Under A Glass Bell And Other Stories:

Under a Glass Bell and Other Stories Anaïs Nin, 1948 Under a Glass Bell is one of Nin's finest collections of stories. First published in 1944, it attracted the attention of Edmond Wilson, who reviewed the collection in The New Yorker. It was in these stories that Nin's artistic and emotional vision took shape. This edition includes a highly informative and insightful foreword by Gunther Stuhlmann that places the collection in its historical context as well as illuminates the sequence of events and persons recorded in the diary that served as its inspiration. Although Under a Glass Bell is now considered one of Anaïs Nin's finest collections of stories, it was initially deemed unpublishable. Refusing to give up on her vision in 1944, Nin founded her own press and brought out the first edition illustrated with striking black and white engravings by her husband Hugh Guiler. Shortly thereafter it caught the attention of literary critic Edmund Wilson, who reviewed the collection in The New Yorker. The first printing sold out in three weeks. This new Swallow Press edition includes an introduction by noted modernist scholar Elizabeth Podnieks as well as editor Gunther Stuhlmann's erudite but controversial foreword to the 1995 edition. Together they place the collection in its historical context and sort out the individuals and events recorded in the diary that served as its inspiration. The new Swallow Press edition also restores the thirteen stories to the order Nin specified for the first commercial edition in 1948.

Under a glass bell Anaïs Nin, Ian Hugo, 1980 Under a Glass Bell, and Other Stories. With Engravings by Ian Hugo Anaïs Nin, 1968 The Drowned Muse Anne-Gaëlle Saliot, 2015 The Drowned Muse is a study of the extraordinary destiny in the history of European culture of an object which could seem at first glance quite ordinary in the history of European culture. It tells the story of a mask the cast of a young girl's face entitled L'Inconnue de la Seine the Unknown Woman of the Seine and its subsequent metamorphoses as a cultural figure. Legend has it that the Inconnue drowned herself in Paris at the end of the nineteenth century. The forensic scientist tending to her unidentified corpse at the Paris Morgue was supposedly so struck by her allure that he captured in plaster the contours of her face. This unknown girl also called The Mona Lisa of Suicide has since become the object of an obsessive interest that started in the late 1890s, reached its peak in the 1930s and continues to reverberate today. Aby Warburg defines art history as a ghost story for grown-ups. This study is similarly a ghost story for grown-ups narrating the aura of a cultural object that crosses temporal, geographical and linguistic frontiers. It views the Inconnue as a symptomatic expression of a modern world haunted by the earlier modernity of the nineteenth century. It also investigates how the mask's metamorphoses reflect major shifts in the cultural history of the last two centuries, approaching the Inconnue as an entry point to understand a phenomenon characteristic of 20th and 21st century modernity: the translatability of media. Doing so, this study mobilizes discourses surrounding the Inconnue, casting them as points of negotiation through which we may consider the modern age.
