Unraveling Reweaving Africana Womanhood Feminist:

Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in Africana Womanhood Rose Mary Amenga-Etego, Rosetta E. Ross, 2015-12-15
In this collection continental and diasporan African women interrogate the concept sacred text and analyze ways oral and written religious texts intersect with violence against African descended women and girls While the sanctioned idea of a sacred text is written literature this project interrupts that conception by drawing attention to speech and other embodied practices that have sacral authority within the social imaginary As a volume focused on religion and violence essays in this collection analyze religions authorization of violence against women and girls contest the legitimacy of some religious texts and affirm other writing especially memoir as redemptive Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in Africana Womanhood arises from three years of conversation of continental and diasporan women most recently continued in the July 6 10 2014 Consultation of African and African Diasporan Women in Religion and Theology and privileges experiences and contexts of continental and diasporan African women and girls Interlocutors include African traditionalists Christian Protestants and Catholics Muslims and women embodying hybrid practices of these and other traditions African, Christian , Feminist Hinga, Teresia, 2017-12-14 For two decades Teresia Hinga has been a leading voice in the fields of African Christianity women in African theology and gender and ethics in the African context Now African Christian Feminist brings together Hinga s own selections from her extensive body of work a number of them not previously published A valuable resource for scholars and students alike African Christian Feminist reveals the depth and breadth of a unique voice in theology ethics and gender and African studies Religion, Women of Color, and the Suffrage Movement Simon Mary Asese A.
Ahiokhai, 2024-04-08 The year 2020 marks the centenary of the passing of the 19th Amendment that allowed for women in the United States to vote The strategic struggle of women demanding equal dignity and the right to vote in the United States helped to shed light on the systemic evils that have plagued the collective history of the country Ideologies of racism genderism classism and many more were and continue to be used to deny women their dignities both in the United States and in other parts of the world This work sheds light on the intersectionality of religion class gender philosophy theology and culture as they shape the experiences of women especially women of color A fundamental question that this volume aims to address is What does it mean to be a woman of color in a world where systems of erasure dominate The title of this volume is meant to showcase a deliberate engagement with the uncelebrated insights and perspectives of women of color in a world where systemic discrimination persists and to articulate new strategies and paradigms for recognizing their contributions to the broader struggles for freedom and equity of women in our world Minoritized Women Reading Race and Ethnicity Mitzi J. Smith, Jin Young Choi, 2020-09-24 Nonwhite women primarily appear as marginalized voices if at all in volumes that address constructions of race ethnicity and early Christian texts Employing an intersectional approach the contributors analyze historical cultural literary and ideological constructions of racial ethnic identities which intersect with gender sexuality class religion slavery and or power Given their small numbers in academic biblical studies this book represents a critical mass of nonwhite women scholars and offers a critique of dominant knowledge production Filling a significant epistemological gap this seminal text provides provocative innovative and critical insights into constructions of race ethnicity in ancient and modern texts and contexts Feminist Theory and the Bible Esther Fuchs, 2016-02-23 Feminist Theory and the Bible Interrogating the Sources conceptualizes contextualizes and maps a new kind of burgeoning scholarship that has grown up in recent decades This scholarship emerged in the margins of Feminist Studies and Biblical Studies and has yet to find a foothold in either one of these more established contexts In this book Esther Fuchs argues that in order to find an enduring stable place in the academe this scholarship requires a theoretical perspective Biblical Studies as a whole has not yet been sufficiently theorized as an academic field and currently consists of multiple disciplines relying for the most part on traditional scholarly discourses In this regard Feminist Biblical Studies is both a departure from and an important supplement to both Feminist Studies and Biblical Studies Polyamory and Reading the Book of Ruth Deborah Kahn-Harris, 2023-11-02 Polyamory and Reading the Book of Ruth is based on a simple premise what if the Book of Ruth isn't a love story in the vein of modern rom coms but a different sort of love story Many people are conditioned to read romance stories as resolving into happily married dyadic couplings most often heterosexual But what if that's not how to read the Book of Ruth This book identifies a polyamorous hermeneutic and explores how it might be helpful in interpreting the Book of Ruth Drawing on developments in both feminist and queer biblical studies Deborah Kahn Harris offers a close textual reading that focuses on a triadic basis for examining the relationships in the Book of Ruth The book closes with a contemporary targumic reimagining of the Book of Ruth that defines more clearly this polyamorous reading Contested Masculinities Robert Stegmann, 2020-10-27 In Contested Masculinities the author argues for the importance of critical consciousness and attentiveness to the interplay of the biblical text context and the long complex histories of interpretation that play out in the construction of masculinities Locating his reading of 1 Thessalonians within the thickly textured setting of a postcolonial post apartheid South Africa the author seeks to recontextualize Paul providing a nuanced understanding of how Paul's letters exercise authority over both the church and the academy The author maintains that attempts to frame either the biblical text or notions of masculinity as singular and universal perpetuate and reinforce binary formulations church academy global north global south colonizer colonized male female and entrench hierarchies of power The author re-reads 1 Thessalonians exploring the fissures that come into view when training a postcolonial and gender critical lens on the biblical text and delivers a refreshing account that is playful and open and porous especially as a conversational piece for masculinity ancient and contemporary Jewish Feminism Esther Fuchs, 2018-03-12 In the last three decades hundreds of books and essays have been published on women gender and Jewish Studies This burgeoning scholarship has not been adequately theorized contextualized or historicized This book argues that Jewish feminist studies is currently constrained by multiple frames of reference that require re examination a self critical awareness and a serious reflective inquiry into the models paradigms and assumptions that inform shape and define this area of academic interest This book is the first critical analysis of Jewish feminist scholarship tracing it from its tentative beginnings in the late 1970s to contemporary academic articulations of its disciplinary projects It focuses on the assumptions evasions omissions inconsistencies and gaps in this scholarship and notably the absence of debate contestation and interrogation of authoritative articulations of its presumed goals investments and priorities The book teases out implicit thinking about mapping direction and orientation from introductions to leading anthologies and engages critically with the few explicitly theoretical works on Jewish feminist studies contesting ideas that have become hegemonic in some areas and interrogating the limitations these theories impose on future trajectories in Jewish feminist studies Each chapter outlines the theoretical assumptions that inform salient publications in the field providing a close reading of scholarly texts that justify certain practices The book is divided into four chapters each of which focuses on a different frame of reference It outlines the way in which the various frames that have so far been imposed on Jewish feminism the ethnocentric liberal personal masculinist and essentialist have arrested its theoretical elaboration and articulation The book includes both interdisciplinary anthologies on gender and Jewish identity and disciplinary publications in history literature philosophy cultural studies and Holocaust studies

Rape Culture and Religious Studies Rhiannon

Graybill, Meredith Minister, Beatrice Lawrence, 2019-04-30 Rape Culture and Religious Studies Critical and Pedagogical Engagements stages a critical engagement between religious texts and the problem of sexual violence Rape and other forms of sexual violence are widespread on college and university campuses they also occur in sacred texts and religious traditions The volume addresses these difficult intersections as they play out in texts traditions and university contexts The volume gathers contributions from religious studies scholars to engage these questions from a variety of institutional contexts and to offer a constructive assessment of religious texts and traditions

A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo, 2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women's political participation The author's primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng's concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women's oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual's life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a sophiological hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching

The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino s liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology
