Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities

Urban Transport XXI C.A. Brebbia, J.L. Miralles i Garcia, V. de Esteban Chapapria, 2015-06-02 Urban Transport XXI contains the proceedings of the 21st International Conference on Urban Transport and the Environment The series of annual conferences organised by the Wessex Institute was first held in 1995 Transportation in urban areas with its related environmental and social impacts is a topic of significant concern for policymakers in both municipal and central government and for the urban citizens who need effective and efficient transport systems Urban transport systems require considerable studies to devise and then safeguard their operational use maintenance and safety Transportation systems produce significant environmental impacts and can enhance or degrade the quality of life in urban centres Clearly the challenge of providing effective and efficient transport systems in urban settings remains an acute concern with financial political and environmental constraints limiting the ability of transport system planners and operators to deliver the high quality outcomes expected by the public Papers cover such topics as Urban Transport Planning and Management Urban Transport Strategies Public Transport Systems Environmental Aspects Economic and Social Impact Safety and Security Travel Behaviour Studies Customer Satisfaction Transportation Modelling and Simulation Infrastructure Development Intelligent and Advanced Transport Systems Transportation Integration City Logistics Resilience and Inter modal Transport Systems Mass Transport Strategies Social Impacts Freight Transport Railway Systems Transport Governance and Administration Port and City Mobility and Public Space Life Cycle Management Handbook of Research on Administration, Policy, and Leadership in Higher Education Mukerji, Siran, Tripathi, Purnendu, 2016-09-27 The creation of a sustainable and accessible higher education systems is a pivotal goal in modern society Adopting strategic frameworks and innovative techniques allows institutions to achieve this objective The Handbook of Research on Administration Policy and Leadership in Higher Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on contemporary management issues in educational

Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald, 2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO's ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Es'kia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature's place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today

The Changing Space Economy of City-Regions Koech Cheruiyot, 2017-10-30 This book addresses the South African Space Economy and its stark disparities and dualisms through an assessment of the Gauteng City Region the largest economic agglomeration in the country and on a continent bedevilled by a myriad of development challenges The book's focus on understanding the overall character of Gauteng City Region's Space Economy through data mining analysis and mapping comprehensively supplements the Space Economy literature on the region It covers the disparities exacerbated by an overlay of apartheid planning ideology and top down regional development based on selective encouragement of manufacturing investments in growth points or poles and how implementation of past policies intended to cure these disparities have yielded mixed results This book further offers the Gauteng City Region as a microcosm of the national economy in the form of evident significant placed based variations in the intensity and character of economic structure that on the one hand enjoys massive agglomeration economies while on the other has high levels of poverty and large numbers of people living below the Minimum Living Level This book should appeal to urban studies specialists economists and development studies researchers in the Global South
