Henry,2015-07-07 Excerpt from The Trimmed Lamp And Other Stories of the Four Million OF course there are two sides to the question Let us look at the other We often hear shop girls spoken Of No such persons exist There are girls who work in shops They make their living that way But why turn their occupation into an adjective Let us be fair We do not refer to the girls who live on Fifth Avenue as marriage girls Lou and Nancy were chums They came to the big city to find work because there was not enough to eat at their homes to go around Nancy was nineteen Lou was twenty Both were pretty active country girls who had no ambition to go on the stage The little cherub that sits up aloft guided them to a cheap and respectable boarding house Both found positions and became wage earners They remained chums It is at the end of six months that I would beg you to step forward and be introduced to them Meddlesome Reader My Lady friends Miss Nancy and Miss Lou While you are shaking hands please take notice cautiously of their attire Yes cautiously for they are as quick to resent a stare as a lady in a box at the horse show is About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art
