Twilight Los Angeles 1992 On The Road:

Twilight--Los Angeles, 1992 on the Road Anna Deavere Smith, 1994 Combining Smith's introduction exploring Twilight's evolution from the streets to the stage the complete play script and photos of the author in character Twilight is a captivating work of dramatic literature and a unique first person portrait of a pivotal moment in current history

Documentary and Verbatim Theatre Stuart Young, 2025-12-12 Documentary and Verbatim Theatre surveys the emergence and rise of work based on real life in contemporary theatre exploring the artists methodologies plays and central themes that have characterised its enduring popularity After charting the recent history of modern documentary theatre in the twentieth century and the debates that have surrounded it in the past thirty years each chapter examines in depth key practices such as headphone verbatim and extreme verbatim and practitioners from Anna Deavere Smith and David Hare to The Civilians and DV8 Physical Theatre Practitioners chosen topics playwriting process and engagement with sometimes fraught debates in the field are brought to the fore Focusing on the various dramaturgical and theatrical strategies used to create and stage documentary theatre this book provides a practice centric understanding of some of the principal issues related to the form including the tensions between fidelity to the documentary or verbatim record and the exercise of artistic licence the ethical issues entailed in representing living people the implications for actors and our understanding of acting and our assumptions about aesthetic distancing This is an essential introduction to documentary and verbatim theatre for theatre studies students teachers and scholars as well as theatre practitioners

Worldmaking Dorinne Kondo, 2018-12-06 In this bold innovative work Dorinne Kondo theorizes the racialized structures of inequality that pervade theater and the arts Grounded in twenty years of fieldwork as dramaturg and playwright Kondo mobilizes critical race studies affect theory psychoanalysis and dramatic writing to trenchantly analyze theater's work of creativity as theory acting writing dramaturgy Race making occurs backstage in the creative process and through economic forces institutional hierarchies hiring practices ideologies of artistic transcendence and aesthetic form For audiences the arts produce racial affect structurally over determined ways affect can enhance or diminish life Upending genre through scholarly interpretation vivid vignettes and Kondo's original play Worldmaking journeys from an initial romance with theater that is shattered by encounters with racism toward what Kondo calls reparative creativity in the work of minoritarian artists Anna Deavere Smith David Henry Hwang and the author herself Worldmaking performs the potential for the arts to remake worlds from theater worlds to psychic worlds to worldmaking visions for social transformation

The Melancholy of Race Anne Anlin Cheng, 2001 Cheng proposes that racial identification is itself already a melancholic act a social category that is imaginatively supported through a dynamic of loss and compensation by which the racial other is at once rejected and retained Using psychoanalytic theories on mourning and melancholia as inroads into her subject Cheng offers a closely observed and carefully reasoned account of the minority experience as expressed in works of art by and about Asian Americans and African Americans She argues that the racial minority and dominant American culture both suffer from racial melancholia and that this insight is crucial to a productive reimagining of progressive politics Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2015-04-22 Presents articles on feminist literature including significant authors themes and history Documentary Theatre and Performance Andy Lavender,2024-07-25 What distinguishes documentary theatre from other forms of drama How has it integrated different media across the years and to what effect What is its relationship to truth and reality and defining moments of civic unrest and political change In this short authoritative book Andy Lavender surveys a century of documentary theatre and performance and analyses key productions Arranged in 3 sections that take a broadly chronological approach the volume considers the nature of documenting forms of intervention through theatre the presentation of lived experience and issues of truth reality and representation The book includes a variety of case studies beginning with Piscator's In Spite of Everything 1925 and tracing the work that followed in Europe and America including the tribunal and testimony plays of the 1990s and 2000s It examines the relationship of 3 key productions to moments of civic and political crisis Fires in the Mirror Crown Heights Brooklyn and Other Identities 1992 Twilight Los Angeles 1992 1993 and The Colour of Justice The Stephen Lawrence Enquiry 1999 Finally it looks at the impact of digital technologies social media and hybrid artforms in the 21st century to explore the engagement of documentary performance with mediations and experiences of cultural change and shifting identities across a range of case studies Private Needs, Public Selves John K. Roth,1997 Polls through the 90s show that many Americans believe the nation is in a period of spiritual decline yet public religious display and discussion often is deemed politically incorrect Philosopher John K Roth feels that more outward sharing of religious beliefs thoughts and ideas would bridge the gap between our private needs and our public selves and would give Americans of differing faiths a common identity The History of Forgetting Norman M. Klein,2020-05-05 Los Angeles is a city which has long thrived on the continual re creation of own myth In this extraordinary and original work Norman Klein examines the process of memory erasure in LA Using a provocative mixture of fact and fiction the book takes us on an anti tour of downtown LA examines life for Vietnamese immigrants in the City of Dreams imagines Walter Benjamin as a Los Angeleno and finally looks at the way information technology has recreated the city turning cyberspace into the last suburb In this new edition Norman Klein examines new models for erasure in LA He explores the evolution of the Latino majority how the Pacific economy is changing the structure of urban life the impact of collapsing infrastructure in the city and the restructuring of those very districts that had been forgotten Spirited Minds Archie Givens,1997 Descriptions of more than one hundred outstanding selections for readers of all ages fiction poetry biography autobiography folk tales drama and history that celebrate the African American male experience from childhood to adulthood Dust jacket Shakespeare and the Authority of Performance William B. Worthen,1997-09-25 How the idea of Shakespearean authority is still invested in the activities of directing acting and scholarship A Sourcebook on Feminist Theatre and Performance Carol Martin,2002-09-11 This outstanding collection includes key texts by theorists such as Elin Diamond Peggy Phelan and Lynda Hart and interviews with practitioners including Anna Deavere Smith and Robbie McCauley Acting (Re)Considered Phillip B. Zarrilli, 2005-06-28 Acting Re Considered is an exceptionally wide ranging collection of theories on acting ideas about body and training and statements about the actor in performance This second edition includes five new essays and has been fully revised and updated with discussions by or about major figures who have shaped theories and practices of acting and performance from the late nineteenth century to the present The essays by directors historians actor trainers and actors bridge the gap between theories and practices of acting and between East and West No other book provides such a wealth of primary and secondary sources bibliographic material and diversity of approaches It includes discussions of such key topics as how we think and talk about acting acting and emotion the actor's psychophysical process the body and training the actor in performance non Western and cross cultural paradigms of the body training and acting Acting Re Considered is vital reading for all those interested in performance Troubling Beginnings Maurice Stevens, 2004-06-01 This interdisciplinary and creative study examines how African American culture is presented in American films and other media and is a provocative re reading of the historiography of black culture The author examines and interprets a number of cultural texts deriving memory as interpreted by Freud and by Franz Fanon mixed with Black Liberation Theology and Islamic mysticism

Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,1997 African American Dramatists Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2004-10-30 Despite their significant contributions to the American theater African American dramatists have received less critical attention than novelists and poets This reference offers thorough critical assessments of the lives and works of African American playwrights from the 19th century to the present The book alphabetically arranges entries on more than 60 dramatists including James Baldwin Arna Bontemps Ossie Davis Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the playwright's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume closes with a selected general bibliography African American dramatists have made enormous contributions to the theater and their works are included in numerous editions and anthologies Some of the most popular plays of the 20th century have been written by African Americans and high school students and undergraduates study their works But for all their popularity and influence African American playwrights have received less critical attention than poets and novelists This reference offers thorough critical assessments of more than 60 African American dramatists from the 19th century to the present Whispers on the Color Line Gary Alan Fine, Patricia A. Turner, 2023-09-01 Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys and candy teenagers share stories about sex drugs and rock and roll young professionals commiserate over the hazards of the work world These stories address aspects of life about which we receive mixed or ambiguous messages Given that matters relevant to race remain confused and divisive in many corridors of American society it is not surprising that rumors and legends that reflect racial misunderstanding and mistrust frequently circulate Whispers on the Color Line focuses on a wide array of tales told in black and white communities across America Topics run the gamut from alleged governmental conspiracies possible food tampering gang violence and the sex lives of celebrities Such beliefs travel by word of mouth in print and increasingly over the Internet In many instances these stories reflect the tenacious level of racial misunderstanding that continues to vex efforts to foster racial harmony creating separate racialized pools of knowledge The authors have spent over twenty years collecting and analyzing rumors and contemporary legends from the ever durable Kentucky Fried Rat cycle to persistent beliefs about athletic footwear manufacturers and their support for white supremacist regimes These implausible stories serve many purposes they assuage anxieties entertain friends increase our sense of control all without directly proclaiming our own attitudes Fine and Turner consider how these tales reflect attitudes that blacks and whites have both about each other and about the world they face In an engaging and penetrating narrative they brilliantly demonstrate how by transforming unacceptable impulses into a narrative that is claimed to have actually happened we are able to express the inexpressible Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys a Orozco's American Epic Mary K. Coffey, 2020-02-28 Between 1932 and 1934 Jos Clemente Orozco painted the twenty four panel mural cycle entitled The Epic of American Civilization in Dartmouth College s Baker Berry Library An artifact of Orozco s migration from Mexico to the United States the Epic represents a turning point in his career standing as the only fresco in which he explores both US American and Mexican narratives of national history progress and identity While his title invokes the heroic epic form the mural indicts history as complicit in colonial violence It questions the claims of Manifest Destiny in the United States and the Mexican desire to mend the wounds of conquest in pursuit of a postcolonial national project In Orozco s American Epic Mary K Coffey places Orozco in the context of his contemporaries such as Diego Rivera and David Alfaro Siqueiros and demonstrates the Epic s power as a melancholic critique of official indigenism industrial progress and Marxist messianism In the process Coffey finds within Orozco s work a call for justice that resonates with contemporary debates about race immigration borders and nationality A Place at the Nayarit Natalia Molina, 2024-02-13 In 1951 Do na Natalia Barraza opened the Nayarit a Mexican restaurant in Echo Park Los Angeles With A Place at the Nayarit historian Natalia Molina traces the life s work of her grandmother remembered by all who knew her as Do na Natalia a generous reserved and extraordinarily capable woman Do na Natalia immigrated alone from Mexico to L A adopted two children and ran a successful business She also sponsored housed and employed dozens of other immigrants encouraging them to lay claim to a city long characterized by anti Latinx racism Together the employees and customers of the Nayarit maintained ties to their
