Vampires in Paradise Maggie Shayne, 2023-01-11 Anna Seville was born the day her doctor told her she was dying She left that appointment devastated And then he came Maybe he was a vision brought on by shock Maybe he was an angel If ever there were a time for an angelic visit this was it She'd come to the pier near the lighthouse stunned by the news He sat on the bench beside her Ethereal he seemed to glow from within His name was Diego and he whispered that she must live her dreams now that it would be a sin to do less He promised he'd see her again when she came Then he vanished and she woke in her own bed with no memory of how she'd got there That encounter changed everything for Anna She sold her house quit her job bought a sailboat and set out to ride the waves It was perfect and blissful and everything she wanted Until a storm came demolishing her boat She's sure it's the end and equally sure she's not ready to die And then he's there again saving her carrying her ashore caring for her Diego is no angel He's a vampire And the last thing he wants is an interloper on his private island He's determined to make her leave But Anna is even more determined to stay the stuff possessed this wonderful property that they were invisible to anyone who was not fit for his office or who was unpardonably stupid Those must indeed be splendid clothes thought the Emperor If I had them on I could find out which men in my kingdom are unfit for the offices they hold I could distinguish the wise from the stupid Yes this cloth must be woven for me at once And he gave both the impostors much money so that they might begin their work They placed two weaving looms and began to do as if they were working but they had not the least thing on the looms They also demanded the finest silk and the best gold which they put in their pockets and worked at the empty looms till late into the night I should like very much to know how far they have got on with the cloth thought the Emperor But he remembered when he thought about it that whoever was stupid or not fit for his office would not be able to see it Now he certainly believed that he had nothing to fear for himself but he wanted first to send somebody else in order to see how he stood with regard to his office Everybody in the whole town knew what a wonderful power the cloth had and they were all curious to see how bad or how stupid their neighbour was I will send my old and honoured minister to the weavers thought the Emperor He can judge best what the cloth is like for he has intellect and no one understands his office better than he Now the good old minister went into the hall where the two impostors sat working at the empty weaving looms Dear me thought the old minister opening his eyes wide I can see nothing But he did not say so Both the impostors begged him to be so kind as to step closer and asked him if it were not a beautiful texture and lovely colours They pointed to the empty loom and the poor old minister went forward rubbing his eyes but he could see nothing for there was nothing there Dear dear thought he can I be stupid I have never thought that and nobody must know it Can I be not fit for my office No I must certainly not say that I cannot see the cloth Have you nothing to say about it asked one of the men who was weaving

Seduced by Twilight Natalie Wilson, 2014-01-10 Stephenie Meyer's Twilight saga has maintained a tight grip on the contemporary cultural imagination This timely and critical work examines how the Twilight series offers addictively appealing messages about love romance sex beauty and body image and how these charged themes interact with cultural issues regarding race class gender and sexuality Through a careful analysis of the texts the fandom and the current socio historical climate this work argues that the success of the Twilight series stems chiefly from Meyer's negotiation of cultural mores
