DIY Urbanism in Africa Stephen Marr,Patience Mususa,2023-11-02 Protracted economic crises accelerating inequalities and increased resource scarcity present significant challenges for the majority of Africa s urban population Limited state capacity and widespread infrastructure deficiencies common in cities across the continent often require residents to draw on their own resources knowledge and expertise to resolve these life and livelihood dilemmas DIY Urbanism in Africa investigates these practices It develops a theoretical framework through which to analyze them and it presents a series of case studies to demonstrate how residents invent new DIY tactics and strategies in response to security place making or economic problems This book offers a timely critical intervention into literatures on urban development and politics in Africa It is valuable to students policymakers and urban practitioners keen to understand the mechanisms and political implications of widespread dynamics now shaping Africa s expanding urban environments

Housing Africa's Urban Poor Philip Amis,Peter Lloyd,2018-09-03 Originally published in 1990 this book reveals the extent to which petty landlordism is developing not just in the African urban settlements that have sprung up but in government sponsored low cost housing estates The first part of the book traces African governments changing responses to urban growth since the 1960s The second presents case studies of housing markets and landlord tenant relations north and south of the Sahara The third examines World Bank involvement and the book ends by considering policy implications

African Seminars Various Authors, 2021-02-25 Originally published between 1986 and 1989 the 8 volumes in this set reflect the research and debate surrounding many issues for the African economy society and culture and as such make a vital contribution to effective development both rural and urban They re issue key titles from the International African Library and the International African Seminars and address themes of direct relevance to contemporary Africa on topics as diverse as medicine migration housing pastoralism and marriage
