its defenders more nuanced and numerous The how and why Wonder Book of Felix Sutton,1965 Discusses aspects of the various deserts of the world and the animals plants and people that occupy them The Desert Home, Or, The Adventures Of A Lost Family In The Wilderness Mayne Reid,2021-03-22 The Desert Home Or The Adventures Of A Lost Family In The Wilderness has been considered by academicians and scholars of great significance and value to literature This forms a part of the knowledge base for future generations So that the book is never forgotten we have represented this book in a print format as the same form as it was originally first published Hence any marks or annotations seen are left intentionally to preserve its true nature The Land of Little Rain Mary Austin,2023-05-02 The Land of Little Rain is a loosely connected collection of essays detailing the land and inhabitants of the American Southwest The individual works are connected via the waterways that connect the regions they describe The stories and essays focus on themes that contrast the supremacy of nature with the effects of humans in natural spaces Many stories follow the animals in their daily lives the growth of plants the seasons and the various human inhabitants of the region The author creates a lyrical view of the desert and lowlands at the base of the mountains with a focus on animal and plant life Humans are generally viewed as interlopers in an otherwise pristine and functional system Mary Austin first published The Land of Little Rain in 1903 The work highlighted the life of the desert at a time when the popular imagination pictured the desert as empty and lifeless At the time of writing there was much debate between those that wanted to anthropomorphize nature and present an idealistic view from animal perspectives pejoratively referred to as nature fakers and those that wanted to provide a clear and accurate view of the natural world The Land of Little Rain takes a creative approach but resists the pull to make the flora and fauna of the region more human like and instead faithfully presents them in their environment as the author observed them The Desert John C. Van Dyke,John Charles Van Dyke,1980 In the early summer of 1898 John C Van Dyke an asthmatic forty two year old art historian and critic rode an Indian pony out of the Hemet Valley and headed southeast into the Colorado desert With his dog his guns and few supplies this sickly aesthete wandered mostly alone for nearly three years across the deserts of California Arizona and Mexico He crossed the Salton Sea Basin forded the Colorado below Yuma on a raft he built himself followed the railroad line to Tucson then turned west again toward Sonora His exact route is not known he did not always know where he was himself He sought both health and beauty in the dry country and wrote that the desert never had a sacred poet it has in me only a lover This extraordinary book composed at odd intervals when I lay against a rock or propped up in the sand is a masterpiece of personal philosophy containing precise scientific analyses of diverse phenomena from erosion to sky colors and prescient ruminations on the nature of civilization The desert should never be reclaimed Van Dyke wrote yet he lived long enough to see the reclamation projects in what became the Imperial Valley He did not witness the virtual destruction of the Colorado Desert still ongoing As poet Richard Shelton wonders in his introduction Where are the herds of antelope Van Dyke spoke of and the gray wolves and the pure air At Home in Joshua Tree Sara Combs,Rich
