Second Promised Land Harry H. Hiller, 2009-05-01 Combining statistical analysis and ethnographic study Harry Hiller uncovers two waves of in migration to Alberta His innovative approach begins with the individual migrant and analyzes the relocation experience from origin to destination Through interviews with hundreds of migrants Hiller shows that migration is complex and dynamic shaped not just by what Alberta offers but also prompted by a process that begins in the region of origin which makes migration possible and helps determine whether migrants stay or return home By combining a social psychological approach with structural factors such as Alberta's transition from a regional hinterland province to its emerging role the global system discussions of gender the internet and folk culture Second Promised Land provides a multi dimensional and deeply human account of a contemporary Canadian phenomenon

Second Promised Land Harry H. Hiller, 2009 Explosive economic growth in resource rich Alberta has led to a stunning increase in its population In contrast to Ontario and British Columbia which have grown primarily through international migration Alberta has become a magnet for internal migrants contributing to population redistribution within Canada with significant national social and economic consequences Combining statistical analysis and ethnographic study Harry Hiller uncovers two waves of in migration to Alberta His innovative approach begins with the individual migrant and analyzes the relocation experience from origin to destination Through interviews with hundreds of migrants Hiller shows that migration is complex and dynamic shaped not just by what Alberta offers but also prompted by a process that begins in the region of origin that makes migration possible and helps determine whether migrants stay or return home By combining a social psychological approach with structural factors such as Alberta's transition from a regional hinterland province to its emerging role in the global system discussions of gender The internet and folk culture Second Promised Land provides a multi dimensional and deeply human account of a contemporary Canadian phenomenon From Treaty Peoples to Treaty Nation Greg Poelzer, Ken S. Coates, 2015-07-28 Canada is a country founded on relationships and agreements between Indigenous peoples and newcomers Although recent court cases have upheld Aboriginal title rights the cooperative spirit of the treaties is being lost as Canadians engage in endless arguments about First Nations issues Each new court decision adds fuel to the debate raging between those who want to see an end to special Aboriginal rights and those who demand a return to Aboriginal sovereignty Greg Poelzer and Ken Coates breathe new life into these debates by looking at approaches that have failed and succeeded in the past and offering all Canadians from policy makers to concerned citizens realistic steps forward Rather than getting bogged down in debates on Aboriginal rights they highlight Aboriginal success stories and redirect the conversation to a place of common ground Upholding equality of economic opportunity as a guiding principle they argue that the road ahead is clear if all Canadians take up their responsibilities as treaty peoples Canada will become a leader among treaty nations Urban Neighborhoods in a New Era Clarence N. Stone, Robert P. Stoker, 2015-09-18 For decades North American cities racked by deindustrialization and population loss have followed one primary path in their attempts at revitalization a focus on economic growth in downtown and business areas Neighborhoods meanwhile have often been left severely underserved There are however signs of change This collection of studies by a distinguished group of political scientists and urban planning scholars offers a rich analysis of the scope potential and ramifications of a shift still in progress Focusing on neighborhoods in six cities Baltimore Chicago Denver Los Angeles Phoenix and Toronto the authors show how key players including politicians and philanthropic organizations are beginning to see economic growth and neighborhood improvement as complementary goals The heads of universities and hospitals in central locations also find themselves facing newly defined realities adding to the fluidity of a new political landscape even as structural inequalities exert a continuing influence While not denying the hurdles that community revitalization still faces the contributors ultimately put forth a strong case that a more hospitable local milieu can be created for making neighborhood policy In examining the course of experiences from an earlier period of redevelopment to the present postindustrial city this book opens a window on a complex process of political change and possibility for reform View from the Urban Loft Sean Benesh, 2011-10-12 As the world hurtles towards urbanization at an ever increasing pace there arises the need for further theological reflection on the city Globalization international immigration and densification in cities are having a transformative impact on the urban landscape Urban mission is at the forefront of many denominations church planting networks ministries and mission organizations yearning for citywide transformation How are we to think biblically and theologically about the city View from the Urban Loft will take readers through the development of cities throughout history act as a guide to navigating the current forces shaping urban environments and seek to uncover a theology of the city that gives Christians a rationale and a biblical understanding of the meaning and purposes of the city and then how to live in it for the glory of God
