Urban Outcasts Urban Outcasts:

Urban Outcasts Loïc Wacquant, 2013-04-26 Breaking with the exoticizing cast of public discourse and conventional research Urban Outcasts takes the reader inside the black ghetto of Chicago and the deindustrializing banlieue of Paris to discover that urban marginality is not everywhere the same Drawing on a wealth of original field survey and historical data Loïc Wacquant shows that the involution of America's urban core after the 1960s is due not to the emergence of an underclass but to the joint withdrawal of market and state fostered by public policies of racial separation and urban abandonment In European cities by contrast the spread of districts of exclusion does not herald the formation of ghettos It stems from the decomposition of working class territories under the press of mass unemployment the casualization of work and the ethnic mixing of populations hitherto segregated spawning urban formations akin to anti ghettos Comparing the US Black Belt with the French Red Belt demonstrates that state structures and policies play a decisive role in the articulation of class race and place on both sides of the Atlantic It also reveals the crystallization of a new regime of marginality fuelled by the fragmentation of wage labour the retrenchment of the social state and the concentration of dispossessed categories in stigmatized areas bereft of a collective idiom of identity and claims making These defamed districts are not just the residual sinkholes of a bygone economic era but also the incubators of the precarious proletariat emerging under neoliberal capitalism Urban Outcasts sheds new light on the explosive mix of mounting misery stupendous affluence and festering street violence resurging in the big cities of the First World By specifying the different causal paths and experiential forms assumed by relegation in the American and the French metropolis this book offers indispensable tools for rethinking urban marginality and for reinvigorating the public debate over social inequality and citizenship at century's dawn Urban

Postcolonial Urban Outcasts Madhurima Chakraborty, Umme Al-wazedi, 2016-10-14 Extending current scholarship on South Asian Urban and Literary Studies this volume examines the role of the discontents of the South Asian city The collection investigates how South Asian literature and literature about South Asia attends to urban margins regardless of whether the definition of margin is spatial psychological gendered or sociopolitical That cities are a site of profound paradoxes is nowhere clearer than in South Asia where urban areas simultaneously represent both the frontiers of globalization as well as the deeply troubling social and political inequalities of the global south Additionally because South Asian cities are defined by the palimpsestic confluence of among other things colonial oppression anticolonial nationalism postcolonial governance and twenty first century transnational capital they are sites where the many faces of empowerment and disempowerment are elaborated The volume brings together essays that emphasize myriad critical approaches geospatial urban theoretical diasporic subaltern and others United in their critical empathy for urban outcasts the chapters respond to central questions such as What is the relationship between the politico economic narratives of globally emerging South Asian cities and the dispossessed How do South Asian cities stand in relationship to the nation and conversely how might South Asians in diaspora construct these cities within larger narratives of development globalization or as sources of authentic ethnic identities How is the very skeleton the space the territory of South Asian cities marked with and by exclusionary politics How do the aesthetic and formal choices undertaken by writers determine the potential for and limit to emancipation of urban outcasts from their oppressive circumstances Considering fiction nonfiction comics and genre fiction from India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka literature from the twentieth and the twenty first century and works that are Anglophone and those that are in translation this book will be valuable to a range of disciplines

Urban Outcasts. Towards a Sociology of Advanced Marginality, 2008 Urban Outcasts Loïc J. D. Wacquant, 1994

Urban Informal Settlements Yannan Ding, 2022-02-10 This book offers a concise and yet diverse study on the Chengzhongcun It has a broader scope both geographical and temporal than existing works on this topic The typical Chinese urban informal settlement is related to morphologically similar communities to be found elsewhere in the world The chapters themes were inspired by the methods in historical geography citizenship studies and new cultural geography What is truly unique to this book is that ten years after the basis material of this book was defended it is enriched with practical experience and first hand observations of the rapidly changing Chinese city As urbanization in China slows this book will interest sociologists urbanists and scholars of China

Marginalization in Urban China F. Wu, C. Webster, 2010-10-28 This book covers social inequalities in Chinese cities and provides comparative perspectives on inequality and social polarization neoliberalization and the poor the change of property rights rural to urban migration and migrants enclaves deprivation and residential segregation state social security and reemployment training programs

Urban Ethnography Richard E. Ocejo, 2019-10-22 Showcasing the ideas analysis and perspectives of experts in the method conducting research on a wide array of social phenomena in a variety of city contexts this volume provides a look at the legacies of urban ethnography s methodological traditions and some of the challenges its practitioners face today

Improving Educational Equity in Urban Contexts Carlo Raffo, 2013-12-17 An enduring educational concern that has plagued researchers and policy makers in a number of affluent countries is the endemic nature of educational inequalities These inequalities highlight distinct differences in the educational skills knowledge capabilities and credentials between learners demographic characteristics They also point to issues of educational disadvantage that emanate from a combination of factors including family life communities the geographies of space and place gender and ethnicity This book examines some of the causes and responses to educational inequalities and focuses upon poor urban contexts where educational disadvantage is at its most concentrated and where educational policy and practice has over time proliferated It questions how wider inequities experienced by young people in urban contexts generate educational inequalities and disadvantage detailing explicitly what an equitable approach to education might look like Included in the book is an innovative educational equity framework and toolkit with illustrative policy and practice case studies bringing together unique scholarship and analysis to examine future educational policy in a holistic comprehensive and equitable way It will be valuable reading for postgraduate students researchers and policy makers with an interest in education and educational equity City of Extremes Martin J.

Murray,2011-06-20 A powerful critique of urban development in greater Johannesburg since the end of apartheid in 1994
