geographic contexts Governing Human Life Ondrej Ditrych, Constanza Sánchez Avilés, 2023-08-31 This book is a critical analysis tracing the operation of biopolitical mode of power in the global field of drug control Through a series of theoretically framed investigations that relate current drug control policies to the broader frame of vital politics it attends to the relationship of drug control state of exception and democracy exploring how pressures of resurgent sovereignty and neoliberal governmentality imprint on drug policy Then it turns attention to the relationship of power and knowledge with a particular focus on the evidence based approaches that may at times sustain rather than challenge prohibitionist drug control policies Finally it looks at how the global drug control dispositif shapes life on one of

Europe's internal peripheries These investigations are intended to illuminate the operation of the drug control dispositif and its far reaching bio political effects in order to expand the space for devising more competent and compassionate public policies

Guidelines to South American Consumer Protection Laws David B.

Jaffe, Robert G. Vaughn, 1996-02-22 Since 1990 a number of South American countries have either enacted or are in the process of adopting consumer protection statutory provisions. These statutes emphasize consumer transactional law including regulation of the terms of contracts relating to credit and other sales contracts. In addition, these provisions address consumer access to information, product warranties, and redress for injuries caused by defective products. Of particular interest to foreign businesses are the provisions extending these standards to foreign manufacturers and exporters. This book provides both a country-by-country commentary on consumer protection provisions as well as the actual statutes in their original language, accompanied by a side-by-side English translation. South American Consumer Protection Laws is an essential resource for all lawyers, business executives, and consumer affairs consultants who are currently doing business in or planning to export products to South American countries.
