Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson, 2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelists The Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers Ian McEwan David Mitchell Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms realist apostmodernist ahistorical and apostcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell Sarah Hall A L Kennedy Alan Warner Ali Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Kate Atkinson Salman Rushdie Adam Foulds Sarah Waters James Robertson Mohsin Hamid Andrea Levy and Aminatta Forna Re-Shaping Culture and Identity in Postcolonial Fiction: Salman Rushdie and Abdulrazak Gurnah Şennur Bakırtaş, 2023-02-07 One of the most fascinating rapidly developing and difficult areas of literary and cultural studies today is postcolonialism Focused on postcolonialism and designed especially for those studying postcolonial studies Re Shaping Culture and Identity in postcolonial Fiction Salman Rushdie and Abdulrazak Gurnah introduces key subject areas of concern such as culture and identity in a clear accessible and organised fashion It provides an overview of the development of postcolonialism as a discipline and takes a close look at its important authors Salman Rushdie and Abdulrazak Gurnah and their selected oeuvres Fury Midnight s Children By the Sea and Memory of Departure With a palimpsestic analysis of culture and identity as crucial features of postcolonial texts Re Shaping Culture and Identity in postcolonial Fiction Salman Rushdie and Abdulrazak Gurnah argues how postcolonialism functions in allowing the formation of a new perspective on the contemporary world Besides it offers an alternative perspective on their works one that promotes the importance of the issue of postcolonial agency This book will prove invaluable to anyone studying English Language and Literature Migration Studies and Cultural Studies

Contents Introduction the borders of culture and identity A critical approach to culture and identity under the light of postcolonial theory The contributions of Abdulrazak Gurnah and Salman Rushdie to postcolonial literature Non homes in postcolonial culture Un belonging postcolonial identity Conclusion towards a new understanding of culture and identity Bibliography Library of Congress Magazine ,2017-07 Nobel Prize in Literature: a case for India Professor AK Ghosh, 2024-09-05 Indian sub continental writers of English fiction have always been confronted with onerous choices Inheritors of literary tradition riddled with regional and linguistic finitude the mere choice of a proper name hopelessly parochialize their stories Many critics wonder why such writers did not write in their regional languages the answer to which is that that would invite self exile from the common market of world literature Translations even the best of them remain surrogate It is therefore all the more satisfying that during the recent decades writers born on the subcontinent like Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Vikram Seth Amitav Ghosh and others have leaped into mainstream English fiction and elicited critical acclaim Indian writers in English despite being largely confined to a small typical Indian backwater perhaps because of it have attracted a good deal of attention here and abroad They have brought to Indian literature a style and feel a conviction and maturity all its own We have started feeling like heading for a modern reconstituted Indian sensibility But after a long gap of Rabindranath Tagore s success we may ask ourselves as to why Indians cannot write great literature Perhaps Matthew Arnold s phrase lack of epochal significance applies to the literary works emerging from our soil Can we claim honestly that we have produced a single author who could match the great masters of Western literature A Flaubert A Faulkner Joyce A Tolstoy Adult Learning in a Migration Society Chad Hoggan, Tetyana Hoggan-Kloubert, 2021-12-29

Migration is an old perhaps perpetual phenomenon Currently it is an urgent challenge involving huge numbers of people who leave their home in search of a better life Differences in language customs and norms are often joined by specific manifestations of xenophobia born of particular differences between host countries and their current influx of migrants In a pronounced way then migration reveals important societal questions of solidarity of identity of transition and transformation of human rights and obligations The explorations in this collection highlight individual stories of migrants showcase innovative research methods and explore concepts and theories that might be usefully applied toward learning needs in a migration society Including insights from scholars across 14 different countries this book offers an international perspective on the role of adult education in addressing migration Such international comparisons hold great potential for seeing new possibilities in any single country whether in Europe North America or across the world

Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater

Rushdie's Cross-Pollinations Dana Bădulescu, 2022-01-12 This book is a literary journey through Salman Rushdie's cross pollinated gardens showing that the metaphor of reading as a quest is essential to Rushdie's writing It invites scholars and students interested in postcolonialism postmodernism transculturalism and the global novel to explore the many facets of Rushdie's novels and collections of essays The journey starts from Rushdie's sorcery with language and it continues with his appraisal of Joyce's legacy The reader will also find an analysis of the dark season of the fatwa as well as the lush sensuality of the body and aestheticized Eros in The Moor's Last Sigh The Ground Beneath Her Feet Fury Shalimar the Clown and The Enchantress of Florence The book further explores the liquid bridges the postmodernist twist and postcolonial satire in Rushdie's fiction After providing a sense of Rushdie's novel of disorientation and New York the book finishes by exploring Rushdie's Quichotte published in 2019 an epitome of the global novel that revisits and translates Cervantes's Don Quixote de la Mancha for readers addicted to TV and the Internet

Salman Rushdie in Context Florian Stadler, 2023-03-30 Salman Rushdie in Context discusses Rushdie's life and work in the context of the multiple geographies he has inhabited and the wider socio cultural contexts in which his writing is emerging published and read This book reveals the evolving political trajectory around transnationalism multiculturalism and its discontents so prominently engaged with by Salman Rushdie in relation to South Asia its diasporas Britain and the USA in the late twentieth and early twenty first century Focused on the aesthetic biographical cultural creative historical and literary contexts of his works the book reveals his deep engagement with processes of decolonization emergent nationalisms in South Asia Europe and the USA and diasporic identity constructions and how they have been affected by globalisation The book traces how through his fiction and non fiction Rushdie has profoundly shaped the discussion of important questions of global citizenship and migration that continue to resonate today Terrorism in Literature Bootheina Majoul,2019-08-13 This volume celebrates literature as a strong subversive tool as an alternative for change through an exploration of terrorism in various literary works It brings together scholars from all over the world including Algeria Argentina Australia Cameroon Denmark India Italy Tunisia Turkey and the USA to offer their insights As readers themselves they share an eagerness to understand the psychopathological personalities circulating among us They urge the reader to dig deep into literature to think to cogitate and to learn One of the most important literary figures dealing with terrorism in his novels is the internationally acclaimed Indian writer Tabish Khair who generously wrote the foreword to this volume He sheds light on the possibilities offered by literature as a means of dissent and a powerful tool for truth telling Voltaire Nicholas Cronk,2017 This Very Short Introduction examines Voltaire s 1694 1778 remarkable life and career Exploring his most important writings the impact his work had on our understanding of the European Enlightenment and his status as a literary celebrity at the time Nicholas Cronk considers his continued relevance in literature politics and philosophy The Influence of the 9/11 novel on Muslim Writing Matthias Dickert,2017-10-11 Scientific Essay from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz language English abstract Since 9 11 many Muslims struggle with their identity and are exposed to xenophobia violence vicious defamation harassment or displacement In short the notion Muslim in relation to that day has become a stigma It is against this background and the post traumatic aftermath of September 11 2001 where many novelists disposing of a Muslim background wrote their novels The logical consequence from this was that Muslim writing as such has become more complex stressing the standpoints of hearer and teller as elements of distortion Interesting though is the fact that some novels dealing with Islam and Muslim characters have taken up and used the Oriental stereotypes where Muslims are according to Said seen as either oil suppliers or potential terrorists For a long time Muslim characters in literature have been connected to this negative image which Said also labels as other and Spivak as subaltern The hybrid in which many Muslim characters are often set is also still equated with the exotic thus ignoring the energy of Bhabha s term and its positive realizations in fiction It is therefore one aim of this essay to throw light on this matter and to shortly reflect the present influence of 9 11 on Muslim writing (Free Sample) Year Book 2017 English Disha Experts,2017-08-29 Free Sample Year Book 2017 English The Ethics of Survival in Contemporary Literature and Culture Rudolf Freiburg,Gerd Bayer,2021-12-14 The Ethics of Survival in Contemporary Literature and Culture delves into the complex problems involved in all attempts to survive The essays analyze survival in contemporary prose narratives short stories poems dramas and theoretical texts but also in films and other modes of cultural practices Addressing diverse topics such as memory and forgetting in Holocaust narratives stories of refugees and asylum seekers and representations of war the ethical implications involved in survival in texts and media are brought into a transnational critical discussion The volume will be of potential interest to a wide range of critics working on ethical issues the body and the politics of art and literature Global Migrancy and Diasporic Memory in the work of Salman Rushdie Stephen J.

Bell,2020-10-14 Global Migrancy and Diasporic Memory in the Work of Salman Rushdie examines Salman Rushdie s major works for the ways that they consistently affirm the power of memory to construct a concrete rooted identity for characters and nation states despite the prerogative of migrants to translate themselves into new creations through a dismissal of the weight of the past Stephen J Bell conducts an in depth comprehensive postcolonial and postmodern analysis of Rushdie s ideas as expressed through the author s work If exile is a dream of glorious return as one of his characters reflects in The Satanic Verses few diasporic writers living today rival Rushdie for the singular inspiration he draws from memories of home and the past So vital is the idea of home and belonging to Rushdie that notwithstanding the frequent charges of his critics that he represents no more than a disconnected cosmopolitan Bell would categorize Rushdie s position as one of centripetal migrancy with centrum center and petere to seek forming the idea of a constant quest for the center Rushdie thus qualifies as the quintessential centripetal migrant whose slippery critical location is balanced Janus faced between the future and the past Salman Rushdie and the Genesis of Secrecy Vijay Mishra,2019-05-16

Salman Rushdie and the Genesis of Secrecy is the first book to draw extensively from material in the Salman Rushdie archive at Emory University to uncover the makings of the British Indian writer s modernist poetics Simultaneously connecting Rushdie with radical non Western humanism and an essentially English European sensibility and therefore questions about world literature this book argues that a true understanding of the writer lies in uncovering his genesis of secrecy through a close reading of his archive Topics and materials explored include unpublished novels plays and screenplays the earlier versions and drafts of Midnight s Children and its adaptations understanding Islam and The Satanic Verses the influence of cinema and Rushdie s turn to earlier archives as the secret codes of modernism Through careful examination of Rushdie s archive Vijay Mishra demonstrates how Rushdie combines a radically new form of English with a familiarity with the generic registers of Indian Arabic and Persian literary forms Together these present a contradictory orientalism that defines Rushdie s own humanism within the parameters of world literature Salman Rushdie and Postcolonial Authorship Trajanka Kortova

Jovanovska,2023-12-07 The main focus of interest in this book are the figures of writers and writing subjects in Rushdie s oeuvre who contemplate and reflect on the nature and purpose of their craft their authorial identity and their positioning in society and intellectual history through their writing It discusses the aesthetics of the texts they produce and their subsequent agency in the world through the various ways they are interpreted and appropriated Authorship is a special category of storytelling a specific craft and vocation giving expression to a conscious and purposeful project The book focuses on what postcolonial literature specialist Dr Jane Poyner calls the ethics of intellectual practice as the major theme pervading Rushdie s entire corpus of writing fictional essayistic and autobiographical The key audience for the book is primarily students of postcolonial literature and of Salman Rushdie s work in particular It will also be of interest to readers wishing to get a deep insight into the works of one of the most prominent and most controversial contemporary writers

The Late-Career

Novelist Hywel Dix, 2017-08-10 The first scholarly study of the phenomenon of the late career novel this book explores the ways in which bestselling contemporary novelists look back and respond to their earlier successes in their subsequent writings Exploring the work of major novelists such as Angela Carter V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie Ian McEwan Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Graham Swift The Late Career Novelist draws for the first time on social psychology and career construction theory to examine how the dynamics of a literary career play out in the fictional worlds of our best known novelists From here Hywel Dix develops and argues for a new mode of reading contemporary writing on the contexts of current literary culture
