Trials of Nation Making Brooke Larson, 2004-01-19 This book offers the first interpretive synthesis of the history of Andean peasants and the challenges of nation making in the four republics of Colombia Ecuador Peru and Bolivia during the turbulent nineteenth century Nowhere in Latin America were postcolonial transitions more vexed or violent than in the Andes where communal indigenous roots grew deep and where the Indian problem seemed so daunting to liberalizing states Brooke Larson paints vivid portraits of Creole ruling elites and native peasantries engaged in ongoing political and moral battles over the rightful place of the Indian majorities in these emerging nation states In this story indigenous people emerge as crucial protagonists through their prosaic struggles for land community and ethnic identity as well as in the upheaval of war rebellion and repression in rural society This book raises broader issues about the interplay of liberalism racism and ethnicity in the formation of exclusionary republics without citizens Afterlives of Discovery Heidi Andrea Restrepo

Rhodes, 2025-03-28 In Afterlives of Discovery Heidi Andrea Restrepo Rhodes traces global and national histories as they entangle through the concept and material life of Discovery across Colombia's evolution into a liberal settler colonial state Rather than seeing Discovery as a singular event or bygone era Rhodes theorizes Discovery as a globally encompassing racialized formation of domination and geographic speculation that continues to structure settler colonialism Discovery's logics they argue are rooted in colonial and capitalist fantasies projected onto the racialized space and place of the colonized other Rhodes draws on critical theory human rights research and Colombian archives to challenge dominant narratives that maintain the Colombian armed conflict began as a Marxist insurgency in 1964 Instead Rhodes shows that the conflict is an extension of Discovery's ongoingness via projects of dispossession extraction whitening and epistemic and political hegemony Given that Colombia's national past present and future are grounded in Discovery Rhodes asks How is it possible to build futures that escape Discovery's grasp American State Trials John Davison Lawson, 1914 Reports of State Trials
