Writing Outside The Nation By Seyhan Azade 2000 Paperback:

Writing Outside the Nation Azade Seyhan, 2012-01-06 Some of the most innovative writers of contemporary literature are writing in diaspora in their second or third language Here Azade Seyhan describes the domain of transnational poetics they inhabit She begins by examining the works of selected bilingual and bicultural writers of the United States including Oscar Hijuelos Maxine Hong Kingston and Eva Hoffman and Germany Libuse Monkov Rafik Schami and E S Zdamar among others developing a new framework for understanding the relationship between displacement memory and language Considering themes of loss witness translation identity and exclusion Seyhan interprets diasporic literatures as condensed archives of cultural and linguistic memory that give integrity and coherence to pasts ruptured by migration The book next compares works by contemporary Chicana and Turkish German women writers as innovative and sovereign literary voices within the larger national cultures of the United States and Germany Seyhan identifies in American multiculturalism critical clues for analyzing new cultural formations in Europe and maintains that Germany's cultural transformation suggests new ways of reading the American literary mosaic Her approach however extends well beyond these two literatures She creates a critical map of a third geography where a transnational multilingual literary movement is gathering momentum Writing Outside the Nation both contributes to and departs from postcolonial studies in that it focuses specifically on transnational writers working outside of their mother tongue and compares American and German diasporic literatures within a sophisticated conceptual framework It illustrates how literature's symbolic economy can reclaim lost personal and national histories as well as connect disparate and distant cultural traditions

Bangladeshi Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, Md. Mahmudul Hasan, 2024-02-22 This pioneering book brings together several critical essays on Bangladeshi writers in the English language both at home and abroad and interviews with a prominent poet and a novelist The past years have seen various attempts to conceptualize and debate the tradition of Bangladeshi literature in English English has been in Bengal which included the geographical territory that constitutes present day Bangladesh since the arrival of Ralph Fitch in 1583 and although Bengalis started experimenting creatively in the language in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries the tradition suffered significant setbacks in Bangladesh and remained in semi muzzled state for various political and cultural reasons discussed in the book before and after independence However the tradition has seen a surge since the 1990s and several writers have emerged on home soil and in places where Bangladeshis have settled including Australia Canada Sweden the UK and the USA The book provides an overview of this tradition and investigates the various thematic and stylistic issues in the works of the selected writers suggesting the vibrancy and versatility of this evolving national and postcolonial literary stream The book will be of interest to researchers academics and scholars in the field of Bangladeshi writing in English Southeast Asian literature Asian literature diaspora and literary studies The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Postcolonial Writing

Space and Place in Childrens Literature, 1789 to the Present

Maria Sachiko Cecire, Hannah Field, Malini Roy, 2016-03-09 Focusing on questions of space and locale in children's literature this collection explores how metaphorical and physical space can create landscapes of power knowledge and identity in texts from the early nineteenth century to the present The collection is comprised of four sections that take up the space between children and adults the representation of real world places fantasy travel and locales and the physical space of the children's book as object In their essays the contributors analyze works from a range of sources and traditions by authors such as Sylvia Plath Maria Edgeworth Gloria Anzald a Jenny Robson C S Lewis Elizabeth Knox and Claude Ponti While maintaining a focus on how location and spatiality aid in defining the child's relationship to the world the essays also address themes of borders displacement diaspora exile fantasy gender history home leaving and homecoming hybridity mapping and metatextuality With an epilogue by Philip Pullman in which he discusses his own relationship to image and locale this collection is also a valuable resource for understanding the work of this celebrated author of children's literature Creative Lives Chandani Ringrose, Chris Lokuge, 2021-06-15 South Asian Diasporic Writing poetry fiction literary theory and drama by writers from India Pakistan and Sri Lanka now living in the UK Canada Australia New Zealand and the USA is one of the most vibrant areas of contemporary world literature In this volume twelve acclaimed writers from this tradition are interviewed by experts in the field about their political thematic and personal concerns as well as their working methods and the publishing scene The book also includes an authoritative introduction to the field and essays on each writer and interviewer The interviewers and interviewees are Alexandra Watkins Michelle de Kretser Homi Bhabha Klaus Stierstorfer Amit Chaudhuri Pavan Malreddy Rukhsana Ahmad Maryam Mirza Shankari Chandran Birte Heidemann Neel Mukherjee Anjali Joseph Chris Ringrose Michelle Cahill Rajith Savanadasa Mariam Pirbhai Maryam Mirza Mridula Koshy Sehba Sarwar Dr Angela Savage Sulari Gentill The Many Voices of Europe Gisela Brinker-Gabler, Nicole Shea, 2020-01-20 This volume explores the rich evolving body of contemporary cultural practices that reflect on a European project of diversity new dynamics between and across cultures in Europe and its interactions with the world There have been calls across Europe for both traditional national identities and new forms of identity and community assertions of regionalized identity and declarations of multiculturalism and multilingualism These essays respond to this critical moment by analyzing the literature of migration as a re writing of European subjects They ask fundamental questions from a variety of theoretical and critical standpoints How do migrants write new identities into and against old national meta narratives How do they interrogate constructions of identity What kinds of literary experiments are emerging in this unstable context e g in the graphic novel and avant garde film This collection makes a unique contribution to contemporary European literary studies by taking an interdisciplinary transnational and comparative perspective thereby addressing readers from diverse disciplinary backgrounds and stimulating new research on the ambitious writing and thinking taking place across the borders of Europe today Iran Without Borders Hamid Dabashi, 2016-08-09 A history of the cosmopolitan forces that made contemporary Iran No ruling regime writes Hamid Dabashi could ever have a total claim over the idea of Iran as a nation a people For decades the narrative about Iran has been dominated by a false binary in which the traditional ruling Islamist regime is counterposed to a modern population of educated secular urbanites However Iran has for many centuries been a nation forged from a diverse mix of influences most of them non sectarian and cosmopolitan In Iran Without Borders the acclaimed cultural critic and scholar of Iranian history Hamid Dabashi traces the evolution of this worldly culture from the eighteenth century to the present day journeying through social and intellectual movements and the lives of writers artists and public intellectuals who articulated the idea of Iran on a transnational public sphere Many left their homeland either physically or emotionally and imagined it from places as far flung as Istanbul Cairo Calcutta Paris or New York but together they forged a nation as worldly as it is multifarious

The Languages of World Literature Achim Höltzer, 2024-03-04 This volume opens the series of papers presented at the Vienna Congress of AILC ICLA 2016 beginning with eight keynotes Thirty four further papers are dedicated to the central theme of the conference the linguistic side of world literature under different focal points The volume further contains five roundtables the papers of a workshop of the UNESCO memory of the worlds programme a presentation of the avldigital de platform as well as several bibliographically enriched overviews of the special lexicography of comparative literature up to date versions of the ICLA publications and an example of multiple translations of a famous modern classic

A Companion to Translation Studies Sandra Bermann, Catherine Porter, 2014-01-22 This companion offers a wide ranging introduction to the rapidly expanding field of translation studies bringing together some of the best recent scholarship to present its most important current themes Features new work from well known scholars Includes a broad range of geo linguistic and theoretical perspectives Offers an up to date overview of an expanding field A thorough introduction to translation studies for both undergraduates and graduates Multi disciplinary relevance for students with diverse career goals

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2000      Pragmatic Literary Stylistics S. Chapman, B. Clark, 2014-09-02 In considering the ways in which current theories of language in use and communicative processes are applied to the analysis interpretation and definition of literary texts this book sets an agenda for the future of pragmatic literary stylistics and provides a foundation for future research and debate
