constituent parts sound different from each other. There is the sound of the singing men and their choir teams they are called in preparation for the longstanding annual Malay choral competitions. The lyrics from the various repertoires they perform are hardly ever written down. There are texts of the hallowed Dutch songs but these do not circulate easily and widely. Researchers dream of finding lyrics from decades ago not to mention a few generations ago back to the early 19th century. This work by Denis Constant Martin and Armelle Gaulier provides us with a very useful selection of these songs. More than that it is a critical sociological reflection of the place of these songs and their performers in the context that have given rise to them and sustains their relevance. It is a necessary work and is a very important scholarly intervention about a rather neglected aspect of the history and present production of music in the city.

Unsettled History Leslie Witz, Gary Minkley, Ciraj Rassool, 2017-02-27. An engrossing look at how history has been produced, contested and unsettled in South Africa from Mandela's release to 2010.

Flight of the Diamond Smugglers Matthew Gavin Frank, 2021-02-23. Unforgettable. An outstanding adventure in its lyrical, utterly compelling and heartbreaking investigations of the world of diamond smuggling. Aimee Nezhukumatathil. For nearly eighty years a huge portion of coastal South Africa was closed off to the public. With many of its pits now deemed overmined and abandoned. American journalist Matthew Gavin Frank sets out across the infamous Diamond Coast to investigate an illicit trade that supplies a global market. Immediately he became intrigued by the ingenious methods used in facilitating smuggling, particularly the illegal act of sneaking carrier pigeons onto mine property, affixing diamonds to their feet and sending them into the air. Entering Die Sperrgebiet, The Forbidden Zone, is like entering an eerie ghost town, but Frank is surprised by the number of people willing, even eager, to talk with him. Soon he meets Msizi, a young diamond digger, and his pigeon Bartholomew, who helps him steal diamonds. It's a deadly game; pigeons are shot on sight by mine security, and Msizi knows of smugglers who have disappeared because of their crimes. For this, Msizi blames Mr. Lester, an evil, tall tale figure of mythic proportions. From the mining towns of Alexander Bay and Port Nolloth through the halfway desert to Kleinsee's shores littered with shipwrecks, Frank investigates a long overlooked story. Weaving interviews with local diamond miners who raise pigeons in secret with harrowing anecdotes from former heads of security, environmental managers and vigilante pigeon hunters, Frank reveals how these feathered bandits became outlaws in every mining town. Interwoven throughout this obsessive quest are epic legends in which pigeons and diamonds intersect, such as that of Krishna's famed diamond Koh-i-Noor, the Mountain of Light, and that of the Cherokee serpent Uktena. In these strange connections where truth forever tangles with the lore of centuries past, Frank is able to contextualize the personal grief that sent him, with his wife Louisa, in the passenger seat on this enlightening journey across parched lands. Blending elements of reportage, memoir and incantation, Flight of the Diamond Smugglers is a rare and remarkable portrait of exploitation and greed in one of the most dangerous areas of coastal South Africa. With his sovereign prose and insatiable curiosity, Matthew Gavin Frank reminds us that the world is a place of wonder if only we look. Toby Muse.
