Tut Application For Postgraduate 2015:

Transdisciplinary Lifecycle Analysis of Systems R. Curran, N. Wognum, M. Borsato, 2015-07-15 Concurrent Engineering CE is based on the premise that different phases of a product's lifecycle should be conducted concurrently and initiated as early as possible within the Product Creation Process PCP. It has become the substantive basic methodology in many industries including automotive aerospace machinery shipbuilding consumer goods process industry and environmental engineering. CE aims to increase the efficiency of the PCP and reduce errors in later phases while incorporating considerations for full lifecycle and through life operations. This book presents the proceedings of the 22nd ISPE Inc International Society for Productivity Enhancement International Conference on Concurrent Engineering CE2015 entitled Transdisciplinary Lifecycle Analysis of Systems and held in Delft the Netherlands in July 2015. It is the second in the series Advances in Transdisciplinary Engineering. The book includes 63 peer reviewed papers and 2 keynote speeches arranged in 10 sections: keynote speeches, systems engineering, customization and variability management, production oriented design, maintenance and repair design, methods and knowledge based engineering, multidisciplinary product management, sustainable product development, service oriented design, product lifecycle management and trends in CE. Containing papers ranging from the theoretical and conceptual to the highly pragmatic, this book will be of interest to all engineering professionals and practitioners, researchers, designers and educators.

Socio-ecological-economic reflections on the impacts of COVID-19 in Africa Willie Chinyamurindi, Philani Moyo, 2025-02-28 This scholarly book magnifies reflections from young scientists in South Africa, Africa and beyond around the COVID 19 pandemic. With contributions by upcoming scientists, this scholarly book provides a synopsis of socio-ecological-economic views on the impact of COVID 19. Through its chapters, the book takes a multidisciplinary approach to reflecting on what it was like to be a scientist during the COVID 19 pandemic. By doing so, each chapter reimagines science from the viewpoint of its discipline, offering insights from the perspective of young scientists that could benefit other scholars, academics and policymakers.

An SPSS Guide for Tourism, Hospitality and Events Researchers Rahul Pratap Singh Kaurav, Dogan Gursoy, Nimit Chowdhary, 2020-12-14 This is the first book to provide the student of tourism, hospitality and events with all that they need to undertake statistical analysis using SPSS for research in their industry. Employing examples directly from the tourism, hospitality and events sector, it provides a comprehensive explanation on how appropriate statistical tools and methods can be identified for this research context and provides a step by step demonstration on how to carry out the chosen statistical operations. Each chapter opens with a sector specific case study reflecting current research trends and issues from a range of different countries that are affecting the industry today. It is followed by an examination of the SPSS procedures relating to the case study and various solutions are offered. The implementation of clear step by step demonstrations on how to carry out statistical operations using a combination of screenshots, diagrams and tables aids the reader's understanding. Chapters close with thorough guidance on how to appropriately write up interpretations of the research in a report Research implications and recommendations for tourism and hospitality businesses are also provided to enable them to successfully create and manage research strategies in action Adopting an interdisciplinary perspective and written by a range of industry experts from all over the globe this book will be essential for all students and researchers in the field of tourism hospitality and events as well as all those in related fields with an interest in statistical data analysis
