Under a War-Torn Sky L. M. Elliott, 2015-04-04 Wounded and alone behind enemy lines a young pilot must find his way to freedom in this gripping beloved novel When Henry Forester is shot down during a bombing run over France the World War II pilot finds himself trapped behind enemy lines In constant danger of discovery by German soldiers Henry begins a remarkable journey to freedom Relying on the kindness of strangers Henry moves from town to town traveling by moonlight never asking questions or even the names of the people who help him along the way Each day brings him closer to home yet every step in enemy territory invites new dangers Even as Henry fights for his own life he quickly grows to realize the peril that surrounds all of the French people and to admire the courage of the freedom fighters who risk death to protect him Suspenseful and achingly true this critically acclaimed and deeply beloved novel explores the heartbreak of war the strength of human spirit and one young man's struggle to protect the things he loves CMJ New Music Report, 2004-01-05 CMJ New Music Report is the primary source for exclusive charts of non commercial and college radio airplay and independent and trend forward retail sales CMJ's trade publication compiles playlists for college and non commercial stations often a prelude to larger success The Ohio State Engineer, 1941 Billboard, 1996-12-28 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography Henrik Gustafsson, 2019-05-24 This book offers a rare and innovative consideration of an enduring tendency in postwar art to explore places devoid of human agents in the wake of violent encounters To see the scenery together with the crime elicits a double interrogation not merely of a physical site but also of its formation as an aesthetic artefact and ultimately of our own acts of looking and imagining Closely engaging with a vast array of works made by artists filmmakers and photographers each who has forged a distinct vantage point on the aftermath of crime and conflict the study selectively maps the afterlife of landscape in search of the political and ethical agency of the image By way of a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography brings landscape studies into close dialogue with contemporary theory by paying sustained attention to how the gesture of retracing past events facilitates new configurations of the present and future Urban Horror Erin Y. Huang, 2020-02-28 In Urban Horror Erin Y Huang theorizes the economic cultural and political conditions of neoliberal post socialist China Drawing on Marxist phenomenology geography and aesthetics from Engels and Merleau Ponty to Lefebvre and Rancière Huang traces the emergence and mediation of what she calls urban horror a sociopolitical public affect that exceeds comprehension and provides the grounds for possible future revolutionary dissent She shows how documentaries blockbuster feature films and video art from China Hong Kong and Taiwan made between the 1990s and the present rehearse and communicate urban horror In these films urban horror circulates through myriad urban spaces characterized by the creation of speculative crises shifting temporalities and dystopic environments inhospitable to the human body The cinematic image and the aesthetics of urban horror in neoliberal post socialist China lay the groundwork for the future to such an extent Huang contends that the seeds of dissent at the heart of urban horror make it possible to imagine new forms of resistance
