

Twos the Night Before TESTING

Twos the night before TESTING and all through the school,
Not a creature was stirring which was eerie...but cool.

The pencils were sharpened by children with care,
In hopes that this massive test soon would be there.

The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of math problems danced in their heads.

When up on the roof there arose such a clatter,
We sprang from our beds to see what was the matter.

And what to our wondering eyes did appear?
The TESTING fairy holding a pencil in the air!

She spoke of author's purpose, main idea, and inferences galore,
Then waved her pencil and taught us some more.

Perimeter, decimals and word problems too,
Reducing a fraction and what we should do.

She left us with just one more piece of advice,
Believe in ourselves...and that would suffice.

We have practiced, we're smart, and we're ready to go,
Just gather our thoughts and go with the flow.

Tomorrow we'll wake and go take THE TEST,
And we will succeed because we've done our best!
