Learning Australia, Pauline Savy, 2014 Sociology in Today's World explores why sociology is important and relevant to everyday life. It teaches students how to think sociologically not just what to think and shows how sociology can help us make sense of our lives. It comprehensively covers key aspects and current issues in Australian and New Zealand society whilst emphasising the importance of diversity and a global perspective.

The Bible on Television Helen K. Bond, Edward Adams, 2020-02-06 This volume examines and discusses selected Bible documentaries and academically informed dramatizations of the Bible. With a major focus on recent productions in UK mainline television within the past 15 years the contributors also engage with productions from the USA. After a critical introduction by Helen K Bond charting and reflecting on the use of the Bible on television in recent years the book falls into three sections. First a number of influential filmmakers and producers including Ray Bruce and Jean Claude Bragard discuss their work in relation to the context and constraints of television especially religious television programming. The volume then moves to reflections of various academics who have acted as talking heads, historical consultants and presenters allowing discussion of different aspects of the process including the extent to which they had influence and how their contributions were used. Finally a number of scholars assess the finished products discussing what they tell us about the modern reception of the Bible with additional consideration of how these productions influence biblical scholars and contribute to the scholarly agenda.
