the Russian, Central and East European Past Róisín Healy, 2019-03-07 The new mobilities paradigm which emerged at the beginning of the twenty first century has identified mobility as a process intrinsic to the human experience and fundamental to the formation of social and political structures This volume breaks new ground by demonstrating the role of the journey as a key motor of human development in Russia central and east Europe in the modern period It does so by means of twelve case studies that examine different types of movement both voluntary and involuntary temporary and permanent short and long distance into out of and around the region All this is Your World Anne E.

Gorsuch, 2011-08-11 All this is your World offers an exploration of the revolutionary integration of the Soviet Union into global processes of cultural exchange Anne E Gorsuch examines what it meant to be Soviet in a country no longer defined as Stalinist Discussing Modernity. Dorota Koczanowicz, Leszek Koczanowicz, David Schaufli, 2013 Martin Jay is one of America s leading intellectual historians His work spans almost all important questions concerning the subject of modernity Outstanding Polish scholars engage in a dialogue with Jay s work discussing significant problems of modernity and postmodernity The book offers a broad panorama of contemporary thought approached from various angles It is also a unique exercise of intercultural intellectual dialogue covering many areas from literature to politics The book also includes an essay on photography by Martin Jay and his detailed response to the other contributors which has the character of an extended conversation with them The book can serve as an assessment of the uptake of Jay s ideas and equally well as a general introduction to the genealogy of modernity and postmodernity Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell,2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public

The Socialist Good Life Cristofer Scarboro,Diana Mincyte,Zsuzsu Gille,2020-06-02 First class rigorously researched richly documented and thought provoking essays on the consumer experience in socialist Eastern Europe Graham H Roberts author of Material Culture in Russia and the USSR As communist regimes denigrated Western countries for widespread unemployment and consumer excess socialist Eastern European states simultaneously legitimized their power through their apparent ability to satisfy consumers needs Moving beyond binaries of production and consumption the essays collected here examine the lessons consumption studies can offer about ethnic and national identity and the role of economic expertise in shaping consumer behavior From Polish VCRs to Ukrainian fashion boutiques tropical fruits in the GDR to cinemas in Belgrade The Socialist Good Life explores what consumption means in a worker state where communist ideology emphasizes collective needs over individual pleasures

“The Turk” in the Czech Imagination (1870s-1923) Jitka Malečková,2020-09-29 In The Turk in the Czech Imagination 1870s 1923 Jitka Male kov describes Czechs views of the Turks in the last half century of the existence of the Ottoman Empire and how they were influenced by ideas and trends in other countries including the European fascination with the Orient images of the Turk contemporary scholarship and racial theories The Czechs were not free from colonial ambitions either as their attitude to Bosnia Herzegovina demonstrates but their viewpoint was different from that found in imperial states and among the peoples who had experienced Ottoman rule The book convincingly shows that the Czechs mainly viewed the Turks through the lenses of nationalism and Pan Slavism in solidarity with the Slavs fighting against Ottoman rule

The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century Glennys Young,2011-10-13 Using a source based approach The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century is the first text designed to help students general readers and scholars understand how people constructed Communist ways of life around the world Taking a global approach it extends beyond Russia and Eastern Europe to examine the lives of people in China Korea Vietnam Cambodia Kyrgyzstan Algeria Peru Cuba and elsewhere The book provides an inside look at the Communist experience where people were sometimes simultaneously so enthusiasts reshapers resisters and victims of an ideological project that was and for some still is both humanity s darkest nightmare and brightest hope Since the collapse of Communist regimes beginning in 1989 vital questions about how people subjectively experienced

Communism helped to shape it and constructed an idea of self in such restrictive environments have not lost their political significance In fact just the opposite holds true The opening of many formerly closed Communist archives has given scholars the opportunity to research the political significance that the construction of the self had across Communist regimes polities and movements Incorporating the latest scholarship The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century includes previously unavailable documents such as diaries and letters which are now accessible as a result of the archival revolution A photo essay Everyday Life and Everyday Things under Socialism 1945-1989 uses visual evidence to explore everyday life across the Communist civilizations A locator map at the beginning of each chapter identifies the places associated with each of the sources and a chronology provides a comparative timeline for Communist and world history

Imaging and Mapping Eastern Europe Katarzyna Murawska-Muthesius, 2021-05-10 Imaging and Mapping Eastern Europe puts images centre stage and argues for the agency of the visual in the construction of Europe's east as a socio-political and cultural entity This book probes into the discontinuous processes of mapping the eastern European space and imaging the eastern European body Beginning from the Renaissance maps of Sarmatia Europea it moves onto the images of women in ethnic dress on the pages of travellers reports from the Balkans to cartoons of children bullied by dictators in the satirical press to Cold War cartography and it ends with photos of protesting crowds on contemporary dust jackets Studying the eastern European iconosphere leads to the engagement with issues central for image studies and visual culture word and image relationship overlaps between the codes of othering and self-fashioning as well as interaction between the diverse modes of production specific to cartography travel illustrations caricature and book cover design This book will be of interest to scholars in art history visual culture and central Asian Russian and Eastern European studies
