Business and Society Danica Purg, Alenka Braček Lalić, Jennifer A. Pope, 2018-06-26 The world of business is constantly evolving and management education institutions will likely face a number of challenges in keeping up with these changes While most books focus on the needs of management education institutions this work addresses the needs of the corporate world in the era of the Fourth Industrial Revolution Featuring an extensive research study spanning 11 countries it offers a unique perspective on the business challenges and developmental needs of companies in emerging and recently emerged economies and on the missing links between those needs and management education Using both company specific and country level data the book provides businesses and educators with rare insights and recommendations on strengthening existing partnerships or establishing them anew between management education institutions and the corporate sector in order to make management education relevant for the 21st century The book argues that relevance should take the center stage of all higher education institutions in order to accomplish their third mission namely service to society This is especially important for management education institutions whose mission is to mold future managers and leaders who can have a significant influence on economic success and the wellbeing of society

A Companion to Feminist Art Hilary Robinson, Maria Elena Buszek, 2019-06-27 Original essays offering fresh ideas and global perspectives on contemporary feminist art The term feminist art is often misused when viewed as a codification within the discipline of Art History a codification that includes restrictive definitions of geography chronology style materials influence and other definitions inherent to Art Historical and museological classifications Employing a different approach A Companion to Feminist Art defines art as a dynamic set of material and theoretical practices in the realm of culture and feminism as an equally dynamic set of activist and theoretical practices in the realm of politics Feminist art therefore is not a simple classification of a type of art but rather the space where feminist politics and the domain of art making intersect The Companion provides readers with an overview of the developments concepts trends influences and activities within the space of contemporary feminist art in different locations ways of making and ways of thinking Newly commissioned essays focus on the recent history of and current discussions within feminist art Diverse in scope and style these contributions range from essays on the questions and challenges of large sectors of artists such as configurations of feminism and gender in post Cold War Europe to more focused conversations with women artists on Afropean decoloniality Ranging from discussions of essentialism and feminist aesthetics to examinations of political activism and curatorial practice the Companion informs and questions readers introduces new concepts and fresh perspectives and illustrates just how much more there is to discover within the realm of feminist art Addresses the intersection between feminist thinking and major theories that have influenced art theory Incorporates diverse voices from around the world to offer viewpoints on global feminisms from scholars who live and work in the regions about which they write Examines how feminist art intersects with considerations of collectivity war maternal relationships desire men and relational aesthetics Explores the myriad ways in which the experience of inhabiting and perceiving aged raced and gendered bodies relates to feminist politics in the art world Discusses a range practices in feminism such as activism language education and different ways of making art The intersection of feminist art making and feminist politics are not merely components of a unified whole they sometimes diverge and divide A Companion to Feminist Art is an indispensable resource for artists critics scholars curators and anyone seeking greater strength on the subject through informed critique and debate

Research Handbook on Quality, Performance and Accountability in Higher Education Ellen Hazelkorn, Hamish Coates, Alexander C. McCormick, 2018-07-27 As higher education becomes a key determinant for economic competitiveness institutions face increasing pressure to demonstrate their fitness to meet the needs of society and individuals Blending innovative research with richly contextualised examples this unique Research Handbook provides authoritative insights from around the globe on how best to understand assess and improve quality performance and accountability in higher education Disclosure Within HIV-Affected Families Grace Gachanja, Gary J. Burkholder, Aimee Ferraro, 2018-08-29 While HIV AIDS is a global public health challenge its impact is arguably greatest in the Sub Saharan Africa SSA where new infections account for approximately 66% of the total number of HIV positive persons globally In SSA medical social and economic resources are limited thus necessitating innovative approaches to disease prevention One of the mechanisms of prevention that is most promising occurs through HIV disclosure to family members e.g. adult sexual partners generally and to children in particular Our emphasis in this eBook is on HIV disclosure to children because it has multiple benefits including improved adherence to antiretroviral medication treatment and understanding at an early age of the impact of sexual activity on the spread of HIV While there is a noticeable gap in research on HIV disclosure to younger children some of the general reasons for non disclosure include concerns about fear of adult partners leaving relationships and that children are too young to comprehend the severity of the situation and may tell others outside the family Thus it is critical to better understand how the HIV disclosure process happens or does not happen within HIV affected families as well as the best practices on how to disclose In this eBook we present a combination of empirical research studies and critical literature reviews that investigate the reasons for and for not disclosing HIV status within HIV affected families and provide evidence based practices that could be adopted by healthcare professionals to help HIV positive parents facilitate disclosure activities within these families This information can also be used by researchers practitioners and stakeholders who are in a position to influence policies on effective HIV disclosure practices guidelines and programs

Challenging the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) Movement Ronnie Fraser, Lola Fraser, 2023-02-13 Challenging the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS Movement focuses on the efforts to oppose antisemitism the academic boycott and the BDS movement The State of Israel has faced many threats most of them military since it was established in 1948 but the threat posed by the NGO forum at the United Nations World Conference against Racism in Durban South Africa in August 2001 was different The forum unleashed the new antisemitism which targeted the State of Israel as well as a non violent civil society based campaign based on the South African anti apartheid campaign of the 1980s which was to form the basis of the international Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS movement directed at the State of Israel Featuring case studies from the United States Great Britain Israel and South Africa each chapter of this wide ranging volume discusses examples of opposition to the divisive BDS campaign and the proposed academic boycott of Israel over the last two decades including the fight for formal recognition of the new antisemitism by governments and international bodies and the use of a variety of legal measures The rise of antisemitism within academia and wider society is also examined This book will be vital reading for students scholars and activists with an interest in social movements Israel and Middle East politics and history Knowledge and Civil Society Johannes Glückler, Heinz-Dieter Meyer, Laura Suarsana, 2021-12-08 This open access book focuses on the role of civil society in the creation dissemination and interpretation of knowledge in geographical contexts It offers original interdisciplinary and counterintuitive perspectives on civil society The book includes reflections on civil and uncivil society the role of civil society as a change agent and on civil society perspectives of undone science Conceptual approaches go beyond the tripartite division of public private and civic sectors to propose new frameworks of civic networks and philanthropic fields which take an inclusive view of the connectivity of civic agency across sectors This includes relational analyses of epistemic power in civic knowledge networks as well as of regional giving and philanthropy The original empirical case studies examine traditional forms of civic engagement such as the German landwomen s associations as well as novel types of organizations such as giving circles and time banks in their geographical context The book also offers insider reflections on doing civil society such as the cases of the Umbrella Movement in Hong Kong epistemic activism in the United States and the FeesMustFall movement in South Africa
