Popular Adventure Tales Томас Майн Рид,2021-12-02 The Revenge of the Philistines

Hilton Kramer,1985 Kramer former New York Times art critic has assembled a collection of his reviews along with a smattering of essays In his hymn to New York's renovated Museum of Modern Art he notes that its formalist outlook tends to lead to a false sense of orthodoxy Yet these reviews which rigorously apply his own formalist standards of what constitutes modern art miss out on much of what is vital and meaningful in today's highly variegated art scene Kramer is appalled by political art most of which he argues lacks artistic merit he doubts whether any great art can be political In surveying the 80s rebirth of realism he reassures us that many new realists are not antimodernist or antiabstractionist One piece agonizes over whether Saul Steinberg should be considered an artist A somewhat condescending essay on Max Ernst sets him above the muddled narcissism said to mar many other surrealists Other subjects range from Rodin to Walker Evans selections were culled from the New York Times New Criterion which Kramer edits Commentary and elsewhere Publishers Weekly via amazon com
