professionals with an interest in the Olympics sport education sports coaching sport policy or physical education One World Health Lord Nigel Crisp, 2016-06-30 This brand new textbook presents a new approach to the teaching and understanding of global health It describes the shared opportunities but also the problems that we all face wherever we live and the particular needs of the poorest people in every society Covering subjects from epidemics and climate change the need to staff and resource health services appropriately the rich potential of science and technology and the impacts of social and political change in the world around us all is presented at a level appropriate for the student looking to gain an understanding of this broad and developing area National Rural Water Supply and Sanitation Programme, 2006-2015, 2007 Advances and New Perspectives in Higher Education Quality Maria Esteban, Ana B. Bernardo, Ellian Tuero Herrero, Joana R. Casanova, Antonio Cervero, 2024-04-22 The changes that have occurred in today's society require Higher Education to be highly efficient in the academic and professional preparation of young people who enter university For that reason universities around the globe have been advocating in recent years for an improvement in the quality of teaching learning processes As an example the World University Consortium 2023 currently presents among its most urgent and priority objectives the identification of the best evaluative practices of the educational processes that are carried out at the University as well as the recognition of the actions aimed at improving educational processes based on scientific evidence In this way it seeks to distinguish all those educational actions that are at the forefront going from actions at the micro level such as individual teaching practices in the classroom such as the application of the flipped classroom or the use of augmented reality up to actions taken at the macro level such as those proposed in the Horizon Europe 2020 strategy Digital Dissidence and Social Media Censorship in Africa Farooq A. Kperogi, 2022-07-27 This book reflects on the rapid rise of social media across the African continent and the legal and extra legal efforts governments have invented to try to contain it The relentless growth of social media platforms in Africa has provided the means of resistance self expression and national self fashioning for the continent's restlessly energetic and contagiously creative youth This has provided a profound challenge to the African gatekeeper state which has often responded with strategies to constrict and constrain the rhetorical luxuriance of the social media and digital sphere Drawing on cases from across the continent contributors explore the form and nature of social media and government censorship often via antisocial media laws or less overt tactics such as state cybersurveillance spyware attacks on social media activists or the artful deployment of the rhetoric of fake news as a smokescreen to muzzle critical voices The book also reflects on the Chinese influence in African governments clampdown on social media and the role of Israeli NSO Group Technologies as well as the tactics and technologies which activists and users are deploying to resist or circumvent social media censorship Drawing on a range of methodologies and disciplinary approaches this book will be an important contribution to researchers with an interest in social media activism digital rebellion discursive democracy in transitional societies censorship on the Internet and Africa more broadly Sustainability
