Unresolved Issues Urban Christian:

Who Were the First Christians? Thomas Arthur Robinson, 2017 Challenges the consensus view of the urban character of early Christianity Demonstrates that almost every scenario in reconstructing early Christian growth is mathematically improbable and in many case impossible unless a rural dimension of the Christian movement is factored in Points to the likelihood that the marginal and the rustic made up a larger part of its membership than is generally recognized Toward the Twenty-first Century in Christian Mission James M. Phillips, Robert T. Coote, 1993 This unique volume offers a comprehensive survey of the prospects and critical issues for the Christian world mission The essays written by various mission experts cover such topics as the biblical and theological basis of the mission women in mission urban mission dialogues with other faiths the anthropology of popular religions and more Improving Urban Access Elliott Sclar, Måns Lönnroth, Christian Wolmar, 2016-03-31 By 2050 two thirds of the world s population will live in cities To thrive they will need efficient and sustainable forms of transport but to achieve this the financial incentives guiding urban transport operation must change and change rapidly Urban transport plays a critical role in determining the social environmental and economic shape of cities Improving Urban Access New Approaches to Funding Transport Investment provide innovative ideas on how we might reorganize transport finance to ensure that it is suited to serving the social environmental and economic principles that must guide future urban living Continuing the work begun by its predecessor Urban Access for the 21st Century the authors assess the complexity of implementing new finance approaches and suggest ways to make positive and radical changes Although the range of revenue raising options remain limited to users indirect beneficiaries and the general public these can be recast to transform the way transport is paid for and therefore how its services are delivered New finance models only succeed when they are intrinsically linked to the economic social cultural and political forces that create urban life Together these volumes provide a starting point for the deeper research and policy design needed to successfully create urban transport finance systems that can address the challenges that 21st century cities present Christian Ethics J. Philip Wogaman, 2010-12-24 This updated survey of Christian ethics addresses major thinkers movements and issues from the early church to the present A broad range of topics is discussed including the biblical and philosophical legacies of Christian ethics and ethics through the early medieval Reformation Enlightenment and modern eras This new edition contains more extensive discussions of ethics in the twentieth century including Vatican II ecumenical social ethics and Orthodox Christian ethics A new section Toward the Third Millennium looks at the issues we will face in the coming decades including medical scientific and political dilemmas and issues of terrorism war and peace Paul as a Prototype and Entrepreneur of Christian Identity Vuyani Stanley Sindo, 2024-10-31 In this important addition to Pauline scholarship on 1 Corinthians Dr Vuyani Stanley Sindo brings fresh insight to how Paul s use of the in Christ terminology supports his argument on leadership and community Integrating social identity theory with a socio historical approach Dr Sindo examines how identity discourse is an integral part of the leadership discourse in 1 Corinthians 14 From this solid base he provides a close and insightful investigation of the interrelationship between leadership and identity This compelling and biblically rooted work will help Christians to understand the dangers of division within the church and how Christian leaders can overcome these divisions by reminding the community of their common identity in Christ Seeking a City with Foundations David W. Smith, 2019-03-31 More than half the people in the world live in cities including a growing number of megacities with populations exceeding ten million people This trend means that an understanding of urbanization must be an urgent priority for Christian theology and mission across the globe This updated edition of Seeking a City with Foundations with an additional chapter explores Christian responses to the city ranging from rejecting the urban as evil to embracing it as being central to God's redemptive purposes Drawing from a wide range of disciplines including history social science urban planning and the history of art readers are given a detailed text which confronts the challenges that contemporary urbanization presents to world Christianity Looking at urbanism as a theme throughout Scripture culminating with the great vision of the New Jerusalem David Smith explains that God's own future is revealed as urban highlighting the need to identify modern day idols as we share the gospel in cities and acknowledge the impact of global economic forces The book also explores the causes of what has been called the divided city and traces the urban theme through the Bible to present an alternative vision of the urban future a future in which the injustices in ever growing slums and a crisis of meaning among the privileged might be overcome through the power of the reconciling message of the cross This timely book proposes a way forward for urban mission highlighting that transformation of our cities must be the focal point of Christian mission and hope

The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 The Encyclopedia of Christianity is the first of a five volume English translation of the third revised edition of Evangelisches Kirchenlexikon Its German articles have been tailored to suit an English readership and articles of special interest to English readers have been added The encyclopedia describes Christianity through its 2000 year history within a global context taking into account other religions and philosophies A special feature is the statistical information dispersed throughout the articles on the continents and over 170 countries Social and cultural coverage is given to such issues as racism genocide and armaments while historical content shows the development of biblical and apostolic traditions This comprehensive work while scholarly is intended for a wide audience and will set the standard for reference works on Christianity Outstanding reference sources 2000 American
